'O.J.' selected as best of decade

NEW YORK (UPI) — O. J. Simpson, a two-time All-American and the 1968 Heisman Trophy winner while at Southern California, has been voted the "Outstanding College Football Player" of the sixties.

In a poll of writers and broadcasters from across the country, Simpson, a halfback who set an all time rushing record of 3,423 yards during his varsity seasons, beat out linebacker Tommy Nobis of Texas for the honor. Simpson finished with 1,100 points in the balloting compared to 566 for Nobis.

Purdue halfback Leroy Keyes was third with 511 points followed by Navy quarterback Roger Staubach with 474 and Michigan State linebacker George Webster with 434.

The poll was conducted by the American Broadcasting Company.

In two years of junior college ball before enrolling at USC, Simpson, now with the Buffalo Bills, scored 54 touchdowns. In 1967, he led the Trojans to a 10-1 record, including a Rose Bowl victory over Indiana. In Simpson's senior year, USC was 9-1-1, losing only to Ohio State in the Rose Bowl and tied by Notre Dame.

The Ohio State squad of 1968 already has been named the "Outstanding College Eleven" in the ABC sports' poll. At future dates, the "Outstanding Football Coach" and the "Outstanding Football Game" will be announced.

THE BLACK MAN IN A WHITE CORPORATE JUNGLE

Does a black man stand a chance in the white-controlled big business of America? What prompts the belief that black men look for an opportunity to be fired? Can the black and white worlds of a "Corporation Negro" exist together happily? Now, in ESQUIRE Magazine, author John Sack reports the dilemmas and joys of "making it" in the white business community. Discover how a Negro advertising executive maintains his "cool" on white Madison Avenue.

Read what the black man thinks about being a decision-maker in a white corporation. Learn how he views his black brother in the highly competitive corporate structure. Don't miss this probe into the thoughts of the black man who wants to get ahead in a world that long viewed him as "window dressing." For a penetrating look at the realities and myths of tokenism in American business today, get July ESQUIRE...now on sale at your favorite newsstand.

WRESTLING CHAMP John Carrington, who starred on the mat during his two years at Community College of Baltimore, was among recent graduates. He won citations for outstanding athletic performance and for citizenship. In the fall, he enters U. of Md. on a wrestling scholarship. At CCB, he ranked as No. 2 wrestler on team and won unsung hero honors during his last year.

Summer job program set for June 22

Eighty students will receive summer jobs beginning June 22, through a joint enterprise of the National Alliance of Businessmen and Junior Achievement of Metropolitan Baltimore.

Announcement was made today by Nelson Lawhon, metropolitan director of NAB and Paul Fry, executive director of JA.

Four companies of 20 members each will be formed in the manner of Junior Achievement's regular year-round program. They will manufacture items, and not only be paid, but will learn the ways of private enterprise business.

Calvert Educational Center, Calvert St. and North Avenue (the former Poltechnic building), will be the scene of the activities. Equipment will be provided along with advisers to direct their operations.

Students will work three hours a day, five days a week, and be paid an hourly wage. The operation will last eight weeks.

The students will keep company books, meet payrolls-and learn other details of what is required to be successful in the business world. The workers are to be in the 16-17 year old age bracket and must meet the criteria of NAB in determining their need for summer employment.

"We are very pleased to have the assistance of JA in providing these jobs," Mr. Lawhon said. "There is little time left for us to meet the summer job quota of 2,000 and this will be a big help. It will also set these boys and girls on the way to a meaningful, productive life in the business world."

Mr. Fry said that similar JA programs had been very successful elsewhere.

"In twenty cities the record has been very good. Attendance has been around 95 per cent, and that is better than in many companies. Producing needed, salable items insures that this is not a make-work program, but a highly practical one.

"We are sure that it will meet with the same success that our winter programs have here in Baltimore."

Kennedy To Seek Reelection

BOSTON (UPI) — U.S. Senate Majority Whip Edward M. Kennedy, fulfilling a promise made last summer after Mary Jo Kopechne died in his car, announced last week he would seek re-election for a full six-year term and ruled out a presidential bid in 1972 "for personal reasons."

Mackey blasts NFL 'insincerity'

John Mackey, president of the National Football League Players Association, said Thursday that negotiations with the NFL's Player Relations Committee have collapsed, and accused the league and its 23 clubs of "unfair labor practice."

Mackey, an all-pro tight end for the Baltimore Colts, charged the league has now refused to negotiate with the Players' Association," but added that "the association nverthe less stands ready at any time to resume good faith bargaining."

Tex Schramm, president of the Dallas Cowboys and chairman of the Player Relations Committee, said Wednesday night it is up to the players to withdraw the strike, and both parties must await a ruling by the National Labor Relations Board, which held a hearing in Minneapolis on June 9.

According to Schramm, the issues at stake are:

1. Action by the players that seek to reduce the role of the commissioner to that solely of an more than 1,200 mem—just as an employer is viewed of an employer is viewed in private industry.

2. The player's refusal to honor certain written commitments of less than two years ago which they served and were to serve as the basis for all ture collective bargaining agreements including present negotiations.

Schramm claimed the allocations of benefits, including an increase in pre-season pay, was based in 1968 on commitments in written documents by both the AFL and NFL players associations — then separate entities — and that the matter of pre-season pay would no longer be a subject for collective bargaining by the NFL Players Association.

Mackey said at the three meetings between the NFLPA and the Player Relations Committee, the latter broke off negotiations each time.

"At each of these meetings," Mackey said, "The NFLPA has negotiated in good faith in an effort to reach a just settlement on all issues affecting NFL players.

"We regret that it therefore became necessary to seek intervention of the NLRB to convince the employers to resume negotiations."

See what we got for sniffing around Canada.

We wanted a whiskey that didn't smell the way an American whiskey smells.

We wanted a whiskey with a lighter taste.

And we wanted a whiskey that looked lighter.

So up in Canada we sniffed out a blend of expensive whiskies with a lighter taste, a lighter color and a lighter aroma. Black Velvet.

If you have a nose for a good thing, discover Canada's Black Velvet. It's worth the extra pennies.

Friendship has free shuttle bus service

Users of Friendship International Airport's parking lots can now ride in air conditioned comfort between the Main Terminal and the four public parking areas.

The Department of Aviation is operating a 33-passenger shuttle bus in order to serve a greater number of parking lot patrons.

The new bus replaces a smaller bus that had previously solely within two of the lots.

The new operates seven days a week from 6 a.m. until 12:30 am (times will be extended as public demand indicates the need).

It is estimated that the complete circuit of the pick-up areas, which are indicated by color coded signs, will take approximately eight minutes.

POLICEMEN

THE MPD WANTS MEN.

and we want them to be diplomats, child psychologists, traffic control experts, human relations specialists, and, in a pinch be able to dry a tear or two, deliver a baby, save a life, referee a basketball game, and whenever there is any "extra time," tell some small boy how great it is to be a Police Officer.

In return for being "all things to all men," the METROPOLITAN POLICE DEPARTMENT of WASHINGTON, D.C., offers you the sense of being part of your community and the awareness that you are doing something to make that community the kind of a place we all want to live in. A sometimes frustrating but ALWAYS rewarding career, with a starting salary of $8000 a year.

Of course the Metropolitan Police Department offers the usual benefits as well:

ADVANCEMENT OPPORTUNITIES—MEDICAL CARE—FAMILY BENEFITS—EXCELLENT RETIREMENT—EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES—VACATION AND HOLIDAYS—FULL PAY DURING TRAINING.
