Unit Approves Holland

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee has unanimously approved Dr. Jerome Holland as the next U. S. Ambassador to Sweden.

The full senate must still vote on confirmation, but there was no dissent registered at the vote.

Holland, nominated by President Nixon earlier this year, is president of Hampton Institute.

Wrong Way To Cuba

ST. JOHN'S, New Brunswick — The sugar harvest drew more than 600 American youths to the Canadian port today to board the Cuban freighter Luis Arcos Bergnon bound for Havana.

Some were turned back at the border by Canadian officials earlier in the week because their visitors' status was suspect. Saying they were able, the youth had no such equipment on their bus.

Opportunities A-Plenty

MADISON, WIS. — A visiting professor at the University of Wisconsin School of Journalism said this week opportunities for young, qualified blacks in journalism were very good.

William Gordon, a senior officer in the U. S. Information Agency who is Kemper Napp visiting professor at UW, said, however, there is a lack of blacks in the field. He is former managing editor of the Atlanta Daily World.
