63RD STOCKHOLDERS MEETING

AFRO employees' awards for 225 years service

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

The 63rd annual stockholders' meeting of the AFRO-AMERICAN Co. held Monday morning in Baltimore witnessed the presentation of awards to 10 employees who have a total of 225 years service.

Among them were John J. Oliver Sr., vice-president in charge of production, 35 years and three editors, Raymond H. Boone, Richmond editor-manager; 5 years; Mrs. Lula Mackay, women's editor, 40 years; and Sam Lacy, sports editor, 25 years.

Also in the group were AFRO board members, Howard H. Murphy, comptrolle r, 45 years; and Frederick A. Howard, Production superintendent, 20 years.

• • •

Presentation ceremonies were held in the office of the president, John H. Murphy III, who presided.

Present was AFRO trustee, D. Arnett Murphy, 78, son of John H. Murphy Sr., who founded the newspaper in 1892.

Absent for the first time in recent years was the other living son of the founder, John H. Murphy Jr. who will be 90 years old in August. He is the sole surviving incorporator of the firm.

Others cited were Miss Dorothy Jackson, advertising department administrative secretary, 35 years; Mrs. Dorris S. Robinson, chief clerk, dispatch department, 10 years; Mrs. Ellinor Washington, teletypist and Mrs. Alice L. King, bookkeeper, both five years.

Advertising Man of the Year, George B. Murphy Jr., received a special citation and a check.

• • •

A catered reception preceded the meeting of the stockholders.

AFRO trustees are D. Arnett Murphy, John H. Murphy Sr., John J. Oliver Sr. and Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy Moss.

• • •

Three 4th-generation members of the family of the founder were elected to the board of directors at the meeting.

They are Miss Marilyn Oliver, William H. Murphy Jr. and Daniel H. Murphy.

James H. Murphy, a director for 20 years, resigned.

Directors re-elected were John H. Murphy III, president; Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy Moss, first vice-president-treasurer; John J. Oliver Sr., vice president in charge of production; Mrs. Mae E. Dyson, secretary; D. Arnett Murphy, John H. Murphy Jr., Howard H. Murphy, Frederick A. Howard, Mrs. Frances M. Henderson, Mrs. Ida M. Smith and Mrs. Arnetta M. Lotter.

Also relected was Kenneth O. Wilson, second vice president in charge of advertising.

• • •

Setting the pace for the employee citations was D. Arnett Murphy who lauded the veteran employees as "people who have carried the AFRO to success" as the world's largest newspaper chain published mainly for black readers.

Oldest employee with his 45 years of service, Howard H. Murphy, received a silver bowl, an extra week vacation and a $100 check.

Mrs. Alice Carroll, his secretary, presented a gift of gold cut links from business department employees.

In her citation, Mrs. Carroll not only lauded Mr. Murphy for meritorious service but also for over 31 years active participation in community affairs and as member of numerous national, state and city government, church and welfare boards and committees.

For 40 years service, Mrs. Mackay received, a silver bowl, extra week vacation and $100 check presented by Mrs. Ida M. Smith and the president.

In his citation Moses Newson, executive editor, lauded Mrs. Mackay as a "miracle worker" who bridges the generation gap in greeting young brides and party goers with the same excitement and interest she showed in the early years of her career.

Citing Mrs Oliver for 35 years service was Art Carter, Washington AFRO publisher, who termed him, the personification of what the AFRO is all about" and one of the company's major operation administrators.

Medford Reynolds, composing room foremen made the presentation of a silver bowl.

The presentation for 35 years service to Miss Dorothy Jackson was made by D. Arnett Murphy who as retired advertising chief, recalled in 35 years she had not been late nor absent.

Her superior, Kenneth O. Wilson, hailed Miss Jackson as "one who is as near perfection as an administrative assistant as anyone I have ever known."

• • •

Miss Ruth Jenkins, City editor of the Washington AFRO, cite d sports editor Sam Lacy as "one of the most efficient, diligent, dependable, hardworking newsmen who can span the generation gap in the show biz world and whose knowledge in the sports field counts him among the nation's experts."

The silver tray for 25 years service was presented by Mrs. Moss.

Mr. Murphy III presented Frederick Howard a gold watch for 20 years service.

In giving the citation for Samuel Snowden composing room supervisor who was not present, Mr. Murphy praised Mr. Howard's quiet manner through the years as he rose from linotype operator to production superintendent.

Mrs. Mae Dyson gave the 10-year pin award to Mrs. Robinson and cited her as "a dispatch department chief clerk who has taken high interest in the heavy duties and has pursued them with diligence."

• • •

Mrs. Moss gave the 5-year pin award to the Richmond editor, Mr. Boone whom she said "has not lost his sense of perception of the great need for the black press. He has been willing to give his all."

The late De. Carl Murphy, AFRO publisher, hired Mr. Boone in 1960 after he was graduated from the Boston University School of Public Relations and Communications.

• • •

Mrs. Margaret Brown, head of the teletype department, made the presentation of a 5-year pin to Mrs. Washington as "an excellent assistant she trained at the company.

Her citation praised Mrs. Washington as "excellent employee who has a wonderful on-the-job attitude."

Mahlon Oswell, bookkeeping department head, cited Mrs. King for superior service and awarded her the 5-year pin.

In the citation, Mr. Oswell recalled Mrs. King succeeded Mrs. Edna Rawlings who retired in 1965 after 30 years in the department.

• • •

Guests of the honorees included Mr. Oliver's bride, Mrs. Lois Haskins Oliver; his dahghter, Miss Marilyn Oliver and sister, Mrs. Elizabeth M. Oliver Abney.

Also present were Mrs. Patricia Murphy Robinson, New Rochelle, N.Y., a stockholder and daughter of Howard H. Murphy; Mrs. Odessa Howard wife of Frederick Howard; Mrs. Elinor Palmer, Roy Parker, Mrs. Mary Speaks, Gregory Washington, the mother, brother, sister and son of Mrs. Elinor Washington.

Other stockholders present included William H. Murphy Sr., Mrs. Vashti M. C'Matthews Misses Susan Wood, Rachael and Marie Phillips, Messers Benjamin Phillips and A. Paul Moshington who said the invocation.

Dear Nancy....

Q. Now that Leslie Uggams has lowered the boomouth boom on CBS for their dropping of her TV show, will she not now be put on that nasty list by the network?—Pauline Higginbotham.

A. On the contrary CBS-TV has been talking to club-for-network-showing Miss Uggams' popularity-green enormously during the controversy over the show's unceremonious cancelation. One case where a performer probably gained more than she lost.

Q. Does Hollywood have any black makeup artists?—A. C. Harris.

A. Not at the moment but we think this will change now that the Govt. has told the film industries to hire who they want and that the unions must go along without regard to color. Producer Russ Vincent is set to hire Jimmie Smith as a makeup chief, and that could be the start.

Q. Who is tops among the gospel Queens, Mahalia Jackson or Clara Ward?—Queen Mother living in Baltimore.

A. Mahalia gets the prestige writeups by the critics, but Clara Ward gets more than her share of worldwide bookings and probably thusly makes the most money and as a result of the countless bookings is the more popular.

Q. Bill Cosby has taken a commanding interest in the Redd Foxx Club, reports go. Cosby is also known to have Shatra as a partner in ownership of a posh Hollywood spot. The Bayou, and just about is all alone on the Redd Foxx Enterprises.

Q. Maybe this is the reason I get letter trying to get Maytee Bitch for my pal. But, truly, I don't know this fellow, but I keep hearing so much about him and I read about him sometime in gossip columns. His name is CaSheers. What's it to him?—Fred H. Threadgill.

A. CaSheers is the entertainment name of an incredibly good dancer a handsome chap now at the Dunes Lounge in Bahamas. Before he joined the Dunes, Lefty in Hollywood, where he was at the Ball farm club, is getting rave raves since he cop his first crown over a year ago at the Rill of Fire, Freddie Fox's Dial Diner and at the Hill on Western in Los Angeles. He's also seen on the Rowan Grey Show.

Q. What is the name of the tune by Nina Simone, the one about being black? Seems about better than last one she might have, the lady's voice blasts here. The song is a hit this now with Miss Simone, and Jack Lenhard Andy Stroud has it in hand in the new RCA album he's produced for his wife.

Bahamas get courtesy program

NASSAU, Bahamas — A new program has been launched by the government to create a greater degree of courtesy over the islands. It is being sponsored by people on the islands.

The prime minister, Lynden O. Pindling launched the campaign and cautioned that "that can sabotage our whole national effort. He said the campaign is about courtesy as the bedrock of our tourist trade and hotels.

This 700-island country is a popular tourist resort and Cuba and Tourism is its main source of income. Tourism is the Bahamas' biggest industry, with more than a million visitors a year and a national income of more than $200,000,000 with a labor force of 70,000 employed mainly in tourist-related jobs.

The campaign, launched in the capital, Nassau, is directed at improving the attitude of the local people toward the tourist. It is being sponsored by a local newspaper recently declared in editorial that, "a loving hospitable island is a place to which people flock for a retreat for wealthy people from all over the world. It is a place where people can be decided exactly what to wear and what to do and his family."

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. — Dr. Luther S. Williams, professor of biology at Howard University, will be the commencement speaker at Miles College's Seventh Annual Alumni Founders' Day Banquet, Friday at 7 p.m. at Parliament House.
