Miss Marcheta McManus, Judson F. Eneas wed

Miss Marcheta Joyce McManus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willie McManus, of Arundel-on-the-Bay, was married to Judson Frazier Eneas, son of Dr. and Mrs. Cleveland Eneas, Sr., of Nassau, Bahamas, in an elegant double ring ceremony last Saturday.

The Rev. Wesley Nash of Mount Moriah AME Church in Annapolis officiated.

Wearing a gown of white silkened peau with white alencon lace, pearled with short sleeves, edged with double flounce of lace and a chapel train, Miss McManus walked down the aisle to an African wedding march, "Click, Click," played on bongos by the Rev. Rufus Abernathy.

Organist was Michael Statham.

The bride's headpiece was a silk faced peau camelot cap crystal trimmed, with a bubble veil attached to a white organza turbin. She carried a prayer book covered with white African violets and white sweetheart roses.

Maid of honor, Miss Daisy Bough, Franklin, Tenn., wore a lime-green dishki with gilley and turbin made of gold metalic brocade with floral designs of pink, green and yellow.

She carried nosegays of yellow and orange daisies and miniature carnations.

Bridemaids were, Misses Sherida Taylor, Canton, Ohio; Wanza Crompton, Jacksonville, Fla.; Karen Sargeant, New York City; Sandra Anderson, Nashville; Mrs. Lillie Duerson, Baltimore; Jocelyn Porter, Newport News; Diane Clark, Detroit; Mrs. Joan Eneas, Nassau; Agreta Eneas, Nassau; and Stephanie McManus, Annapolis.

They wore soft pink long dishkis with gilley and turbins made of gold metalic brocade with floral designs of pink, green and yellow. They carried nosegays of yellow and orange daisies and miniature carnations.

Miss Agnes Brown of Laurel, flower girl, wore a yellow shell blouse and a wrap around skirt and carried a gold basket filled with mixed flowers.

Best man was Larry Phillips of Boston.

Ushers were: Clifton Whitmouth, Dr. Cleveland Eneas, Jr., Bahamas; Godfrey Eneas, Bahamas; Willie McManus, Jr., Annapolis; Theon Thompson, Cleveland; Richard Lane, Nashville; Lorenzo McCarthy, Birmingham; William Houston, San Francisco; David Blake, Racine, Wisc., and David Wren, San Francisco.

Immediately afterwards, the wedding party was entertained at the Arundel-on-the-Bay home of the bride's parents.

Tommy Arthur and his band provided music for the lawn party. Hostesses were Mrs. Maceo Sonds, Mrs. Rufus Abernathy and Mrs. Clifton Tartar.

For travel to San Francisco, the new Mrs. Eneas wore a two-piece beige linen suit with an orange turbin, beige shoes and an orange strawbag. Her corsage was of yellow roses.

Mrs. Eneas is a graduate of Fisk University where she majored in theatrical arts. She is a member of the Zeta Phi Beta Sorority.

Mr. Eneas, graduate of Fisk University, summa cum laude, received his Bachelor of Science degree in math.

He is Phi Beta Kappa and belongs to Omega Psi Phi fraternity.

The couple will be residing in San Francisco.

done in such fine taste.

For those not familiar with the organization, this is all a part of the fund raising drive for the new Lafayette Square Community Center.

Coach Earl Banks of Morgan State College was there along with David V. Stickle of WMAR. They will be directing the fund drive.

This new center will be not only a lovely piece of architecture but it will house every social agency in the city.

What an asset to the community! Their goal is to raise $325,000 in order to qualify them for a Federal gr[illegible]

With people supporting this affair, their drive will be successful.

Presiding over the program was Dr. Edward N. Wilson. Father Crow gave the invocation. Moderating the panel discussion was Mrs. Alice Parham and Panelists were William Meyers, Architect, Tatar and Kelly; Mrs. Pauline Lee, Principal, School No. 111; Vernon Sheffey, Executive Director of the Center, Earl Banks, Coach Morgan State College and Dave Stickle, Director, Public Affairs of WMAR-TV.

Mrs. Parham also gave the nominating committee report and expressions of appreciation were given by Mrs. William Richardson. Dr. Wilson made the presentations and Father Joseph M. O'Meara gave the benediction.

It is the Rev. and Mrs. Arthur Brown's golden anniversary also. They will be celebrating with family and friends this Saturday, on the lawn of their Elderon Ave. home. The Rev. Mr. Brown has been pastoring the Walbrook Community Baptist Church for 22 years.

Debutante Helen Ruth, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. C. Dudley Lee, will be honored at a reception given by her parents this Sunday at their Carlisle Ave. home. Miss Lee was presented at the Me-De-So Cotillion this year.

Cuff note: — Center State Associates, Inc., holds its annual meeting next week. This is the organization consisting of Board members and major contributors to the non-profit, resident theatre. Meeting is Monday, June 29, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pearlstone.

Following dinner and a financial report by Board of Directors president, Sewell S. Watts, Jd. then will be a panel discussion entitled "The Scope of Regional Theatre Today."

Dr. Murray Kappelman of the Sinai Druid Comprehensive Clinic will moderate the discussion.
