Mrs. Pearson noted as singer and nurse

Mrs. Mary C. Pearson, 2516 Barclay St., was given last rites Wednesday, at Calvary Baptist Church. Mrs. Pearson, 72, died Saturday at Bolton Hill Nursing Home.

Born in Baltimore, she was a product of the Baltimore City Public schools and was a graduate of Douglass High School and the Baltimore School of Music. Mrs. Pearson practiced as a Practical Nurse for many years. In her church she was organist, worked with the young people's choir, belonged to the Missionary Society and Flower Circle. Baltimoreans will remember her as a well known mezzo soprano many years ago, and as a practical nurse.

During her nursing career she was employed at the Harford Nursing Home for. She was the widow of William Pearson. Immediate survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Grace Morris Whye and Mrs. Helen Branson Dashiell.

Burial was in Arbutus Memorial Park.

William Queen, was veteran

Requiem mass was said today (Friday) for William E. Queen, 2620 Shirley Ave., at St. Ambrose Catholic Church.

Mr. Queen, 82, died June 9, at Smith Nursing Home after a long illness. A native Marylander he was an active member of the American Legion's Walter Green Post. He served in World War I.

Survivors are two step children; Mrs. Mary Jones and Aubran Hammond; 14 step grandchildren, and five step-great-grandchildren.

Burial was in Baltimore National Cemetery. William C. March Funeral Home handled arrangements.

$3,000 wanted for Clean Block 1970 prize fund

A call is going out for contributions to the Clean Block prize fund. The goal this year is $3,000.00.

THE MONEY will be used to award prizes to young people who will be spending most of the summer working in blocks throughout the city.

The contributions in the past have come from civic minded men who are interested in conservation and beautification in Baltimore. Last year some 10,000 youngsters took part in the clean-up campaign.

It is hoped that this year, a larger number will answer the call.

The Clean Block director, Mrs. Jeanette B. Leath, is hopeful that adults will work with and encourage neighborhood youngsters to sign up for the program.

Already several of our long time supporters have joined, just this past week, Joe Paul phoned. Joe is a retired East Baltimore merchant who was always first to give while residing here in Baltimore, but he is here in the city for a visit and will be visiting the Clean Block office this week with his contribution.

Mr. Paul lives in Florida now.

Another supporter who took time out to write a note says, "We are enclosing our check for $10.00 to assist in your Clean Block Prize Fund. We wish you every success in continuing this good effort in citizenship." It was signed by Alvin J. T. Zumbrun, Director, Maryland Crime Investigation Committee.

Another supporter said "Best wishes for sucess in your deserving work. $10.00 check enclosed.

Other long time supporters and friends who sent checks in to the office this past week are:

Mrs. Elinor Dimmy, $36; Arlington Federal Savings and Loan Assn., $25; Atty. DeHaven L. Smith, $12.50; Sidney Hollander, $10; Time Realty, Inc., $10; Charles Mullenberg Co., $10; Dr. Martin D. Jenkins, $10; The W. L. Reynolds Company, $5; Mrs. A. Perry, $5; Dr. William Watts, $10; Delegate Benjamin Cardin, $5; Thomas Bucher and Son Inc., $5; Braun's Jewelers, $5. All contributions are gratefully acknowledged in the AFRO on the Clean Block page. Please make checks payable to AFRO CHARITIES CLEAN BLOCK FUND. This is a Tax Deductible Contribution.

YWCA sets up day camp for the kiddies

The YWCA at Madison Avenue will conduct a Kiddie Camp for boys and girls, ages six to ten, Monday through Friday from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., beginning June 22 and ending July 24. The fee is $7 per week.

The camp is designed to appeal to younger children who do not want to travel by bus into the country every day. The Kiddie Camp will convene each day at 1912 Madison Avenue.

Such activities as crafts, movies, singing, story-telling, quiet and active games will be included. To give the children fun and adventure in exploring the city, they will be taken also for trips to Fort McHenry, the B and O Canal, Gwynn Oak Park, Friendship Airport, and a boat ride around the harbor.

Another camping program, Camp Wim-A-Wau, will be conducted at the Madison Avenue YWCA. It will be in session for four weeks, June 22 through July 27, during weekdays. Children from 7 to 12 years of age are invited.

Participants will board buses at six pick-up points and travel to Bee Tree Retreat, a camping area in northern Maryland.

The program will include swimming, baseball, cookouts, arts and crafts, and nature hikes. The fee will be $15 per week.

For further information, call the YWCA, 1912 Madison Avenue at 669-1681.
