Gladys Knight and the Pips
she's Motown's First Lady of Soul

Gladys Knightand Pips upstage Tom Jones, Basie

DETROIT — There was something for everyone Friday night at Detroit's Olympia Stadium. For the over-twenty-five crowd, Count Basie and his Orchestra presented a toe tapping fare of tunes like "April in Paris" and "One O'Clock Jump" that was a mellow groove for Basie fans young and old.

Comedian Norm Crosby provided laughs with his language-fracturing humor, and for ladies of all ages there was the Welsh bombshell, Tom Jones, singing and gyrating the females into a frenzy.

But the act that grabbed everyone, male and female, young and old, was the fabulous Gladys Knight and the Pips, Motown's Missstress of Soul.

Gladys and the Pips — Merald Knight, Edward Patten and William Guest — kicked off their segment of the show with an up beat medley of two Broadway hits, "Cabaret" and "Let Me Entertain You," revealing depth and versatility.

Then the Motown foursome got together with the Basie band on "I Heard It Through the Grapevine," and the crowd responded enthusiastically.

The audience began clapping hands and things started getting hot and heavy as Gladys got into the song that won her a special proclamation from the City of Los Angeles, "Friendship Train."

Gladys moved along the stage and called on the audience to join in the spirit of her song and sahke hands with the person in the next seat.

Smiling and laughing, the audience began shaking hands with one another, feeling the spirit of brother hood and harmony Gladys delivers so well in "Friendship train."

Without pausing, Gladys Knight and Pips slipped smoothly into a liquid strain and Gladys delivered a soulful rendition of the standard ballad, "You're Just Too Good To Be True."

In contrast was a winner capatalizing on all the versatility and musicul resources have accounted for Mrs. Knights' acceptance as Motown's first lady of soul.

NFDMA Inc. plan Baltimore confab for August 2-6

BALTIMORE — The 33rd annual convention of the National Funeral Directors and Morticians Association Inc. will be held Aug. 2 through 6, according to local president William C. March.

This will be the first time since 1948, when the group met at the old York Hotel, that the affair has been held in the "Monumental City," said March.

More than 2,000 delegates from across the nation and the British West Indies are expected to attend the convention which will be headquartered at the Civic Center in downtown Baltimore.

"Most of our people will housed at the Lord Baltimore Hotel and the Statler Hilton for the five-day meeting," explained the president of the Baltimore chapter.

The Baltimore funeral director told the AFRO that "in addition to public exhibits, seminars and educational programs, Baltimore city solicitor George Russell is one of the speakers scheduled to address the convention."

In addition, March said that the Baltimore local has scheduled a dinnerdance at the Blue Crest
