Carver High students shine at Model Youth City Council

The Anna Mack Arthur Award to the Model Youth City Council for outstanding participation was presented to the Carver Vocational-Technical High School on behalf of the Baltimore City Council at the sixteenth annual Legislative session of the Model Youth City Council on Friday.

The award was presented by William Donald Schaefer, president of the City Council.

Participating in the Model Youth City Council at representatives of Carver were the following persons who acted as councilmen: Michael Kitchen, James Kavanaugh, Bobby Anderson, Fred Coleman, Glen Howard, Joe Smith, John Davis, Vernon Hudson, William Holmes, Harold Carr, and Howard Marshall.

Carver students acting as citizens were Jeanette Dail Michele Scott, Jessica Brooks, Nathaniel Daily, Edward Coit and Marvin Jordan.

Officers of the Model Youth City Council from Carver were Harold Carr, vice-president; John Davis, Student Chaplain; and Bobby Anderson, chairman of the Committee on Health and Welfare.

Michael Kitchen of Carver sponsored the only bill passed by acclamation. This bill was one which provided for the mandatory innoculation of all school children against Rubea.

Youngsters termed the Model Youth City Council a "highly rewarding experience."

This activity was sponsored by the Social Studies Department (Mr. G. Luther Washington, Department Head) under the guidance of Samuel A. Moulton and Mrs. Mildred U. Murray.

Another proud moment for the participants was the presentation of the award by the students to Henry Johnson, principal of Carver High.

Other officials of the 1970 Youth Council were: Robert Sinners, Patterson High, mayor; Richard McJilton, Poly, president, City Council; Barry Bruce, Mervo comptroller;

Also Ellis Iskow, Poly, chairman, pro-legislative session; George Stamaths, Patterson chairman protem; Lena Tillery, Douglass, chief clerk;

And, Bonnie Elliott, Edmondson, reading and recording clerk; Herman Jones ,Mervo, sergeant-at-arms; Wahseola Gross, Edmondson, student chaplain; and Karl Watts, Douglass parliamentarian.

D.C. fighters top ring fare

Sports Activities will match the classy Bobby Lee of Washington, and Mario Saurennan of Philadelphia, in the 10-round main event at Civic Center next Thursday night.

Lee will be seeking his 15th win in 16 starts, when he opposes Saurennann, a victor in 14 of 22 bouts, with seven losses and one draw.

Two other D.C. fighters, Johnny Gant and Adrian Davis will meet in the co-feature.

Gant has won 14 of 17 bouts, Davis 14 of 27.

Youngsters set to vie

Bennett, of 725 George Street, won the District 8 tournament last week, with Brandon the runner-up. Third place in the District 8 affair went to Darrisch.

First and second place winners in various district meets will compete in the citywide marbles tournament Saturday, June 6, at Mt. Royal Recreation Center, it was announced this week by the Bureau of Recreation.

A Murphy Homes Recreation Center youngster, Ricardo Bennett, and Fred Brandon of the Mt. Royal Center, qualified last week for the June 6th finals.

BALTIMORE AND ALL THAT JAZZ

Jackie McClean sextet well-knit, avant garde

By ARCHIE R. MANGRAM Jr.

Welcome to what we hope will be come a regular feature on the jazz scene in Baltimore. Being a relative newcomer to Crabsville U.S.A., this writer feels that he can look upon the jazz scene with objective eyes (and of course ears).

I must admit, however, to a small amount of prejudice towards jazz. Since jazz is America's contribution to music in general, and since it was the black man who created jazz, I feel that it has a nate place in modern American music. It is to this end that I dedicate this column.

On Sunday we had a chance to dig the Jackie McClean sextet. Jackie has been "doing his thing" on alto sax since the early fifties. He has a well-knit group that plays mostly avant garde or the new approach to jazz.

In addition to Jackie on alto, his son, Rene, was on tenor. Billy Skinner did the honors on trumpet.

The three horns were backed by a stellar rhythm section composed of Billy Gault, piano, Pete Pearson, bass, and Lenny White percussion.

Most of the tunes the sextet played were composed and arranged by Billy Gault.

One of the most impressive selections, was an original composition by Billy Gault with an Arabic name that when translated means "Mother."

It had a distinctive Far Eastern flavor.

Jackie's solo was so convincing, I expected, at any moment, to see a snake weave up from a basket.

Billy Skinner played a biting, lyrical, imaginative solo on this one also.

Rene McClean is a very competent tenor player. He is, however, still in the developmental state at this point in his career.

Lenny White came through as an extremely talented young drummer. Ditto Billy Skinner.

These two young men will be heard from loud and clear in the very near future. Time nor space will not permit a detailed review of the concert, suffice it to say that they were together.

Incidentally, Jacie McClean was brought to Baltimore by the Left Bank Jazz Society. They have concerts by well known jazz artists each Sunday afternoon from 5 p.m. to 9 p.m. at the Famous Ballroom, 1717 North Charles St.

In Addition to the Left Bank Jazz Society's Sunday afternoon set, The Three Guys (Harold, Marlaw and Jay) have Saturday afternoonjam sessions at Lennie Moore's Club 24 from 3 p.m. to 7 p.m. They spotlight local talent. Don't be misled though, they cook as well and sometimes better than the imported ta- In a future column, I will list all of the places that good, live jazz can be heard in Baltimore. Later!

Easterwood lad marbles victor

Gregory Hardy of 1807 Whitmore Ave., captured District 3 honors in the Bureau of Recreation marbles tournament.

Young Hardy and runner-up Yardley Middleton of 9 S. Bernice St., qualified for the citywide meet, to be held June 6, at Mt. Royal Center. The winner of this event will represent Baltimore in the national tourney at Wildwood, N.J.

Hardy represents Easterwood Center, Middleton represents Hilton Center. James Royster, also of Hilton, was third.

Birthday Tribute

TURBIN — A Birthday Tribute in memory of our dear friend, KINSLEY TURBIN, on his birthday, May 23th, who passed away July 19, 1969.
Loved memories never die.
As years roll on and days pass by,
In our hearts a memory is kept
For the one we love and shall never forget.
We saw you fading and could not make you stay;
The pain was hard to bear,
The road was hard to climb
And Jesus closed your eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
Godson — DARRYLE GREEN
and Friends Of Misty Years

GRIFFIN — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of WILLIAM N. R. GRIFFIN, on his birthday, May 10th, who passed away January 22, 1968:
If I could have my fondest wish,
The most wonderful in the world today,
I would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn will dawn
I'll whisper soft and low;
"Please, God, let me have my loved one
Back, because I miss him so."
Sister — HONEY

Death Notices

PARKER — On May 20, 1970, WILLIAM ROBERT of Route 3, Box 86, Hanover, Maryland, beloved husband of Daisy L. Parker and father of Mrs. Virginia Warren; William O. Parker; Mrs. Yvonne W. Thomas. He is also survived by eight grandchildren; one brother, Charles Parker; four sisters, Mesdames Elizabeth Warren; Martha Williams; Rosie Dorsey and Mamie Robinson, nieces, nephews, cousins and other relatives. Friends may call at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Route 95, Dorsey Road on Friday after 4 p.m. and on Saturday from 10:00 a.m. till 1:00 p.m. at which time services will be held. (No viewing after services). Interment in Saints Rest Cemetery. Family will receive friends at the above church on Friday, from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. Arrangements by Nutter Funeral Home.

In Memoriam

ADAMS — In loving memory of our dear father and grandfather, NED ADAMS, who passed away May 23, 1969:
When one you care for has departed,
And you sit alone and broken hearted,
There's something in a kindred mind
That always leaves a sense behind
Of true companionship, we know
The pain it was to see you go.
Yet memory softens everything —
The grave its victory — death its sting.
We, who loved you, sadly miss you;
We, who held you very dear,
And in lonely hours of thinking
Often feel your presence near.
Though God has taken you away
You are with us every day.
DAUGHTERS, SONS and GRANDCHILDREN

CARTER — In loving memory of HOWARD B. CARTER, who passed away May 23, 1958:
Memories are a keepsake, no one can steal.
Death is a heartache, no one can heal.
Beautiful memories are all I have left
Of a wonderful friend, I will never forget.
Devoted Friend — BERTIE L. VALENTINE

DINGLE — In loving memory of my daughter LUCIE, who passed away May 23, 1943:
Sadly missed
Along life's way
Quietly remember every day.
Loving Mother — MARY and SISTER

GRIFFIN — In loving memory of our dear mother, ELLA M. GRIFFIN, who passed away May 23, 1955:
God made bits of beautiful things:
Sunset and roses, and trees,
Birds, and sunlight and loyal hounds,
And, after He made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more
Lovely than
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare
A mother as dear as you.
THE CHILDREN

JACKSON — In loving memory of my husband, C. L. A. BENCE E. JACKSON, who passed away May 24, 1971:
A silent thought, a sacred tear
Keeps a memory
Time takes away the edge of grief
But memory bares
Both every day.
Devoted Wife, MILDRED

MARSHALL — In blessed memory of SHIELDS MARSHALL, who died May 23, 1961:
His weary hours, his days of pain
His weary nights are past.
His suffering ended at last.
He has found sweet rest at last.
Devoted Wife — BERNICE and Loving CHILDREN

PHILLIPS — In loving memory of my dear wife, CORNELIA W. PHILLIPS, who passed away May 27, 1968:
Do you know that God above
Wanted you for me to love?
He picked you out of all the rest
Because He knew I loved you best.
I had a heart, and it was true,
Take care of it, darling, as I have done
For you have two . . . and I have none.
Loving Husband — ROBERT L. PHILLIPS

SMITH — In loving memory of my husband and our father ELI ADAM SMITH, who passed away May 23, 1960:
Dear Dad, we live go out of sight
But never out of mind
Your are cherished in the hearts of those who have left behind
Loving and true in all his ways
Upright and kind to the end of his days
Sleep and rest in peace and mind
Friendship memories be all we leave behind
Sadly missed and never forgotten
Son, SYLVESTER C. SMITH
