$25,000 in prizes for photos contest

A $2500 shopping spree is the top prize being offered in the 36th National Children's Photograph Contest beginning June 15.

A total of $25,000 in prizes and gifts is being offered, which includes fabulous Shopping Sprees in participating stores plus hundreds of valuable U.S. Savings Bonds for Honorable Mention winners.

Any child, 14 years old or younger, is eligible to enter. Selection of the winners will not be based on beauty alone but on the personality and character shown in the child's photograph.

The final judges in this year's contest are four famous personalities: Lorne Greene, Marv Griffin, Goldie Hawn and Nina Simone.

The contest is sponsored by the National Association of Department Store Photograph Studios, who established the event in 1933.

Entry photographs can be taken anytime before August 8th, the last day of the contest, in Hutzler's Photograph Studio.

For complete details and rules visit Hutzler's Photograph Studio, Downtown, Towson, Southdale, Westview and Eastpoint.

LOVING COUPLE, Mr. and Mrs. Robert T. Gant, 69 and 66, respectively, who were married on Memorial Day at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church. Mrs. Gant is the former Mrs. Louise Petross, 1500 block Madison Ave.

Couple over 60 marries

Robert T. Gant, 69, 3730 Park Heights Ave. walked into the AFRO office recently arm in arm with Mrs. Louise Petross, 66, 1500 Madison Ave. and announced their plans to get married on Memorial Day at St. Peter Claver Catholic Church.

At 4 p.m. May 30, the couple was united by the Rev. Father Henry Offer and a reception at the groom's home followed.

The new weds are long time residents of Baltimore and neither plans to leave "any time soon."

They believe that cupid's arrow struck them at the New Metropolitan Baptist Church where the bride has been a member for many years. Mr. Gant is an usher at St. Peter Claver. He is a retired railroad employee where he worked for Western Md. 28 years.

Mrs. Gant belongs to Metropolitan's usher board, Flower Circle and is a Senior Missionary.

Dunbar High class of '50 sets reunion

Dunbar High School's Class of June, 1950, will have its 20th year reunion this month. Approximately 33 of the original 94 members of the class will participate in several of the planned activities.

The activities include: —

1. On June 10 — Attending and sitting as a group at Dunbar's Commencement and awarding a $300 scholarship to a worthy member of the graduating class of 1970.

2. On June 14 — Attending and sitting as a group at the morning services of First Baptist Church, the site of the baccalaureate services of the class of June, 1950; and of June, 1960.

At the service a special prayer will be rendered for the 5 deceased members of the class.

They are: 1) Olivia Wilder Brannon, 2) Marshall Gillis Johnson, 3) Mamie Tate Wilmore; 4) William Bishop, and 5) Perry Simpson. This will be followed by a dinner at the Sheraton Baltimore Inn at which six former teachers of the class will be honored.

3. June 20 — A party will be held at the home of one of the graduates.

Plans are being made to have an annual affair for the purpose of presenting an annual scholarship to a worthy Dunbar graduate.

Any interested members of the class who have not been contacted may get further details by calling Randolph Thompson, the Reunion Chairman, at 944-8345, or Barbara Manigault Williams, the Reunion Secretary, at 323-3919.

Carmichael Speaks In Guyana

GEORGETOWN, Guyana —Stokely Carmichael told Guyanese listeners recently that Africans and Indians must work together to take control of the Guyanese economy.

Carmichael praised Prime Minister Forbes Burnham saying, "I am happy that the people of Guyana have a Government headed by Mr. Burnham who understands the concept of free speech and who says that people should be allowed to say whatever they want to say, and let the people decide."

his doctorate from American University in Washington.

The newlyweds are planning a honeymoon to Europe, plan visits to London, Paris and Madrid.

When they return Dr. Contee will be teaching summer school at Morgan and in the fall, he will take a year's leave from Morgan to become visiting professor at Columbia University.

The couple will live in New York.

There is no end to what a Delta woman can do. Baltimore Deltas have always been assets to our community and I am very sure that they will continue this fine tradition.

Take Mrs. Leonard Cox (Thelma), the new president of the Deltas, Baltimore chapter, for example.

She has been appointed by Governor Marvin Mandel to the Maryland Council for Higher Education, effective this week. Mrs. Cox will be working with William Chaffinch and Dr. Hendy C. Welcome.

A Morgan State College graduate Mrs. Cox has been with the Board of Education of Baltimore City for twenty years. She began her teaching career as an English instructor at Dunbar Junior High School.

At present, Mrs. Cox is coordinator of Special Projects and Programs, working with federally funded programs to develop school projects and supervising them once they have been initiated.

An active worker, the Eastern Shore native serves on the Board of Directors of Planned Parenthood as well as on the Citizens Committee for Modernization of Maryland Courts and justice.

By the way in addition to electing Mrs. Cox president, Baltimore chapter named these other officers who will be installed on June 14:

Mrs. Norma B. Ford, first vice-president; Mrs. Mabeline Julien, second vice-president; Mrs. Dorothy J. Barrack, third vice-president; Mrs. Jewell S. Duggins, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Geraldine Blackwell, recording secretary; Mrs. Charlene Cooper, financial secretary; Mrs. Merrial Brinkley, treasurer;

Also, Miss Aloha McCullough, assistant treasurer; Mr. Frances Lucas, historian; Mr. Florence McDonald, Journalist; Mrs. Anna Fuller, parliamentarian; Mrs. Gertrude Neale, chaplain; and Miss Mary A. Lassiter, sergeant-at-arms.

Another Morgan graduate, Mrs. Geraldine Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Green, of N. Morley St. received her Bachelor of Science degree in Business Education at the 1970 commencement exercises.

Mrs. Young hopes to teach in the Baltimore schools later. Now she is preparing to join her Army husband, Robert L. Young, in Germany.

She is also planning to do graduate work at Columbia State Teachers' College in New York.

Another versatile young woman is Miss June Thorne, who was cited recently by the National Association of Negro Business and Professional Women' Clubs, Inc., in recognition of her dynamic contribution in the areas of education, acting and television.

June is television hostess on WMAR-TV's Channel Two's Saturday afternoon show, 'Woman's Journal.'

Our June wedding calendar is getting filled. It is just something about being a June bride that attracts young women to this month.

Miss Marcia Evans is planning a double ring ceremony at Christian Community Church of God early this month. She and her fiance, Leroy Matthew Levi, Jr. are still not disclosing where they are going on their honeymoon trip. But really, who can blame them.

And, out Ruxton Ave. way, Miss Bonnie Antoinette Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Johnson are making plans to tie the knot on the 13th of this month. Bonnie is planning a pink and white color scheme for the wedding and the reception.

St. Gregory Catholic Church will be the setting later on in the month for Miss Faye Latta and Eugene Colston's double ring ceremony. They are planning a wedding trip to Cove Haven.

Churches throughout the city will be busy this month with their various social activities scheduled.

The Colored Women's Democratic Campaign Committee of Maryland will be presenting the Alm High Club, Inc. in recital this Sunday at the Sharp Street Church, Dolphin and Etting Sts. Twill be a gala affair.

The Bishops' Guild of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland will gather at the Cathedral Church of the Incarnation, University Parkway at Charles St. for its annual lawn fete at 11 a.f. on Saturday, June 13.

The weekend of June 12-13 has been set by Beta Sigma Tau Fraternity for its national convention.

Headquarters will be the Sheraton Baltimore Inn. Kicking off the affair will be pre-registration and a "Presidential Reception" hosted by National President, Robert W. Griner.

Workshops and a Luncheon-business meeting are also on tap with a formal banquet dinner dance winding up the festivities.

Theme for this year's convention is "Where in the Seventies?"

Convention chairman James H. Thornton and his committee are expecting a large contingent of Beta men.

The local Alpha Chapter, numbering 150, will host the convention.

The Maryland Medical Association held its semi-annual meeting at the Oakland Mills Village Center in Columbia on Sunday.

Mrs. Edward E. Holt, president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Monumental City Medical Society, Dr. Bessie B. Small of the Del Mar Va Medical Auxiliary, and Mrs. Emerson C. Walden, immediate past president of the Woman's Auxiliary to the Maryland Medical Association reported on various projects.

Those included Mississippi, the National Project, Doctor's Favorite Recipes and Nutritional Hints Cook Book, and the Columbia Health Careers Seminar directed by Mrs. Fletcher Cassells of the National Medical Association Foundation Health Careers Council.

Dr. Small was nominated as National "Woman of the Year" for outstanding participation and leadership in auxiliary programs through the years.

Mrs. George C. Page was elected delegate to the National Convention in Atlanta.

Members joined their husbands and children for dinner in the Tack Room of the Other Barn.

Attending were Drs. and Mesdames Eric A. White, Joshua Mitchell, G. Franklin Phillips, Williams Wade, Winder Porter, Arthur Lamb, H. Garland Chissell, John T. Chissell, Gilbert Banfield, Elijah Saunders, Edward E. Holt, Thomas W. Harris, James F. Cooper, Henry C. Welcome, William R. Davis, Emerson C. Walden, James F. Cooper.

The United Order of Tents recently honored its leader, Mrs. Marian Epps at a testimonial banquet held at Macedonia Baptist Church.

Judge Harry Cole, William T. Nelson Jr., attorney and the host pastor, the Rev. Willard L. Clayton were among those paying tribute to Mrs. Epps who is rounding out 20 years' vice in the Nursing Department of Provident.

Also on hand were Charles Tildon, director of the New Provident Hospital Development Fund, and Mrs. Doris Reece, Assistant administrator of Provident's Nursing Service.

A dynamic, one settle, Christian whose faith, determination and prayers influenced the lives of all who knew her, were among the tributes paid the honoree.

Active also in the affairs of Macedonia, Mrs. Epps, a widow, reared a large family, served of warm were in attendance at the testimonial.

For her big day, Mrs. Epps selected a floor length lace gown in a soft shade of blue with gold accessories. Visibly moved by the tributes paid her, the honoree kept her promise to "save for keeps to be shared in private", gave credit to national guidance and Christian faith for the many accomplishments credited to her.

Others on the program were the Rev. Mrs. Beulah Baker, mistress of ceremonies, Mrs. Edith Allen of Morning Star Baptist Church, Mrs. Helen Johnson of the United Order of Tents, and the Rev. Mrs. Era Ferrell.

Several selections were rendered by the Young Adult Choir of Timothy Baptist Church. Guest soloists were Miss Evangeline Williams of Metropolitan United Methodist Church; Mrs. J. Wise and Miss Marian Lanford, granddaughter of Mrs. Epps.

Testimonial chairman was Mrs. Lillian Weatherspoon.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Promptly Relieved

Gives Prompt, Temporary Relief from Such Burning Itch and Pain in Many Cases.

The burning itch and pain caused by infection and inflammation in hemorrhoidal tissues can cause much suffering. But there is an exclusive formulation that in many cases gives prompt relief for hours from this itch and pain so that the sufferer is more comfortable again. It also actually helps shrink swelling of hemorrhoidal tissues caused by inflammation and infection.

Tests by doctors on hundreds of patients in New York City, Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center reported similar successful results in many cases. This is the same medication you can buy at any drug counter under the name Preparation HP.

Preparation H also lubricates and protects the inflamed surface area and it doesn't sting or smart. In fact, it has very soothing qualities which make it especially helpful during the night when itching becomes more intense.

There's no other formula like Preparation H. In ointment or suppository form.
