UMB Singers shine in concert

By ADAH K. JENKINS

The UMB (University of Maryland Baltimore Campus University Singers were givtn a standing ovation following their concert, "From Bach to Rock," held in the Fint Arts Theater on 540 Wilkins Ave.

With petite, energetic Marian Tally Bromn conducting, the 26 choristers sang a representative program, opening with a Bach chorale from Cantata 140, the Mozart "Ave Verum" and the Kyrie from Schubert's Mass with Joan King, soloist.

Following were the Meuller arrangement of "Mighty Fortress," a Beethovtn chorus and a group of madrigals by Moreley.

The Folk Group of six took over following the intermission with a foot tapping array that ranged from favorites like "Let It Be" and the Africa "Everybody Loves Saturday Night" to excerpts from the Broadway smash, "Hair."

Soloists were Carolyn Clark, Tony Trachter, Mary Reed and Arnold Clayman. Clolita Williams offered an interpretive dance of "The Exodus Song".

Instrumentalists were Michael Dowling and Harry Harris, classical guitarists; Don Brown and Skip Wolfe, electric lead and bass; Stephen Vace, percussion and Maurice Murphy, pianist.

Credit for lighting design is due Robert Harkum and Alan Farb.

By the way, the UMBC University Singers were heard at the May monthly student recital sponsored by the Baltimore Music Teachers Association in the parish hall of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer.

With Mrs. Brown on the podium, the ensemble gave an artistic rendition of madrigals and a spiritual. Carolyn Clark and Ridney Cogger were the affective soloists.

Marian Brown, of the music faculty at University of Maryland, is a member of the Baltimore Music Teachers Association. Mrs. Shirley Silver, of the BMTA board, was teacher-in-charge of the concert, which also included piano and cello solos by students of the members.

Academy will honor scientist

Nominations are now being accepted by the Maryland Academy of Sciences for its twelfth annual award to Maryland's Outstanding Young Scientist of the Year.

The award of a $500 check and an Allan C. Davis Medal will be presented to a scientist living and working in the State who will not have reached the age of 35 by Sept. 30, 1970.

The Academy will also present several Distinguished Young Scientist awards.

* * *

The word "scientist" as used in this award is interpreted as covering persons engaged in all disciplines generally regarded as scientific, including mathematics and engineering, according to Nigel O'C. Wolff, Academy director.

Mr. Wolff said selection will be made by judges appointed by the Academy's Scientific Council.

* * *

The selection of the Outstanding Young Scientist will be based on what the scientist has accomplished in one or more of several categories, including discovery of some new principle or process, or the advancement of the understanding or application of a scientific principle.

* * *

Nomination forms and explanatory materials have already been distributed to science-oriented industries and research organizations.

The deadline for nominations is Sept. 30.

Additional nominating forms may be obtained from the Academy, 7 W. Mulberry St., Baltimore, Md. 21201.

JUNE 5

The new careers program, in coordination with the Concentrated Employment Program (A Community Action Agency Project), holds graduation exercises, 10:00 a.m., at Community College of Baltimore Campus Theatre, 2901 Liberty Heights Ave.

Morgan faculty-trustee wives' farewell to Jenkins

The Morgan State Faculty-Trustee Wives Organization had the veil of nostalgia Sunday at President Martin Jenkin's home on Presidential Lane.

For the last time in 22 years the club will serve under the leadership of Dr. Jenkins who is retiring at the end of this semester.

The Faculty-Trustee Wives Organization was formed at the beginning of Dr. Jenkin's administration 22 years ago.

"This is the last meeting Mrs. Jenkins will attend with us as a member," said Mrs. Melville Pugh, president of the organization.

* * *

The club serves as a liaison between student and faculty — especially new faculty members, and offers scholarships to worthy students at Morgan State College.

Officers of the Faculty-Trustee Wives Organization are Mrs. Pugh, president; Mrs. Marvin Farbstein, 1st vice president; Frank DeCosta, 2nd vice president; Mrs. Earl Banks, recording secretary; Mrs. Roger K. Williams, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Therman O'Daniel, treasurer; and Mrs. Robert L. Gill, parliamentarian.

MAY 31

The Special Events Committee of Coppin State College presents the second in the series of post examination concerts. At 8 p.m. in the Pullen Gymnasium. Featured will be The Impressions and The Intruders.

The two rock groups are up and coming groups who have had many television and club appearances.

The program is open to the public, admission free.

No money in meters on Saturday

Commissioner of Transit and Traffic, Hugo O. Liem Jr., issued a reminder that while all other parking and stopping prohibitions will be in effect in metered and unmetered areas throughout the City on Memorial Day, Saturday, May 30, it will not be necessary to put money into the parking meters during those times when parking is allowed in the metered areas.

* * *

The Traffic Chief said that the only exceptions are the 24-hour parking meters in Sam Smith Park, Broadway and Belair Market Lots, and the City Hospitals parking area. Money must be put into these meters every day of the year.

Outspoken police chief in NBC interview June 2

One of America's most controversial and outspoken police chiefs, Commissioner Frank H. Rizzo of Philadelphia, will be profiled on NBC News' First Tuesday, June 2 (9-11 p.m. NYT) on the NBC Television Network.

Commissioner Rizzo defends his program against accusations that he has created a police state in Philadelphia and has alienated the militant radicals."

Philadelphia has the lowest major crime rate of any of America's 10 biggest cities, he points out to NBC News correspondent Tom Pettit, who produced the filmed report and narrated it. Pettit, who has covered American police elsewhere have given in too much to militant protesters.

"We've given up our rights," he says. He says the police state tactics against the militants are those of "We've disregarded the values and feelings of people who live within the law. We have been too much sapped by a few people who to browbeat police.

"I'll never happen while I'm police commissioner."

In addition, there will be extended documentation of the Dallas Cowboys and NFL rookie of the Year, discussion of "Dick Cavett Show," at 10 p.m. on Channel 6; Saturday, May 30.

The entire report was filmed with the cooperation of the Philadelphia Police Department and Commissioner Rizzo.

The 6-year-old commissioner has risen through the ranks. He joined the force as a patrolman more than 27 years ago.

He dropped out of high school in the 12th grade to help support his family. His father, a policeman, had been a policeman.

Mr. Rizzo is seen taking personal command at the scenes of a gang fight in a Negro neighborhood. He says he has used these tactics against the militant protesters.

'Peter Grimes' is Wednesday on Channel 67

Benjamin Britten's modern opera comes to America on television for the first time under the composer's baton. Based on his perfectly-fitted libretto by Montagu Slater, the work will be presented on Wednesday, June 3, at 7:30 p.m. over Channel 67.

Peter Pears, who sang the original Peter Grimes, again performs in the lead role. Soprano Heather Harper, who sang the role of Ellen Orford, repeats the part she won in the Britten premiere.

The opera, in three acts and a prologue, is derived from a long poem, The Borough, written in 1810 by George Crabbe, and presented in London's Covent Garden in London.

Ernie Boston moves to CBS in New York

Ernie Boston, News Director of Radio Station WEBB, who through the Baltimore Broadcast Journalism Society, moves to the CBS Radio Network in New York City on Monday, June 1.

Mr. Boston had worked at Baltimore area stations, WBJC-FM, WFBR and WCBM-FM, where he was briefly at WWDC in Washington.

For the past six years he had been News Director of Radio Station WEBB, owned by James Brown Station.

Mr. Boston has trained many newsmen in his formative years in Baltimore at larger stations in different cities. Mr. Boston becomes the new working at CBS from the James Brown chain of stations to reach network.

He has won numerous awards during his career in Baltimore.

"My most thrilling experience took place in 1966 when I reported stories from the Dominican Republic," commented Mr. Boston. He also has covered two Presidential conventions, the funeral of Dr. Martin Luther King, and the March on Washington.

He also gained recognition for his coverage of the Baltimore riots in 1967.
