Morgan Students Win Science Prizes

Two Morgan State College students were awarded prizes at scientific conferences last month.

Gregory Shannon, junior from Baltimore, won a first prize in his psychology division at the 24th annual Eastern Colleges Science Conference held April 16-18 at Wilkes College, Pa.

The title of his paper was "Investigation into the Nature of Black Militancy."

Mr. Shannon also won a prize at the Maryland Psychological Association Convention, April 24, in Baltimore for his paper, "The Black Militancy Game: Exploration in Identifying and Measuring Black Militancy."

Donald Priester, a senior from Marietta, Pa., tied for the physics and mathematics prize at the Betta Kappa Chi convention in Atlanta, April 8, 9, and 10 for his physics paper on "Investigating the Temperature Expansion of NACL Using a Poor Man's X-Ray Spectrometer."

Othed student presentation made in Wilkes-Barre, Pa., were:

From the Department of Biology: Ney Lawson, "Effects of Lichen Extracts on the Germination of Seeds," and Benjamin Opara, "Effects of Aqueus Plant Extracts on Pinus Rigida Seed Germination."

From the Department of Chemistry: Irene Mansfield, "M. O. Calculations: Heteroatomic Molecules by the Huckel and Pople Methods," and William Brown, "The Preparation of KCL-KBR Solid Solutions in Sealed Quartz Tubes."

From the Department of Physics: Donald Priester, "Investigating the Temperature Expansion of NACL Using a Poor Man's X-Ray Spectrometer."

From the Department of Psychology: Ronald Barrett, "Interference in Paired-Associate Learning as a Function of Facial and Nominal Imagery"; Sharon Caldwell, "Identification of Criteria Used by Black Students to Define Blackness"; Griseelda Johnson, "Stuttering as a Function of Oral-Reading Readiness or Nonreadiness";

* * *

James Peters, "Reporting Richard Norman's Fa-Culty vs. Student Generation Gap: An Esploratory Investigation of Reciprocal Attitude-Prediction";

Kathleen Reason, "Effects of Birth-Order and Aspiration Level in Black College Students"; Joann Smith, "The Effect of Group Decision and Sex-Linked Characteristics on Risk-Taking"; Jerry Walker, "'Involved' vs. 'Noninvolved' Blacks: A Comparison of Selected Attitudes"; Raymond Terry, Reporting His and George Carter's "The Residual Effects of Repeated Exposure to Selected Pornographic Films."

At the Maryland Psychological Association Convention, in Baltimore, other students who represented the Department of Psychology are:

Robert M. Matthews, "Comparison of Black-White Choices in Dating"; and Joann V. Smith, "Group Decision and Sex-Linked Characteristics in Risk-taking."

Catonsville Fair Housing group plans for summer

The Fair Housing Council Catonsville has recently leased its summer schedule of public programs.

The Council has arranged for guest speakers for the May and June meetings. A film-discussion is scheduled for July, and a dramatic performance for the late summer.

Christopher Gaul, investigative reporter for WJZ-TV in Baltimore will be the featured speaker on May 27th at the Catonsville Presbyterian Church, Frederick and Beechwood Roads, at 7:30 p.m. Mr. Gaul, well-known for his in-depth studies of blockbusting in the Edmondson Village area, will talk on the subject "The Silent Majority — Not So Silent."

The public is invited. Admission is free.

On June 24th a program on "Fair Housing Now" is planned at the Grace AME Church, 67 Winters Lane. George Laurent and Donald Miller of Baltimore Neighborhoods, Inc. will explain the role of Fair Housing Councils in preventing discriminatory practices in real estate.

The film "Where is Prejudice" will be shown at the Catonsville Public Library on July 22 at 7:30 p.m. Residents of the community are invited to attend all events.

BUFFALO, N.Y. — Dr. GEORGE E. BLACKMAN, a surgeon, was elected president of the Board of Education last week. He has been vice president of the board.

Millions Know . . . The Secret Of Getting The Best Food Values! Do You?

The secret is in knowing what you are getting for what you are paying. Most shoppers know the quality and value of the popular National Brands. They also know that a supermarket's own brands cost less, but they know very little about the quality of the products.

No matter what you buy at A&P we guarantee your complete satisfaction without reservation. Whatever you choose to buy . . . the famous National Brands at prices we believe will save you money or quality-famous A&P Brands at prices we know will save you money, you can be sure of getting a quality product.

We tell you about this choice of food values because we think it's important to you . . . today.
