UNC Fund 12 per cent of '70 goal

A total of $20,000 or 12 per cent of the 1970 United Negro College Fund goal in Baltimore has been raised, it was announced today by Walter G. Finch, Maryland campaign chairman.

Finch says he hopes for an "altitude record" in this year's campaign which has set $125,000 as part on the national $10,000,000 goal.

The United Negro College Fund which is a federation of 36 fully accredited, predominantly black colleges and universities, uses the contributions from concerned individuals, corporations and foundations to provide a quality college education for thousands of our country's deprived youth.

The UNCF is the fund-raising arm of the institutions which now enroll more than 40,000 students. Last year over half of these students received some form of financial aid.

While thanking those who already have made contributions, Mr. Finch appealed to those who have not contributed when he added:

"Within their limited means, the 36 member colleges and universities of the United Negro College Fund carry their share of the toughest and most urgent education task in the nation — that of providing for young black men and women the education they need to compete successfully for the many opportunities now available to them and to render useful service in a rapidly changing society.

"To do this, the Fund's colleges need massive financial aid."

Robbers Pick Wrong Bank

QUANTICO, Va. (UPI)— Four armed civilians last week held up a branch bank at the Quantico Marine base, headquarters of the FBI Academy, and reportedly captured a short time later after a gun battle during which they took three hostages.

One of the robbers reportedly was wounded in the brief exchange of gunfire and was taken to the Navy Hospital at the sprawling Marine base. The holdup occurred at the Virginia National Bank, about a mile from the FBI Academy.

Rev. Grant, St. John pastor, dies suddenly; rites Sat.

(FROM PAGE 1)

The Rev. Joseph S. Grant, pastor of the St. Johns AME Church 800-member congregation since May, 1969, died Wednesday night at Lutheran Hospital. He was 51.

Funeral services will be held Saturday noon at St. Johns AME Church, 810 Carrollton Ave., with burial at Carver Memorial Cemetery.

The family will receive friends at the church tonight (Friday) from 7 to 8 o'clock.

According to relatives, the Rev. Mr. Grant was taken suddenly ill Tuesday evening while driving to Baltimore from Washington.

The AFRO was told that the minister drove his car to Lutheran Hospital where a nurse happened to see him collapsed over the wheel.

He was taken into the hospital where he remained until his death at 9:20 p.m. He never regained consciousness. Death is attributed to a heart attack. Relatives state the minister had not been ill and was in his pulpit this past Sunday.

THE REV. J. S. GRANT
Stricken at wheel of his car

The Rev. Mr. Grant succeeded the Rev. I. M. Gray, longtime St. Johns pastor. They "exchanged churches" or to speak, with the Rev. Mr. Gray succeeding the Rev. Mr. Grant at his former church, Washington's Campbell AME Church.

The Rev. Mr. Grant was reappointed to the St. Johns pulpit at the April annual conference held in Washington.

Funeral services were scheduled by the family for Saturday due to the fact that many AME members and officials wishing to attend the last rites will have to rush on to the Bishops' Council Summer Session Sunday.

The Rev. Mr. Grant resided at 2307 Harlem Ave., with his second wife, Mrs. Martha Grant, whom he married in 1965.

His first wife is deceased.

Their six children—three sons and three daughters, survive.

The Rev. Mr. Grant was born Nov. 21, 1909 in Recovery, Ga., the son of the late Henry Grant, an AME pastor of 67 years and his wife, the late Mrs. Lula B. Grant.

During his career as a minister he served as a presiding elder and built a church in Annapolis.

In addition to his wife and children, others surviving are three brothers and seven grandchildren.

MRS. RUTH E. TINSLEY

RICHMOND
Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Tinsley, one of the state's pioneer freedom fighters, were scheduled to be held Thursday, June 18, at 2 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church, Monroe and Catherine Sts., with the Rev. Eugene James officiating.

Mrs. Tinsley, 69, died Sunday night at a local hospital. She was the wife of Dr. J. M. Tinsley, the retired dentist who was a founder of the Virginia NAACP and served as president of both the state and local NAACP.

To request a new listing for a selection, the governor would have had to go on record stating that none of the three was qualified to serve.

Gov. Mandel though reappointed Mr. Jones for a two-year term beginning last June, subject to confirmation by the State Senate.

What happened after that re-appointment last year has been termed by both Democratic and GOP leaders in the black community as "tragic misplays."

Mr. Jones had let it be known that he would run for the Senate in his 2nd District, but would resign before filing.

That district's Senators Julian L. Lapides and Frank J. McCourt managed to help block his confirmation, though the appointment was that of 4th District's Senator Verda F. Welcome.

Gov. Mandel was then submitted a listing of nominees by the Republicans which included along with the aforementioned names of Mrs. Watchman and Messrs. Evans and Thompson that of Archie M. Jones.

The latter Mr. Jones is an insurance executive and a top official representing the black community on both the city and state Republican Central Committees.

Gov. Mandel promptly sent the Archie Jones nomination to the Senate for confirmation. A misplay occurred between Sen. Welcome and that district's Sen. Clarence M. Mitchell 3rd.

Result was that the Jones nomination was allowed to die in that chamber. Hence, the Evans appointment to replace the outgoing Marshall Jones.

Gov. Mandel can, however, still again integrate this board if he so desires.

Robert L. Dalton, a key Democratic leader in the black community, is a substitute member on the city's Board of Supervisors of Elections.

The two Democratic members are Mrs. Betty Sisbert, president and veteran member, and David W. Price, secretary.

The governor, if he so chooses, can move either Mrs. Silbert or Mr. Price to some other post and replace either with Mr. Dalton.

Such a move would serve to maintain black community representation on the city's vital Board of Supervisors of Elections.

graduates 450 of them, and their parents and friends.

Described by several as 'a great graduation sermon,' Mr. Russell's commencement speech was interrupted five times by applause.

At the conclusion students gave him a standing ovation.

Highlights of his speech:

Respect: We cannot receive from others, however well-intentioned they may be—the self esteem and self-respect that can only come from within us, and only grow out of our own experience.

Violence: Nobody can reach through a broken store window and take hold of identity, or power, or dignity because they are not for sale. They are not on display. They are not merchandise to be hauled off in a shopping bag.

Mirrors: Nobody can stand in front of a magic mirror and become somebody by repeating 'mirror, mirror on the wall.' In this world, there are no magic mirrors that talk and give the answers to our problems.

* * *

Education: You have proven that you have what it takes to study, to learn, to absorb the knowledge that can move mountains. You have done a good job so far. Now I urge you to continue your education. Improve yourself. Be for yourself. Equip yourself to earn what you want because you cannot get it and hold it and value it by any other means.

* * *

Blackness: You must fight the natural tendency to blame your own shortcomings or inadequacies because you are black, and you must fight both the fear of future failure and the love of past failure as an alibi for quitting. "You must fight against the false image of inferiority that a racist society has tried to impose on you, and resist the easy out of blaming everything on 'the man.'

* * *

On Middle-Class: Reject feelings of envy and resentment against the middle-class blacks who has it made. Resolve, instead, to profit by his example. Usually, it is the old 10 per cent inspiration and 90 per cent perspiration, work, work, and a grim determination to achieve in the face of all obstacles.

* * *

Black Power: You must understand that black power, like all other colors of power, can only come as a result of striving and succeeding.

Happiness: This nation needs the abilities that you can develop through pursuit of happiness and fulfillment of your potentials. That's the name of the game.

"Not on the rock, but the book. Not luck, but pluck. Not turning off, but turning on. Not the drug habit, but the work habit . . . this is only way to make it.

Not Self: You cannot be for yourself alone while blacks are still three times as likely to be in poverty, twice as likely to be unemployed. You must enlist in programs to develop leadership and economic power in your city's slums . . .

"Devote yourself to concrete objectives . . . help the urban coalition, oppose any attempt to isolate the black community, become politically involved and register to vote as soon as you are eligible. Urge your parents to register to vote now.
