Citizens plan black exhibit

The Citizens for Black History met recently, to discuss plans for the exhibition they plan to hold beginning May 24, and covering a period of six weeks.

Mrs. Kelly Jackson, chairman, pointed out the need for books about and by black Americans who live or lived in Baltimore.

The group is also seeking for exhibit documents, pictures and paintings. The exhibit will also include a section titled "From the Afric," and a cultural corner. There will also be sections on music, entertainment, politics and war.

Attending the planning session were:

Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Elizabeth Henderson, Mrs. Mildred Seaborne, Mrs. Odessa Thomas, Mrs. Lucille Gorham, Mrs. Elizabeth Ward, Father Clayton Dudley, Wilbur Hunter, Franklin Showell and George W. Brown.

Stop those Tears!

Do you remember the last time you had a toothache? Hurt, didn't it? We bet you felt like crying, too. Well then you can imagine how much babies suffer during teething. Give him Humphreys No. 3 for quick and blessed relief. He'll sleep better and so will you. During your baby's teething always have on hand . . .

DENISE HAWKINS

Denise Hawkins Ingenue finalist

Miss Denise Hawkins, 17-year-old daugrter of Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Hawkins and a senior at Northwestern High School, is one of 10 Baltimore girls breathlessly awaiting the news that will make one of them a national celebrity.

Miss Hawkins is a finalist in the Miss Ingenue Baltimore contest sponsored by Hutzler's and the Ingenue Magazine. Also a finalist is Miss Carolyn Lamma of Dunbar High School.

• • • •

Chosen by the magazine's editors from hundreds of photos submitted to the magazine by Baltimore teenagers, the finalists were judged on the basis of personality, grooming and photogenic potential. The winner will be chosen tomorrow (Saturday) at a showing at Hutzler's Towson at 2 p.m.

The winner will be eligible to compete with regional winners from all over the country for the national title, a $500 scholarship and a car, along with other gifts. She will also receive a modeling assignment and a four-day stay in Acapulco for tre finals.
