Top grads at Morgan all hired

One recruiter for every two seniors interested in a job in business, industry or government

Some 50 school systems turned away because the recruiting schedule was filled.

This is the happy plight of Morgan State College students who in their senior year put their future in the hands of the Placement Office directed by George MacDonald.

All of the 63 top graduates of Morgan who did not go on to graduate school or into military service have been placed in jobs with an average salary of $9,510. Five who received their bachelor degrees received offers of over $10,000, Mr. MacDonald said.

Last year, 1969, accounting majors had an average salary of $9,400 followed closely by the physics majors of $9,300 and chemistry majors of $8,800. Some 210 1969 graduates were placed with an average salary of $7,350.

Mr. MacDonald reported a 20 per cent increase in the number of recruiters who came to Morgan from September 1969 through the spring of 1970.

"Beginning salaries were approximately $400 higher than a year ago. There was great demand in certain fields such as accounting and reading teachers," he said.

Mr. MacDonald added that already 191 recruiters have signed up for the 1970-71 season even though Morgan's first recruiting date will not be until October 27.

The director pointed out also that there were fewer job offers during the year (down 15 per cent) and that recruiters were more selective. "Grades, work experience, leadership in extra curricular activities were scrutinized carefully this year," he said.

Mr. MacDonald said that a large number of recruiters cancelled this year, "a reflection of the downward business trend."

The placement director also stated that although, "many new fields opened up to women i.e. salaries for women in comparable jobs still lag behind men by approximately 20%."

Some 386 of the 667 graduates registered with the placement office and participated in 1,023 interviews. Some 196 companies came on the campus including 106 industrial companies, 48 government agencies, 10 department stores, 10 banks, 13 insurance companies and 3 auditing houses.

Other participants in the program are:

Allen Tractor, M. Robertson, Baltimore Galvanizing, Chesapeake Servicemaster, Gas Investors, Solo Cup, Structural Component, Tolmac, William Crane, Bill Kirk, Volkswagen, Conchemco, Curtis Beauty Supply.

Forman and Dermer, F. Bowie Smith, R and D Industries, James J. Lacy, Henry O. Berman Co., Executive Health, Inc., Rieh's Permit Shop, Comfort Spring, Dalmatia Cover, S. Lehnert and Son, Maryland Bedding, K. Heileman, Micro-Tech.

M. O. Page, Pritchard-King, Princess Enterprise, Rogers Beatty Supply, Vulcan-Hart Corporation, Tower Ford, International Harvester, Veneers, Inc., Southern Galvanizing Co., Burning Paint, W. F. Wilson Commercial Envelope, Good Humor Corporation.

"We are particularly pleased with being able to give smaller companies an opportunity to participate in the NAB program," said Avanti DeAngelis, manager of Recruitment and Government Programs.

"There are twelve metropolitan communities in our region, and Baltimore has arranged 46 contracts out of the 95 that have been obtained in the region."

Parking meters free regular hours

Commissioner of Transit and Traffic, Hugo O. Liem Jr., issued a reminder that while all other parking and stopping prohibitions will be in effect in metered and unmetered areas throughout the City on Independence Day, Saturday, July 4, it will not be necessary to put money in parking meters during those times when parking is allowed in the metered areas.

The Traffic Chief said that the only exceptions are the 24-hour parking meters in Sam Smith Park, Broadway and Belair Market Lots, and the City Hospitals Parking Area. Money must be put into these meters every day of the year.

PROMOTION CEREMONIES for Mrs. Bessie R. Norris of the Baltimore City Police Department were held last week when Commissioner Donald P. Pomerleau issued the lady detective a certificate stating that she had been promoted to the position of Sergeant. For several years, Policewoman Norris was attached to the Narcotic Division.

Head Start centers okay at churches

The Board of Estimates approved Wednesday the operation of the Community Action Agency's summer Head Start Centers at three churches, accommodating a total of 144 children.

The churches are Bethel AME, Druid Hill Ave and Lanvale St.; Mt. Olivet Christian, 1433 Edmondson Ave., and Govans Presbyterian, 5824 York Rd.

The programs provide educational, social, medical, dental and psychological care for children living in the CAA's target areas.

Bethel and Mt. Olivet have 54 children each, and the Govans Presbyterian center is assigned 36.

Board action on still another CAA proposal was approval of a 1971 youth program involving $500,000 in federal funds and $137,018 in local participation.

Additional positions okayed for the three and a half month project include a youth program director, an administrative assistant, youth program assistant director, account clerk, program aide and a program secretary.

JULY 8

The black American's search and struggle for his own identity over and above the white "norm" is covered from the point of view of black students at Howard University, in "Color Us Black!," a 60-minute film at Pratt Library's Pimlico Branch, 7:30 p.m.

JULY 7

The Towson State College Summer Theatre will present its production of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" from today through July 11 and July 14 through July 18 in the Studio Theatre at Towson State College. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. Reservations may be made by calling 828-0020.

Anybody can make a hard liquor. A soft whiskey is something else.

The difference between hard liquor and soft whiskey is more than just a matter of taste.

What makes Calvert Extra soft is the way it is distilled and blended.

So while soft whiskey has a unique taste, it is also as smooth and mellow as the best imported Scotch and Canadian.

It took us many years and thousands of experiments to develop the unique taste of soft whiskey.

It wasn't easy.

But we think you'll agree it was worth it.

Five interesting savings plans...

There's a wide range of investments to select from at Baltimore Federal – and all of them yield a good return. You can invest $1,000 for only six months and earn 5¼% per annum. One year certificates of $5,000 or more earn 5¾%. Two year certificates of $12,000 or more return 6%. And an investment of $100,000 or more for one year yields a handsome 7½% per annum. All certificates may be purchased in larger than minimum amounts in multiples of $1,000. What's more, we'll credit and compound your interest quarterly so it earns interest, too, or we'll pay it by check direct to you.

You can also select our popular and convenient passbook savings account which pays 5% per annum, credited and compounded quarterly. The choice of thousands of savers, it gives you complete flexibility to make deposits or withdrawals at any time in any amount.

A new interest period is now starting. Stop in or call Baltimore Federal for details ... then select the savings plan that interests you most.

Gadabouting in Baltimore

Rose Gwynn Wallace will be married to Charles H. Byrd

with Lula Mackay

All those folks who have been marveling about Rose Gwynn Wallace, how great she's looking these days and how bubbly she's been, now know the reason. She's had a romance up her sleeve.

Invitations are in the mail from Mrs. Wallace and Charles H. Byrd to their wedding reception on July 18th in Epworth United Methodist Chapel, Liberty Road and Saint Luke's Lane, at three-thirty in the afternoon.

Mrs. Wallace was an eminent business woman and a top town cosmetologist before she shed so much responsibility to take it easier in a teaching position in Baltimore City schools. Mr. Byrd is a postal employee.

The marriage ceremony will be private, incidentally, her engagement gift is a Lincoln Continental Mark III.

Invitations are also in the mail to the 25th wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Henderson, which will take place on July 26 in The Emerald Garden.

Mr. Henderson, who was on the faculty of the Carver Vocational Technical High School, where he taught painting and decorating, prior to becoming a job coordinator in city schools. Mrs. Henderson, the former Evelena Jackson, is librarian at School No. 160 in Cherry Hill.

There was little need to pick up a phone during the month because those people who were not off to the ends of the earth (like Dr. and Mrs. Albert LaForest, Dr. and Mrs. H. Garland Caissell Jr., Dr. and Mrs. Archie Robinson, who flew to Japan) were at nearby spots having high times at classy picnics and parties.

The Baltimore Girl Friends and the men in their lives jaunted out to the county-line home of Charles and Gwyndolyn Lynch for games and an elaborate buffet set in their exquisite garden. The G.F.'s had just returned from Trenton, where they made a picnic of the journey to and from that New Jersey city in a chartered luxury bus, properly stocked.

The Baltimore Gay Northeasterners were entertained by Judge and Mrs. E. Everett Lane at their Baltimore County place. The Pierians played at the Villa Nova Road home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adkins, and the No Name Club, and a gang of guests were at Johnson's Farm for a day. But the most enchanting outing was that executed by a committee of Sharp Street Memorial United Methodist Church, headed by Connie Brent. The committee gathered three bus loads of children from that congregation and the neighborhood, along with a goodly contingent of adults, and motored to beautiful Elk Neck State Park, right at the head of the Chesapeake, for a day in the open, a plentiful dinner, swimming and ball playing.

Last week, the Baltimore Moles and Mules flew to the Moles' Annual Conclave held in Charlotte, N.C. for a gay and glorious weekend of fun. From what seemed like dawn on Friday to midnight Sunday, the hours were filled with all kinds of delightful "doings." Mule Ed McDaniels did an effective job as Tour Director and co-ordinated the details of moving around a carefree group which fully lived the motto of "Enjoy Yourself, It's Later Than You Think."

The conclave was a gathering of the Beautiful People and Crew Moles from all over the country (nearly 500 Moles and Mules) so that greeting old friends was the consistent three-day theme. Baltimore's Hospitality Suite will long be remembered as the focus where good friends got together and stayed 'til dawn. Competing with the fun were the fabulous Mole fashions worn with a contemporary flair which earned for the Baltimore group a reputation of "truly hanging in there."

Moles and Mules attending the conclave included Beatrice and David Wright, Bernice and Edward McDaniels, Blanche and Paul Beckham, Anabel and Marsden Rawlings, Mary C. and Tom McPherson, Helena and Alonzo Hairston, Carolyn and Wesley Stubbs, Emma and Glenford Dudley, Louise and Irving Lockerman, Harrier and Herbert Trafer, Bertha Forte, Helen Queen, Dorothy Johnston, Margret Land, Florence Bailey and Royal White.

James W. McAllister, attorney, former assistant states attorney of this city was in Mobile, Ala. to deliver the commencement address at Mobile State College, his Alma Mater, and where President Nixon sent a personal note of best wishes.

At Ohio State University's Centennial graduation on the 12th, marching proud and stately was Eric Morris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles (Eatner) Morris of this town, who won a bachelor of arts degree in business administration. There, too, for the occasion was Mrs. Eric (Dianne) Morris and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lummie Pace. Speaker was Robert Finch, secretary of the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

Mr. and Mrs. S. Casper (Pocahontas) Parker were in Europe for their holiday. When we heard from them mid-June they were extolling the gaiety of Paris, the beauty of the Bavarian Alps and headed for Italy, Autria and Portugal.

Also in Europe were Mr. and Mrs. Roland (Anita) Henson, who were seeing that continent in a party with Dr. and Mrs. Frank Roberts of Kingston, Jamaica, W.I. Last week they had touched down at London, Paris, Madrid, Barcelona, Pisa and Nice and were in Rome.

On last Saturday the executive director of the National Organizations for Children and Youth, Mrs. Isabella J. Jones, called a meeting of all known Big Sister organizations in the country to convene at a luncheon meeting in the Chinese Room of the Mayflower Hotel in Washington.

The Maryland State Commission for Children and Youth recognized Big Sisters-Little Sisters as the only known group in this state. Six members (the largest delegation) attended. They were Mesdames Ernestine Smith, Clara Colonna, Willnetta Sutton, Alma Brown and Miss Betsy Eisman and Mary Carter Smith, president.

The group has tentatively selected as a name, Big Sisters of America and include groups in Canada as well as in six regions of the United States. Mrs. Winifred Derry, one of the founders of Rhode Island Big Sisters, was elected chairman. Mary Carter Smith was elected one of chairmen and will be aided by Alma Brown. The Baltimore group is the only all-volunteer group represented.

Ellen Russell, entertaining members of the National Sorority of Phi Delta Kappa, took her guests to the spacious lawn of her elegant Longwood Street home, Saturday ago, for ing of that June meeting.

Ere the out-door repast the sorors had applauded Ruth L. Marshall, retiring basileus of the chapter (Gamma), for the excellent job during the past two years, and inducted officers to serve for the next term of two years.

The latter include Thelma C. Rice, basileus; Ardena Dixon, second antibasileus; Bennie J. Roey, tamias; Margarete T. Dunlap, chairman of Xinor; Ruperta S. Waters, journalist; and Mildred W. Harriday, custodian of the insignia.

Sorors at the meeting were.

Mildred Barkley, Jean Beckett, Bertha W. Cross, Emma L. Davis, Ardena Dixon, Margaret T. Dunlap, Wilhelmina Duvall, Orangie W. Epps, Leana Ferrell, Anna Mae Gittings, Mildred W. Harriday, Roselle M. Hunt, Ethel J. Hunter, Jeanette L. Johnson, Lucille Johnson, Anne E. Larkins, Della Macer, Ruth Marshall, Patricia Morris, Inez Redmond, Thelma C. Rice, Roey, Ellen Russell, Frances Thompson, Ruperta S. Waters and Carolyn F. Willis.

"Blind Bird" and "Study in Wet," films at Pratt Library's Pimlico Branch, 1 p.m.

"With No One to Help Us," "The Big Con," and "Just Sign Here," films at Pratt Library's Waverly Branch, 7 p.m.

THE WEDDING of Miss Phyllis Ware and Robert Daniels took place in the Christian Community Church, Baltimore, Saturday.

THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss Ramona Moore to Richard A. Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Maxie J. Jones has been announced by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry L. Moore. An August wedding is planned.
