repaying the large interest on the loans.

The issue of the Black Panther killings aroused Rev. Phillips too as he said, "no matter how you feel about the Black Panthers, there is a pattern of suppression.

"We need a just society, and there won't be any peace until there is justice."

The Rev. Phillips stated, "I still believe this is the greatest country, potentially, for one reason — the constitution.

"The constitution states that "when a long train of abuses and usurpations, pursuing invariably the same Object, evinces a design to reduce them under absolute despotism, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off such Government, and to provide new guards for their future security."

Those other prominent political figures, John Clark, Defense Captain of the Baltimore Black Panther Party, Bill Lunsford, State Chairman of New Democratic Coalition of Maryland, and Parren Mitchell, 7th District Congressional Candidate, also spoke at the two and a half hour program.

Mr. Clark said, "The only way we can get rid of the pigs is to decentralize them . . . if you want freedom you are going to have to fight for it . . . we are being attacked violently because we say all power to the people.

State Chairman Lunsford said that "now is the time for people participation in politics; for grassroots participation . . . there is no room for black or white bossism in the black community . . . calling all black politician-big black brother is watching you.

Mr. Mitchell said that the "unholy triumvirate" (President Richard Nixon, Vice-President Spiro Agnew and Senator Strom Thurmond is dedicated to building a second reconstruction . . . Nixon vetoed the HEW bill in the name of saving money . . . law and order is aimed at putting black men in jail and keeping them there."

posed legislation — consumer protection bills.

The demonstrators were chanting, among other things, "We want Mandel," and "More money now."

Some carried signs that read: "Increase welfare benefits, people come first" and "Jobs or income."

One spokesman said they represented Welfare Rights Organization. They had journeyed to Annapolis mainly from Baltimore by buses.

Strangely, no delegation made an attempt to go upstairs and see Gov. Marvin Mandel in his offices, but aide to the governor said.

Other than the chanting and singing, the crowd was orderly in the corridor, and no large contingient of police were in evidence.

When the afternoon Senate session convened in its chamber off the corridor, the crowd continued the demonstrations for about 20 minutes and then dispersed and left the State House.

At issue is the $1.62 per person per day allowance for a family of four, for example on welfare. This has been in effect since 1958.

* * *

Raleigh C. Hobson, Social Services director, had urged the governor to increase the allowance to $2.60, but the governor refused.

The demonstrators hoped to influence the lawmakers to encourage the governor to increase the allowance, possibly in his supplemental budget which is yet to come.

The Assembly can further prune a budget, but is not empowered to restore Executive Department cuts.

Earlier this week, a delegation of nearly 100 welfare recipients and sympathizers jammed the Senate's Finance Committee room for a hearing on the same subject.

While one senator remarked that the governor had granted a 15 percent increase in the agency's budget, Mr. Hobson said the increase only covers salary increments, more case loads and administrative expenses.

The $1.62 per person per day covers everything, including food, housing and clothing.

While all of this was going on, Lawrence Cardinal Shehan, head of Baltimore's Archdiocese, was meeting with Gov. Mandel along with two other prominent Catholic officials, urging state aid to private and parochial schools.

The governor, according to a spokesman, said he understood the problem, but would wait until he has received a report on the matter he had ordered.

—Dr. Lockwood

Community College of Baltimore, and his work was recently recognized when he was elected as Commissioner on the commission on Institutions of Higher Learning.

This is a top-ranking group affiliated with the Middle States Association, mentioned before.

Dr. Lockwood was formerly head of the Evening Division, now the Division of Continuing Education at CCB.

He received his B. A. degree at Morgan State College and was awarded his master's degree at Northwestern University.

Johns Hopkins granted him the Ph.D. degree in administration and guidance. Prior to joining the Community College of Baltimore staff, he served as vice principal and as principal in a number of Baltimore schools.

For the past year, Dr. Lockwood has been concerned directly and almost exclusively with the planning of the Harbor Campus, which will be located in the vicinity of Gay Street, Pratt Street and Market Place. Scheduled for opening in 1974, the campus is expected to reach more than 4,000 students from East, South and Southwest Baltimore and from the central business district.

* * *

In a special report to the Board of Trustees, Mr. Charles Tilton, board member, told about the definite progress being made on this facility, and the necessity of keeping City Council,mg and the public informed about the value of the Harbor Campus project.

The new administrative assistant to President Bard, Mr. Gregory is a specialist in Afro-American history.

He earned his B.A. degree in sociology and history from Knoxville College, later receiving his master's degree from Teacher's College-Columbia University, where he is currently a doctoral candidate.

Prof. Gregory was a teacher in the Baltimore city schools and is presently teaching Black American history at CCB. He has written Afro-American history material being used in Baltimore public schools.

Dr. Frederick S. Lane, chairman of the college Faculty Senate executive committee, said in a letter to Dr. Bard that "Mr. Gregory will make a valuable contribution to the college and we give him our full endorsement."

* * *

The new Assistant director of Instruction and Summer Session Courses of the Division of Continuing Education, Mr. Culotta is a graduate of Patterson High School, graduating first in his class, of which he served as president.

He attended Western Maryland College, where he received his A. B. degree, graduating with honors.

He did graduate work at the University of Maryland, at Rutgers University and at California State College in Los Angeles.

Prior to joining the CCB faculty, Mr. Culotta had wide experience in public school teaching in the Baltimore metropolitan area. He was an instructor in social studies and English at Topson High School and later at Patterson High School.

Mr. Culotta joined the CCB staff in 1962 as a counselor in the Evening Division, three years later transferring to the Day Division Counseling Services, under Dean Leona S. Morris.

In 1969, he was director of the Second Summer Division, hence has had experience for his new position.

* * *

The new allied health director, Prof. Twardowicz is a scientist by training. Dr. Bard picked him to be co-ordinator of the new health programs at CCB and get them started.

His achievement was recognized by many, and he was selected as the new full-time administrator of the department, now housed in a beautiful new wing.

Prof. Twardowicz received his Master of Science degree at Marquette University in 1961 and completed graduate work in basic medical sciences at the University of Florida.

After teaching at Loyola College and the University of Maryland, he came to CCB in 1964 as an assistant instructor, receiving rapid promotions.

Mr. Beckham earned his M.A.T. degree at Johns Hopkins University and did undergraduate work at Howard University and at Morgan College.

He has been employed as co-ordinator of curriculum and instruction in the Division of Continuing Education, and will serve as assistant director of Summer sessions for 1970.

Birthday Tribute

DENNIS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my wife and our mother, ALBERTA DENNIS who celebrated her birthday, February 14, who passed away February 26, 1969:

God has taken you to your rest, my loved one.
My heart cries out in bereavement.
I look to God in my distress
For He loved you best.

FARLETT, DENNIS
and
MILDRED MOORE
and OTHER MINOR
SONS and NEPHEWS

LOVE — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear Sister, ELLEN M. LOVE, on her birthday, February 15, who passed away October 16, 1967:
3 years have passed since you went away.
The pain still lasts more and more each day
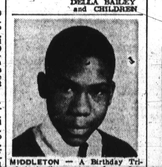
Though we miss your smiling face
So we wrote these words to say
No one can ever fill your place.
Love forever on this your birthday.

DELLA BAILEY
and CHILDREN



MIDDLETON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear son and brother, WILLIAM RICHARD, on his birthday February 14, 1969. He was born May 30, 1936. We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind;
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of our dear son and brother

On his Birthday Morn.

MOTHER, FATHER, SISTER
and BROTHERS

WHYAKER — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our husband and father, GEORGE H. WHYAKER, who passed away on October 30, 1967, on his birthday February 14:
I'll remember you, dear, while
There's life in my heart,
And tho' God in His wisdom has torn us apart
Is your home up in Heaven you must know that I'm true
To the love and esteem that was only for you.
And I pray that when life for me
comes to an end,
I will meet you in Heaven, my own dearest friend.
My friend and my sweetheart, my husband, dearest love,
God keep you and guard you in Heaven above.

Loving Wife,
HILDA HOLMES
and GRANDCHILDREN

In Memoriam

BELL — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, WILLIAM H. BELL, who passed away February 7, 1957:
Now you've gone, we miss you so.
No gift, no tiss on you to bestow
Only a wish, a wish
that is true.
Eternal peace dear
girl for you.
We'll always remember as time goes by
And in our hearts
you'll never die.

Loving Wife,
CLARA
Daughter,
HELEN.

BUTLER — A tribute of love is to the memory of our beloved father, ALEXANDER, who passed away February 15, 1963:
We love you as we miss you.
In our memory you are dear;
Dwelling in memory, loved for always,
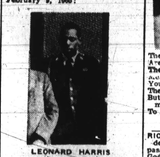
Thoughts of you are ever near.

Daughters, MARGARET CLAYTON and ETHEL PRATER.

HARRIS — In memory of our loved ones, LEONARD, who passed away February 14, 1958 and JOSEPH E., Jr., who passed away February 5, 1968:



LEONARD HARRIS

JOSEPH HARRIS

Weeping may tarry for the night,
But joy comes with the morning
Sad memories linger around
Bring with shouts of joy.
And you shall rejoice in the Lord;
In the Holy One of Israel you shall glory.

LOVINGLY THE FAMILY

HUNT — In loving memory of our dear mother, AUGUSTA, who passed away February 16, 1960:
God made lots of beautiful things;
Flowers and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the world a gift more rare,
Love, loving and more true.
Of all God's gifts, the one most
dear
A mother as dear as you.

Son, DANIEL and RICHARD

LOKEMAN — In loving memory of my husband and our dear father, JOSEPH M. LOKEMAN, who passed away February 15, 1969:

A light is from our household gone.
A voice we loved so much is stilled;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.
Some may think you are forgotten,
Though we miss you are so dear;
But in memory you are with us
As you always were before.

BOYER — In loving memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM A. BOYER, who passed away February 8, 1969:
You're not forgotten
We ever will you be
As long as life and memory last
I will remember thee.

Loving Wife,
MARGARET BOYER

CAMPHOR — In loving memory of our dear mother, grandmother, MARY E. CAMPHOR, who passed away February 18, 1949:
No one knows how much we miss
you
Only God knows the bitter pain
We have suffered, since we lost
you
Life had never been the same
Sweet memories linger around.

COX — In loving memory of our beloved sons JESU COX JR., who passed away February 14, 1968:
Do not ask us if we miss you;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still outnumber
Years in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us two years ago.

LOVING FAMILY.

DICKENS — In loving memory of our dear mother, ADDIE DICKENS, who passed away February 15, 1968:
We look down and saw the strain;
The weary mind the toil the pain;
And wanted you to have the best.
Now you rains where you could rest.
We hope that someday we shall be
With God and you eternally.

CHILDREN

FOSTER — In loving memory of my dear mother, LITHIA, who passed away February 15, 1968 and my sister, MARTHA FOSTER, who passed away Feb. 1, 1969:
Gone dear mother and sister, gone
forever,
How I miss your smiling faces;
But you left me to remember
None on earth can take your place
A happy home I once enjoyed.
How sweet the memory still.
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.

LITHER MOFFATT

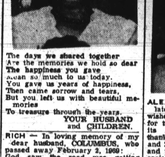
HALL — In loving memory of our dear mother, SUSIE HALL, who passed away February 15, 1969:
We loved you so, we miss you,
In our memory you are dear;
Dwelling in memory, longed for
always,
Thoughts of you are ever near.

Daughters, MARGARET CLAYTON and ETHEL PRATER.

PEAKER — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, PEAKER, who passed away February 16, 1967:
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend.
I kept the watch with you, dear
husband
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet
again.

DEVOTED WIFE

PORTER — In loving memory of our beloved son, MARY LUE PORTER, who passed away three years ago, February 16, 1967:



The days we shared together
Are the memories we hold so dear
The happiness you gave
Mean so much to us today.
You gave us years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears.
But you left us with beautiful memories
To treasure through the years.

YOUR HUSBAND
and CHILDREN.

RICH — In loving memory of my dear husband, COLUMBUS, who passed away February 2, 1966:
God saw the road was getting rough
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, sorrowful frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Devoted Wife,
EVERLYN RICH

ROY — In loving memory of our dear one, MARY E. ROY, who passed away February 16, 1968:
A wonderful mother, woman and
aide.
One who was better God never
made;
A wonderful worker, so loyal and
true;
One in a million — that, mother,
was you.
Just in your judgment, always
right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you
know,
Wonderful mother — that, mother,
was you.

THE ROY FAMILY

SMALLWOOD — In loving memory of our husband and father, MAIDENT T., who passed away February 12, 1967:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance
No one knows how much we miss
you,
We lost a day dear husband
and dad
That we do not think of you.
There is a memory tender and true
There is a token of affection
And the heart aches still for you.

WIFE and DAUGHTER.

SMITH — In loving memory of our dear mother, MARVIN, who passed away February 9, 1967:
The rolling years of life rule on
But still the vacant chair Recalls the loved one, the voice, the smile
Of the one who sat there.

Loving Daughter and Husband,
GERTRUDE and
ARTHUR BROOKS

SPENCER, JR. — In loving memory of my dear son and our brothers, WILLARD, JR., who passed away February 16, 1968:
We love him; yes we loved him,
And angels loved him more —
So they took our boy home with them
To ponder shining shore.

MOTHER, FATHER, and SISTERS

THOMAS — In loving memory of our dear husband, ROBERT E. THOMAS, who passed away February 9, 1964:
Eight years since you gone
I still miss you.
The memory home we once enjoyed —
Dear Robert, life isn't a stillness
No one can ever fill.

Loving Wife,
CECELIA THOMAS

TRAYNHAM — In loving memory of our dear husband, WILLIAM McKINNEY, who passed away February 17, 1960:
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear in my memory you will always be.

Loving Wife, EDDIE MARIE TRAYNHAM

In Memoriam

JOHNSON — In loving memory of our beloved sister, MAMIE CHATMAN JOHNSON, who passed away February 14, 1966:
Some say time heals an aching heart
But no that is not true,
Since you have gone dear sister
Our hearts still ache for you.
Even though it has been two years,
Since you have been gone dear;
But we remember you as though it was only yesterday;
You were so good, loving and kind
You just could not be enough.
A sweeter, dearer sister, no one could ever find.
God blessed us with you, sister
dear
Like a ruby you were so precious and rare
Even though you are gone,
Still in our heart you live on and on.

Sister, VIOLET
Brothers, AVON, EDWIN and WENDAL CHATMAN

MARTIN — In memory of my dear aunt, SUSIE A., who passed away 4 years ago, February 17, 1966:
Lovely aunt, I'm thinking of you today
Wishing you were near
Devoted Niece — ZELMA B. HOLLEY

MARTIN — In loving memory of our wife and mother GEORGIANNA MARTIN, who passed away February 14, 1968:
Loved and sadly missed
Upright and just to the end of her mind
Sincere and true in her heart and mind
Beautiful memories she left behind.

JOHN E. MARTIN SR.
BEATRICE E. MARTIN daughter
JOHN E. and
ELMER G. MARTIN

MITCHELL — In loving memory of our dear wife, daughter, SARA JESSIE, who passed away February 14, 1968:
Do not ask us if we miss you;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still outnumber
Years in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us two years ago.

LOVING FAMILY.

MYERS — In loving memory of my godmother, ROSA MYERS, who passed away February 16, 1969:
Not a word spoken, loved one,
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
I shall remember thee.

Godchild —
THARIZAS HENDERSON

PEAKER — In loving memory of our dear husband and father, PEAKER, who passed away February 16, 1967:
You fought the pain so bravely,
Your head, you did not bend.
I kept the watch with you, dear
husband
Yes, even to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God grant some day we'll meet
again.

DEVOTED WIFE

PORTER — In loving memory of our beloved son, MARY LUE PORTER, who passed away three years ago, February 16, 1967:

The days we shared together
Are the memories we hold so dear
The happiness you gave
Mean so much to us today.
You gave us years of happiness,
Then came sorrow and tears.
But you left us with beautiful memories
To treasure through the years.

YOUR HUSBAND
and CHILDREN.

RICH — In loving memory of my dear husband, COLUMBUS, who passed away February 2, 1966:
God saw the road was getting
rough
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, sorrowful frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

Devoted Wife,
EVERLYN RICH

ROY — In loving memory of our dear one, MARY E. ROY, who passed away February 16, 1968:
A wonderful mother, woman and
aide.
One who was better God never
made;
A wonderful worker, so loyal and
true;
One in a million — that, mother,
was you.
Just in your judgment, always
right;
Honest and liberal, ever upright;
Loved by your friends and all you
know,
Wonderful mother — that, mother,
was you.

In Memoriam

TUNNER — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, THOMAS W. TUNNER, JR., who passed away February 15, 1968:
Broken is the family circle
Our dear one has passed away.
Passed from earth
the earthly darkness
Into bright and perfect day;
But we must
cease to languish
O'er the grave of him we love.
Strive to be prepared to meet him
In the better world above.

MOTHER, SISTERS, BROTHERS and NEPHEWS

WALLER — In loving memory of our beloved son, PVT. LINWOOD WALLER, who passed away February 18, 1966:

One year has passed since that sad day
Since the one we loved was called away;
God took him home — It was His will;
But in our hearts he lives still.
