Funeral services for Mrs. Odessa Howard

"Odessa preached her own sermon. She had committed her life to helping others. She had read the script all the way through."

The Rev. N. B. Carrington, retired Methodist minister, was speaking at Monday morning funeral services for Mrs. Odessa Tyler Howard, Carver High School secretary.

Mrs. Howard, also the wife of Frederick A. Howard, a member of the AFRO board of directors and production superintendent, died last Thursday at the age of 45. She had leukemia.

* * *

The Rev. Mr. Carrington recalled that he felt like a member of the Howard family. He remembered he himself was AFRO pressman when the then Miss Tyler came to work at the AFRO and served as his secretary, and subsequently met and married Mr. Howard.

He presided at the Methodist ceremony held in a Baptist Church in Sparrows Point on June 9, 1946.

* * *

Known for her sunshine personality, Mrs. Howard exhibited this same sort of attitude right up until her death.

The Rev. Mr. Carrington read excerpts from a letter she wrote friends during her long hospitalization in which she cheerily thanked all for their thoughtfulness and, "I say thanks to each one of you because you never let the sunshine leave me or my room."

The half hour funeral services were held at Walbrook Trinity Presbyterian Church of which she was a member. The new minister, the Rev. C. Andrea Kearns, presided.

Also participating in the service was the Rev. Rudolph Obey, minister of the Cherry Hill Presbyterian Church.

Relatives and friends occuped 45 cars for the trip to Baltimore National Cemetery. The Herbert Nutter Funeral Home was in charge.

Active pallbearers were AFRO President John H. Murphy 3rd, George Brooks, George Johnson, Leroy Wood, John White, Clyde Bryant, William Brown, Albert Newton and William Henderson.

A Baltimorean, Mrs. Howard was born Lillian Odessa Tyler, daughter of Mrs. Vonzella Tyler, who survives, and the late Lonie A. Tyler. The family lived for years in the Sparrows Point-Turner Station section.

She attended elementary schools in the area and then went on to Douglass High is Baltimore, where she was graduated in 1942.

She did further study at the Cortez Peters Business School, Hampton Insitute and New York University.

She had traveled extensively and was active in the Public School Secretarial Association, YWCA, Business and Professional Women, the Maryland League of Women's Clubs, and the Iota Phi Lambda sorority.

In addition to her husband and mother, she is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Vonzella Randolph, Baltimore; and Mrs. Goldie M. Palmer, Glen Burnie;

Three brothers, Alfred M. Tyler, Lonie Tyler Jr., and Joseph R. Tyler, all of Baltimore.

Also, three aunts, Mrs. Maude Parks, Sparrows Point; Mrs. Anna Tyler, Washington and Mrs. Stella Tyler, Columbus, Ohio; three uncles, William Tyler, Washington; Robert Tyler, Columbus, Ohio and Charles Tyler, Warrington, Va., and nieces and nephews whom she fondly called her 'sunshine' children.

FUNERAL SERVICES in Baltimore Monday for Mrs. Odessa Tyler Howard, Carver High School secretary and wife of AFRO composing room superintendent and company director. In top panel, Mr. Howard, right, walks with niece, Miss Sharon Palmer and mortician, Herbert Nutter, right, Mrs. Howard's mother, Mrs. Vonzella Tyler is escorted by sons, Alfred and Raye Tyler. Behind them, deceased sister, Mrs. Vonzella Randolph and husband, St. Clair Randolph. Below, pallbearers remove casket from Walbrook Trinity Presbyterian Church.
