Hae Un Smith, popular student, dies suddenly

Funeral services will be held 12:30 p.m. (today) Friday at Christian Memorial Baptist Church for Hae Un Smith.

The 14-year-old honor student at Calverton Junior High School, died Sunday morning, after a short illness, in the U.S. Public Health Service Hospital in Wyman Park.

A member of the National Junior Honor Society, and an active athlete, Hae Un had participated in sports throughout the country.

Mayor John Lindsay of New York presented him a trophy after winning first place in the Jesse Owens Games in 1968.

The youngster was a versatile student, participating in the school and orchestra and band, while winning letters for academic performance and for service.

He is survived by his paternal grandmother, Mrs. Julia Smith, with whom he lived at 1508 Smallwood St., and his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Smith — an army couple stationed in Korea.

JUNE 22

Registration for the University of Maryland summer school will begin at 8:15 a.m., today and continue through June 23. Nearly 9,500 students are expected to enroll, according to Dr. Clodus R. Smith, director. Classes begin June 24, with the six-week session ending July 31, and the eight-week session ending August 14.

-Task Force

the Task Force report was the suggestion to the Mayor to establish a standing commission to oversee the operations of food stores in the city.

Sources in the Mayor's office said, "since the Mayor only just returned to town he hasn't had much opportunity to go over the report and it isn't expected that he'll be issuing a statement on it until next week sometime."

-Construction
