—Sen. Welcome

(FROM PAGE ONE)

Senator's home minutes after she had announced on television and to news media that she and the 4th District Democratic Club would support Governor Marvin Mandel in the coming gubernatorial election.

As predicted by the club's statement, the Governor did announce Tuesday that he would seek a full term in the State House.

This is Senator Welcome's second full, four-year term as a senator from Baltimore's 4th District, the territory which sets the pattern for much of the liberalizing movement in Maryland politics.

It was in the 4th that the strategy to deny the election to democrat George Mahoney by supporting republican Spiro T. Agnew for the governorship was spawned in 1968.

It is to the 4th District that most of Maryland black voters and liberal-minded voters turn to seek direction in the state's politics.

Senator Welcome had previously served one term in the House of Delegates before being elected to the Senate.

She ran as a reform candidate in opposition to Political Boss Jack Pollack.

After two terms in the senate, she continues to fly the reform banner, and is seeking to carry forward further reforms in what would be a third term for her.

In speaking to the AFRO Tuesday, the Senator revealed that she had received calls over the weekend which told of threats that had been made to persons demonstrating against the dope traffic in her district.

She said she had encouraged those who had been threatened to continue their efforts.

Her own campaign will be built around a call on the Governor to enlarge his basic actions against the traffic in dope.

In an article in the 5 Star edition of the AFRO on Tuesday of this week, we referred to the director of the John Eager Howard Recreation Center as Mrs. Charles Robinson.

In fact the director is Mr. Charles Robinson.

We regret the error.

Inflation Worries Businessmen

WASHINGTON — An overwhelming majority of businessmen think the nation is losing its fight against inflation, a U.S. Chamber of Commerce survey reported last week.

Of 743 business executives who responded to the questionnaire, 334 said the Nixon Administration's campaign against inflation is failing, 206 said there has been no improvement and 144 said there has been a slight improvement. Only 28 said the fight is going well. The poll was conducted by "Nation's Business."

In Memoriam

ARMSTEAD — In loving memory of My dear son, husband and father, JAMES LEWIS ARMSTEAD, who passed away June 10, 1952:
I tell my aching heart,
God took him for the best.
That is and the great Physician
Could ease his pain and give him rest.
Although the hours without you
Are too many to be measured,
I wished a thousand times each day,
For the dear one that I have treasured,
Sadly Missed:
MOTHER, WIFE and CHILDREN

HARRIS — In loving memory of my dear husband and my father BISHOP THOMAS HARRIS, who departed this life June 3, 1959:

We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy.
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy.
And death shall never end our love
For then the mist I see
Our glad reunion in the sky —
For all eternity!
WIFE and SON

HILL — In loving memory of my dear husband, JAMES E., who passed away June 10, 1959:
Memories are a keepsake
No one can steal
Death is a heart ache
No one can heal
Beautiful memories are all I have left
Of a wonderful husband, I will never forget.
Devoted Wife — NETTIE

WOODHOUSE — In loving memory of our dear relative, MARY K. WOODHOUSE, who passed away June 10, 1960:

Her absence is a silent grief.

JAMES — In loving memory of my beloved husband, our dear father, brother and loved one ROBERT J. (BEZOS) JAMES who passed June 9, 1959:
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place.
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness still come over us;
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us one yesterday ago.
WIFE, CHILDREN, SISTERS, OTHER RELATIVES and FRIENDS

LAWSON — In loving memory of our dear husband, ROMEO, who passed away June 13, 1967:
Life lived with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.
Loving Wife — THELMA

LEWIS — In loving memory of my dear son and our brother BENJAMIN F. LEWIS, JR., who passed away June 10, 1970:
These words are for you, our darling boy,
Who always was our pride and joy;
You entered the service and went far away;
We had no idea you went to stay;
The telegram came that brought us tears,
Its memory we'll carry through all our years;
Why you went we will never know,
All we know is we loved you so,
We changed our star from base to gold,
The misery of it can never be told;
And within our hearts so true
Remains our fondest love for you.
LOVING MOTHER and BROTHER

MARSHALL — In loving memory of our beloved husband, father and grandfather, CYRUS W. MARSHALL, SR., who passed away nine years ago, June 10, 1961:
We will grieve not, rather find
Strength in what remains behind
In memories a loved one lives
Who lived to give
That keep them always alive.
In memories that last forever,
Past time can never change or sever
As long as these are in your heart
You and your loved ones never part.
FAMILY

MEADE — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, CLIFTON GINNA, who passed away June 11, 1969:

And day to day I miss more
And love more and more.
