Russ Johnson 'Rapping' on WITH

Talk show host Russ Johnson has joined the WITH Radio Public Affairs Department as moderator of the new half-hour program "RAPPING," it was announced by WITH Manager of Operations and Programming, John A. Lack.

"RAPPING", according to Mr. Lack, seeks to foster understanding between Baltimore's black and white communities. "And in Russ Johnson," said Lack, "we have a man capable of articulating the black man's problem in this town as well as uncovering some of the answers."

Moderator Johnson is the former Assistant News Director of WSID Radio in Baltimore where he also conducted a telephone talk program. He has been a Field Supervisor of Baltimore's Neighborhood Youth Corps and the Community Organizer of "Project Enable," a program concerned with training and recruiting social workers.

"RAPPING" will premier on WITH, Sunday, July 12, from 6:30 to 7 p.m.

Black film schedule for library showing

The fact that the first open-heart surgery was done by a black doctor; that black cowboys, explorers, and soldiers helped tame the frontiers of America; that the sugar refining industry was revolutionized by a black man; and that shoe manufacturers in the U.S. all use an invention originated by a Negro, makes up only part of the wealth of information about the history and contributions of the American Negro that a recent film, "Black History: Lost, Stolen, or Strayed,' claims has rarely, if ever, found its way into the standard textbooks.

The hour-long film, narrated by actor Bill Cosby, is to be shown at the Walbrook branch of the Enoch Pratt Free Library at 7 pm. on Wednesday, July 1.

Produced by CBS News of the network's "Of Black it was first telecast as part of the network's "Of Black America" series.

The film discusses the stereotyped image of the Negro presented in many early and contemporary yearly and contemporary Hollywood films, and goes on to explore the effects that movies combined with the lack of textbook data have had on the concept of the black man held by both white and black Americans.

The public is invited to attend the library screening free of charge.

gets original Bowie director black records

Bowie director 18 pt.

Dr. Cecil Spellman, Director of Development at Bowie State College, just received some of the first recordings ever made of original Black songs.

All of the recordings (139 albums) were presented by Mr. and Mrs. B. Cohen of Oaxaca, Oax., Mexico and are collector's items.

The gift was a result of the high personal esteem and friendship the Cohen's hold for Jorge Krichmar, Assistant Professor of the Spanish Department of Bowie State College.

The record collection, which has been named the "Cohen Collection of Records," has been placed in the library for inspection by all.

Mrs. Daisy Caldwell is week's good neighbor

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON

Our Good Neighbor of the Week is charming Mrs. Daisy Caldwell, the wife of Burley E. Caldwell an official of the Department of Motor Vehicles, Glen Burnie.

Mrs. Caldwell is a Public Service Representative for the C. and P. Telephone Company (and is one of the most pleasant employees in this department).

Our neighbor resides in Edmondson Village on Floweron Road with her family (and does much to help keep her area beautiful).

The family joy is son Benjamin, an alert, bright and very happy youngster, who is very polite and well-mannered.

Our neighbor is a product of the Washington, D.C. Public Schools and is a graduate of Miner's Teachers College with a B.S. degree in Education.

Mrs. Caldwell and her family are very active members of Morning Star Baptist Church, Catonsville, Md. The Rev. Jentry McDonald is her pastor.

She participates in many activities in her church which includes director of the Children's Chapel Choir and pianist.

She takes her group on many tours to help raise money for the church. At one time our good neighbor was an executive with a beauty and cosmetics firm.

She is very talented and at the present is writing a book which she hopes to have published soon.

She includes among her many hobbies: baseball, swimming, working with youngsters, meeting people and she reads at least a book a week.

Her favorite scripture from the Bible is the 23rd Psalm and she likes lemon meringue pie.
