CATONSVILLE NEWS

Craigs 50th anniversary

By SAMUEL TORSELL

On Saturday, May 2, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Craig Sr. celebrated their 50th anniversary at 132 Wesley Ave. in Catonsville. This celebration was given for them by their children, grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig are the parents of Charles Craig Jr., Mrs. Juanita Bacote, Mrs. Ethel Jason, Mrs. Geneva Eob and the late Mrs. Delores Wilkins. They have 12 grandchildren and 3 great-grandchildren.

* * *

Mrs. Louise Craig wore a beautiful blue gown of lace over satin a Vogue Paris original made by her niece, Mrs. Beatrice Christian, Mr. Craig looked very distinguished in a tuxedo of white coat and black pants.

All of the grandsons and nephews wore tuxedoes and all of the grandchildren and nieces wore hostess pants suits.

Mr. and Mrs. Craig renewed their vows. The officiating pastor was Father Connoly of St. Catherine's Church. Many tears were shed but they were all tears of happiness for a wonderful couple who have been wonderful parents and beautiful people.

They have had ups and downs, like everyone else, but they have been thankful for the ups and have accepted the downs together.

The pattern for a happy life is to face every day as it comes, have faith in God and to listen to and love each other.

Their many guests were friends from school days to present days. There were approximately 200 guests and a beautiful time was had by all.

They received many beautiful gifts which they will treasure for the rest of their lives.

And they want to take this time to thank all of their friends and families for helping them to celebrate a day they will never forget.

Now fly nonstop to London.

On June 1st, Pan Am will inaugurate direct daily service between Friendship and London. Leave in the evening, 7 P.M. Arrive early, 6:35 A.M. (London time) ready for a full day in town.

Also, Mrs. Ann Callahan said that there should be a black studies program at Western High in an effort to relieve the racial tensions.

6) Mrs. Angela Lee, of Parents United for Quality Education and a spokeswoman for the Balck United Front, request for a special public hearing on Dr. Sheldon's qualifications as superintendent, received a nay vote in a motion.

7) The Board voted to look into the location of Project ADAPT near public schools and to investigate the influence the location has on students.

Robert Jackson, President of the African Heritage Cultural Center, voiced a grave concern on the availability of narcities to school children in the area in the 500 block Mosher St.

* * *

In addition, 8) Don Wines of Caudill, Rowlett and Scott requested that $45,000 in unexpended funds and appropriations be retained with two staff members. The motion passed.

Board President Robert Karwacki, Commissioners Mrs. Elizabeth Murphy Moss, Samuel T. Daniels, Mrs. Farring, Mr. Gibson, Philip Macht, Mr. Griffin, and John J. Sweeney Jr., were present at the board meeting. Sidney H. Tinley wasn't present.

The next scheduled Board meeting is Thursday, June 4, at 4 p.m. at 3 E. 25th St.

Mrs. Green buried from son's church

Funeral services for Mrs. Goldie Cantha (Reesby) Green, 77, were held at the Park Heights Baptist Temple, 3016 Oakley Avenue, Thursday at 11 a.m.

Mrs. Green, a well-known musician, music teacher and church worker in the Maryland area for 50 years, died May 17 after several months of illness.

The widow of a well-known Baptist minister, the late Rev. Joshua H. Green, former pastor and founder of Baltimore's Metropolitan Baptist Church, Mrs. Green was buried from the church pastored by her son, the Rev. J. Webster Green.

The Rev. Arthur J. Payne, pastor of Enon Baptist Church, in offering the sermon, characterized the deceased as one whose total life contributed to the fully blossomed personality she presented in her late years.

"She not only remembered her Creator in the days of her youth, she followed and learned of Him throughout life, so that the closer she came to the Kingdom, the more ready she was to meet her Father," the Rev. Wayne said.

* * *

Among those offering resolutions and condolences to the family were the Rev. D. Ward Yerby, pastor of Perkins Square Baptist Church; the Rev. W. H. Thompson, pastor of Whitestone Baptist Church; the Rev. James Moore, pastor of the Sharon Baptist Church;

Also, the Rev. George M. Gunther, the Rev. George A. Crawley, Jr., pastor of St. John Baptist Church, and Mrs. Martha Crews of Lynchburg, Va.

Among those who sang solos were Mrs. Barbara Kelly, granddaughter of the deceased; Miss Elaine Taylor and Bishop Harold Williams, local radio personality who sang and played "Precious Lord," and another granddaughter, Mrs. Shirley Butler, who sang "The Lord's Prayer."

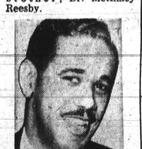
Presiding was the Rev. Willard L. Clayton, pastor of Macedonia Baptist Church.

Music was furnished by the combined choirs, New Metropolitan Baptist and Park Heights Baptist Churches.

Among the more than 40 individuals and organizations which sent resolutions or telegrams were the Methodist Men's, Wives of Baltimore, the Md. Beauty Shop Owners' Association, the Senior Choir, New Metropolitan Baptist and Rogers Beauty Supply Co.

More than two dozen floral designs adorned the bronze casket. Surviving the deceased, in addition to the Rev. Mr. Green, are eight children: Mrs. Dorothy Smith, Mrs. Bernice Kelly, Mrs. Lydia Starks, Mrs. Alice Tyler, Miss Corinthia Green, Mrs. Helena Hodge, Mrs. Theresa Coleman and Semion Green, Sr.

She is also survived by 16 grandchildren, five great-grandchildren, and one brother, Dr. McKinley Reesby.



DR. JOHN T. CHISSELL — elected president of the Maryland Academy of General Practice. Dr. Chissell was named at the academy's York, Pa. meeting.
