ABOUT OUR TOWN

By DARRYL BROOKS

Are any of you youngsters under 16 planning on soon?

If so, why not do it at an Orioles home game at Memorial Stadium?

For $18, the Baltimore Orioles will provide mezzanine box seats to the game of your choice., hot dogs, beverages, peanuts, a birthday cake, a surprise gift for the birthday child and souvenirs for every member of your part.

The minimum number in the group is six and the cost is $3 for each additional person. Reservations must bemade at least ten days in advance of the date of the game at which you want to celebrate.

According to Fran Moulden, of the Orioles' public relations department, the program is phenomenal success. So why not get in on the act.

Call Fran Moulden at 243 9800 to make your reservations.

Here's a reminder about two Bureau of Recreation sponsored events coming up this week-end. Tomorrow (Saturday) at the Patterson Park Pavilion at 11 A.M., Yo-Yo finals will be held.

Two winners, a boy and girl, from each of 100 recreation centers, will vie for the top three prizes.

First prize is a portable TV set; second, a bicycle; and third, a record player.

Skeeter Beebee, world champion yo-yo spinner, will judge the contest.

Also, Saturday, June 13, at Homewood field on the Johns Hopkins University campus, the South Atlantic Association will hold its championship track and field meet.

The professional basketball season ended about two months ago but in Baltimore, apparently, basketball is a year-round sport.

June 23, at Carroll Park, the Baltimore Neighborhood Basketball League will kick-off its season.

Slated to be present at the opening ceremonies are Baltimore's Mayor Thomas J. D'Alesandro II and as yet unnamed Baltimore Bullet basketball star.

Ceremonies are to begin at 4 p.m. with the playing of six exhibition games afterward. League play will not begin until June 29.

Over at school No. 144 on Tuesday, I watched the James Mosher Little League Orioles and Twins battle to an 8 to 5 decision with the Orioles on top.

The lead changed hands at least six times during the game, before the Twins were handed their first defeat this season.

Members of the winning Orioles are: Terrence Wheeler, Eris Wheeler, Ronnie Russell, Aaron Burrell, Michael Briggs, Sheldon Hareum, Jeffrey Gross, Deret Drummond, Samuel Coleman, Geoffrey Wheatley;

Also, Melvin Hargrove, David Garrett, Donald Smith, Gary Reynolds, Kyle Woods, Kevin Clark, Ricky Greenbill, Billy Johnson and James Feaster.

Milton Shelton is manager.

The Twins roster includes, Brian White, Adrian Hubbard, Craig Scott, Herman Mallory, Keith Harrison, Michael Chase, Kevin Jones, Michael Grant, Darrell Waters, Melvin Rhodes, Daryl Foster, Gary Pearson, Leonard Vance, Gary Stokes, Geoffrey Stokes, Craig Brown, Rodney Strong, Kenneth Christian and Dwayne Thornton. Charles Austin is manager.

How do Gs feel about the Vietnam war?

"60 Minutes" will take a look when CBS news correspondent Mike Wallace joins a planeload of soldiers at Travis Air Force Base in California on their way to serve in Vietnam and then returns frol Bien Hoa on a flieht with veterans of a year's tour of duty there, Tuesday.

Wallace shares on-the-air editor duties with Harry Reasoner for the program.

* * *

On both flights, Wallace asks the men to answer such questions as: Do you think we ought to be in Vietnam? What do you think of protest in the U.S. against the war? Should we have gone into Cambodia? How do you feel about My Lai?

Troops leaving Vietnam were also asked to talk about such controversial aspects of the war as the alleged use of marihuana by American soldiers, black-white relations in the Army, and the ability of ARVN troops to hold their own in the fighting.

A poll was taken among the men on both planes asking if they were in favor of or opposed to the Vietnam war. The comparative results of the polls will be revealed on the broadcast.

U.S. Department of Labor

The U.S. Department of Labor announced today that The Johns Hopkins Hospital, 601 North Broad St., Baltimore, will hire and train 25 disadvantaged jobless workers as diet aides under the JOBS program.

Regional Manpower Administrator William R. Curlis said the department had approved a $48,372 contract with the hospital.

The new hires will go on the payroll earning $2.10 an hour, and following 13 weeks of intensive training they will be permanent workers earning $2.68 an hour.

RIBBON BEING Cut by "Beat the Bug" campaign chairman, Councilman Emerson Julian, D-4th, on the occasion of opening a mobile chest x-ray clinic in East Baltimore, is film from old chest x-rays. Man left of Dr. Julian is Lee Douglass, a Model Cities Agency employee, who helped drum up interest in x-rays in the East Baltimore area. Otis Waller, Jr., the first person to be examined in the unit, is to left of Mrs. Catherine Mueller, director of the campaign against TB in the black community.

Dr. Julian praised for his beat-the-bug drive

Dr. Robert E. Farber, Commissioner of Health the-bug" chest x-ray drive coordinated by Dr. Emerson Julian, as 'a milestone.'

In his weekly newsletter, Dr. Farber told Mayor Thomas J. D'Alesandro 3rd:

Dear Mayor:

"I would like to add my tribute to the excellent work done by the committee of the six-week "TO BEAT THE BUG" chest X-ray drive. Under your sponsorship as honorary chairman, and the guidance of Dr. Emerson R. Julian, chairman of the Steering Committee, the establishment and operation of this committee can be regarded as a milestone in the city in view of the large number of inner city organizations participating and cooperating to an extent never seen before against tuberculosis, one of our oldest enemies.

"The organizations represented were the Community Action Agency, the Model Cities Agency, the Baltimore Urban League, Provident Hospital Comprehensive Center, the City and State health departments, The Maryland Tuberculosis and Respiratory Disease Association, the Ministerial Alliance, and the Baltimore City Council.

"Neighborhood groups were fully utilized by the project director Mrs. Catherine Mueller and the various committee members who participated not only in the planning but also in the operation of the program.

* * *

"The objective of the drive was to find unsuspected tuberculosis in the area roughly defined by the boundaires of the Model Cities areas, with particular emphasis on the non-white male 25 years of age or above—a group which in the past has been almost impossible to reach, and in whom the incidence of active tuberculosis is ten times the national rate.

"I am happy to eprtor times the national rate.

"I am happy to report that the number of persons examined each day was at least double the numbers examined in any previous neighborhood survey, that the greatest preponderance was from the "target" areas, and that at all relevant ages, more males than females were seen.

"Among those examined there was found more tuberculosis than in any previous neighborhood survey on record, and from the viewpoint of both the committee and City Health Department the objectives have been achieved."

Dr. Farber added that rather than see such a successful group disbanded at the end of the campaign as had originally been planned, the committee has agreed to continue in office under the chairmanship of Phaeon Hyche, II of the Model Cities Agency for the purpose of using their experience to assist other neighborhood groups in promoting similar programs.
