JOIN IN A GLORIOUS FOURTH

Show your love and come to "Honor America Day" Washington, D.C. July 4th.

Let your children see and participate in an old-fashioned Fourth of July celebration to Honor America. Visit Washington's historic sites. All these festivities are free—

RELIGIOUS/PATRIOTIC SERVICE
The day begins with a stirring band concert followed by a religious/patriotic service featuring the Rev. Billy Graham, military bands, a massed chorus of 500 voices, The Centurymen Choir of Fort Worth, and others to be announced. Lincoln Memorial—10:30 a.m.

PARADE
At the conclusion of the morning program, you and your family can join bands, choirs, flag bearers and other marching units to parade from the Lincoln Memorial to the Ellipse.

PROCESSION OF FLAGS
In a symbolic salute to America on her 194th birthday, a huge American flag will be mounted at the north end of the Ellipse flanked by flags of the 50 states and six U. S. territories. Men, women, and children will be invited to place miniature American flags in giant USA letters to create a sea of red, white and blue fronting the display of massed flags. The Ellipse—12:30 - 7:00 p.m.

FESTIVAL OF AMERICAN FOLK LIFE
This festival, sponsored annually by the Smithsonian Institution, features hundreds of craftsmen, musicians, dancers and artisans at work. Varied aspects of American folk life will be displayed and performed in gaily decorated booths along the Mall. Capitol Mall—1:00-5:00 p.m.

AN AMERICAN SALUTE
An all-star variety show will be emceed by Bob Hope and will feature a glittering array of America's top entertainers joining with you to make this the most festive Fourth of July celebration ever. Washington Monument—7:00 p.m.

FIREWORKS
Washington's traditional Fourth of July fireworks display staged by the District of Columbia will be more spectacular than ever this year. The usual pyrotechnics will be supplemented by special effects including a red, white and blue finale of bursting shells over the Potomac River and giant searchlights mounted along the reflecting pool. Over the Potomac—9:15 p.m.

Birthday Tribute

THOMPKINS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear brother, THOMAS THOMPKINS, on his birthday, June 27th who passed away March 3, 1959:
Memories are a keepsake, no one can steal.
Death is a heartache, no one can heal.
Beautiful memories are all I have left
Of a wonderful brother, I will never forget.
Devoted Sister
LUCENDA BURNS

In Memoriam

EPPS — In loving memory of my husband and our loved one, WILLIAM H. EPPS, who passed away June 28, 1939:
Gone is the face we loved so dear
Silent is the voice we loved to hear,
Too far away for sight or speech
But not too far for thought to reach.
Sweet to remember him who once was here
And who, though absent, is just as dear.

REVEREND JOHN EDWARD HARLEE
1898-1960
In blessed memory of our beloved pastor, Reverend John Edward Harlee who passed away on June 28, 1960. When we, the Officers and Members of the Missionary Society of Pentecost Baptist Church think of Rev. Harlee's life so beautiful, we remember the many things he did for upbuilding of God's Kingdom here on earth. We recall those inspiring sermons he preached which provided much heart-searching. We remember how he was always able to give words of encouragement, or inspiration, or advice, or consolation to either the weak, the troubled, the bereaved, the despaired, the aspiring, the youth, or the newly-wed. We remember his loving, sincere smile and his calmness and patience which was shown even during adverse circumstances. We remember his faithfulness to his God, his church, his community and his devotion to his family, his congregation, and his friends. We know he was truly sustained by the love of Jesus.
'Tis notice that we loved is silent now
And indeed is the helpful hand
But we know that God will use them both
In that wonderful heavenly land
We may say, "He is dead," he lives on
In memories tender and true,
And the cadence of his voice still lingers
Our faith and hope to renew.
THE MISSIONARY SOCIETY
Mrs. Bertie Lemon, President
We miss him, my husband, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy
And death shall never end our love
For time the mind I see
Our glad reunion in the sky —
For all eternity!
From Wife — NOVALE HARLEE

MELLO — In memory of our beloved son, nephew and cousin, CPL. ANTHONY J. MELLO, who was killed in action in Vietnam, June 28, 1969:
His pleasant smile and loving ways
will always be remembered,
It was God's will,
He will always live in our hearts.
The FAMILY

PALMER — In loving memory of our dear wife and sister, LILDORA M. PALMER, who departed this life June 28, 1965:
Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
The years slip wize out many things,
But this they wipe out never;
The memory of those happy days,
When we were all together.
Husband-Devoted Husband —
EDGAR PALMER and Sister — ESTHER D. SMITH

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear husband, MARCUS SMITH, who passed away June 28, 1966:
I'll remember you, dear, while there's life in my heart,
And the God in His wisdom has torn us apart;
In your home up in Heaven you must know that I'm true,
To the love that we shared when you was only mine for you.
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end,
I will meet you in Heaven, my own dearest friend.
My friend and my sweetheart, my one dearest love,
God keep you safe and guard you in Heaven above.
Loving Wife — SADIE SMITH and FAMILY

SMITH — In loving memory of my son and our loved son, SIDNEY SMITH, who passed away June 28, 1955:
A bird flew from our household gone, a voice we loved is stilled,
A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled;
God saw that this you are forgotten though on earth you are no more;
But in memory you are with us as you always were before.
MOTHER and FAMILY

SMITH — In loving memory of our husband and father, WALTER SMITH, who passed away June 28, 1957:
Dear One, your wife and children long
Your blessed memory as you sleep
Blest be the ties that bind us
Dress you with love as you sweep.
Loving Wife — Ida Smith

THOMAS — In loving memory of our dear husband, ROBERT THOMAS, who passed away June 28, 1969:
You taught me how to worship God,
You taught me how to pray,
I miss you when you are gone, dear
You were so kind and gay.
You were so kind and gentle
Your smile was so dear
God gave you to me, I thank Him
For the time I had you near.
Loving Wife MAE

STRIDER — A Tribute to the memory of my husband, RUTH-FORD HAWKS STRIDER, who departed this life, June 30, 1938:

Remembrance is a golden chain
Death tries to break, but all in vain
To have, to love, and then to part
Is the greatest sorrow of one's heart.
Yet, the rolling stream of life proceeds
And the treasure you left is a treasure, indeed.
For everyone you did your best
Veiled are you now in eternal rest.
Beloved Wife — MARY

WADE — In loving memory of my dear husband our brother, VERNON F. WADE, who passed away June 28, 1965:
Loving and kind in all his ways,
Upright and just the end of his days;
Sincere and true in his heart and mind,
Beautiful memories he left behind.
Loving WIFE, BROTHER and SISTER-IN-LAW

WHEELER — In loving memory of my dear husband, CLARENCE A., who passed away June 30, 1965:
We walked together, you and I,
In sorrow and in joy,
We shared our pains and happiness
With love without alloy,
And death shall never end our love
For time the mind I see.
Our glad reunion in the sky —
For all eternity!
Wife, LEMA WHEELER

WHITEHURST — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, TRACY A. WHITEHURST, who passed away June 24, 1969:
Our son was the joy of our life
Of one so dearly loved by all;
Our grief, sorrow and pain never ends,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say goodbye
Baby you closed your eyes,
For us or us you did your best,
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
MOM, DAD and SISTERS

WOOD — In loving memory of my dear mother and our grandmother, JOHNIE ROBINSON WOOD, who passed away June 28, 1939:

Your memory is as fresh as ever, With which we shall never part,
Though God has you in His keeping
We still have you in our hearts.
