Left behind we wait in trust,
For the Resurrection Day, Father and Husband,
In thy gracious keeping,
Leave we now, thy servant sleeping.

A mother as dear as you.

GOLDEN — A Birthday Tribute to our dear father, who departed this life June 20, 1967:
What would we give his hand to clasp,
His quaint face to see.

And clasp each other's hand once more
In heaven, that happy land
Where we shall be free from pain, sorrow and sighing.
