Justice Dept. to investigate charges of teacher firing

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A Justice Department official this week agreed to study a senate committee's evidence of widespread firing or demotion of black teachers and illegal support of white private schools in the south.

Jerris Leonard, assistant attorney general for civil rights, agreed to the step during a heated debate over his policies with memmbers of the Select Committee on equal Educational Oportunity.

Chairman Walter F. Mondale, D-Minn., said civil rights groups have supplied evidence that 5,000 black teachers were fired or demoted discriminatorily and Louisiana "nearly one third of the schools are transferring property, books and virtually giving school buildings" to the new private white schools.

* * *

Leonard said he was prosecuting one case of alleged discrimination in the demotion of a black teacher and needed specific complaints before he can start more prosecutions.

"Let's begin with the 5,000 teachers fired or demoted," Mondale said. "We have a (black) principal working as a janitor."

"If they commit a violation of the law there will be immediate action," Leonard said.

Mondale issued on the spot orders that the committee's evidence gathered in weeks of hearings, be sent to Leonard's department.

* * *

Mondale, and Sen. Birch Bayh, D-Ind., asked Leonard repeatedly if he was "monitoring" results. "I don't think you need a crystal ball, just a minimum set of eyes," Bayh said.

"I think you are suggesting that we put federal monitors in al these classes in 11 southern states," Leonard said. He said he needed complaints before he could act.

"I've seldom seen such hyprocisy," Bayh replied. "You suggested, ridiculously, that we demand that you monitor each classroom."

* * *

Leonard stuck to the subject, saying he did not believe in "monitoring." He said the Justice Department is fully equipped to receive and act on complaints.

Mondale, Bayh and Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., also critized Leonard's basic policy of only demanding racially unified school systems but not demanding racial balance in schools.

Leonard said he could not go further without hanging the law and that should be the job of the courts of congress.

"I will not upsurp what is either the congressional prerogative or the judicial preogative," Leonard said.

* * *

Leonard said his policies will bring an end to the racially dual systems in the South by this fall if all the orders are carried out and if results are not feasured by racial balance standards.

The result, Mondale said, has been "token" desegregation that is insulting to blacks and thus worse than none at all.

"The Jrstice Department had done all it can to develop a system of lifted rules in order to develop this kind of token situation so you can say, 'Ah. We have complied with the law.'"

8 groups attempt to bar TV license

WASHINGTON, D.C — Eight black community organizations in Memphis last week filed petitions to deny license renewals of television station WREC, owned by Cowles Broadcasting Service and WHBQ TV, owned by RKO General.

The petitions alleged that the stations failed to serve the needs and interests of the black community, which constitutes 40 per cent of the population of the Memphis area.

The groups, collectively known as the Memphis Coalition for Better Broadcasting, are led Allen Black Jr., field director for the NAACP Legal Defense and Education Fund and a resident of Memphis. The coalition is involved in negotiations with management of the two stations.

The coalition is aided by the Office of Communication of the United Church of Christ which is helping black citizen groups throughout the country to gain access to television and radio audiences.

Several broadcast deficiencies and discriminatory practices are alleged in the petetions filed with the FCC here. Amoug them are exclusion of blacks from certain programs, inadequate news coverage of black activities, failure to consult black leaders and organizations and discriminatory employment practices against blacks.

In a joint statement, Mr. Black and the Rev. Dr. Everett C. Parker, director of the United Church's Office of Communication, expressed regret at the necessity of being forced into a license renwal challenge with the stations while negotiations are going on.

"We are dismayed by the failure of the FCC to recognize bona fide efforts to negotiate in good faith for the fulfilling of the community's needs and desires. By refusing our request for a short extension of time before licenses are renewed, the Commission has thrown the citizens of Memphis, the stations involved and itself into a long and costly legal procedure, a procedure that could have been avoided by a simple administrative act.

Seashore setting for women's meet

The National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc. will hold its 75th anniversary convention in Atlantic City, July 25-31, at Claridge Hotel. NACWC is the oldest colored organization for women in the United States and represents approximately 100,000 women and girls in 38 states and the District of Columbia.

A pageant depicting the activities of past and present national Presidents of the Associaiton for 75 years will be held Wednesday, July 29th in Trimble Hall at 8 p.m.

One highlight of the session will be the Thursday evening awards banquet. Henry Bellmon, U.S. Congressman (R-Oklahoma) will be guest speaker.

Among the distinguished guest, for the week long activities will be Mrs. Elizabeth Ducan Koontz, director, Women's Bureau, U.S. Department of Labor; Dr. Willa Strong, national historian, National Association of Colored Women's Clubs, Inc.; Mrs. Elly Peterson, assistant chairman, National GOP; Colonel Lucille Dion, executive secretary, Defense Advisory Committe on Women in The Service;

Mrs. Mark Ellingson, Rochester, N.Y., member, DACOWITS; Dr. Christopher D'Amanda, Dean of Medical School, Buffalo, N.Y.; Congressman Robert A. Taft, (Rep. — Ohio) U.S. House of Representatives; Charles Bynum, National Foundation; March of Dimes and Edwin Sexton, of Wichita, Kansas.

Tuesday evening's program will be filled with youth talent and oratorical contests and awarding of NACWC's biennial scholarships.

Mrs. Myrtle Wilson Ollison of Oklahoma City, Okla. is currently national president.

'Africa' special on Channel 11

"Africa," an award-winning, four-hour documentary report applauded by critics as "one of television's finest achievements," will be presented in color by WBAL-TV in four weekly installments beginning Sunday, July 19, at 6:30-7:30 p.m., and continuing at this same time through August 9.

The remarkable documentary winner of 13 awards for excellence, including an Emmy, The Peabody Award and the Saturday Review Distinguished Achievement Award, foaures Academy Award-winning film star Gregory Peck as narrator.

Television newscaster Howard K. Smith joins Peck to provide commentary on the of times elusive political, geographical and sociological elements currently at work within the once "dark continent."

* * *

The July 19 telecast on TV 11 will present an in-depth look at attempts to preserve Africa's unique wildlife against encroaching technology, the primitive existence of the Bushmen of Botswana's Kalahari Desert, history of the continent with emphasis on Ethiopia, Africa's oldest independent nation, and the formation of new independent nations recently freed from colonial rule.

Succeeding programs will examine tribalism as a factor in Afgica's internal conflict, the status of education and what it offers for Africa's future, racial confrontation in South Africa and many other aspects of Africa's collision between ancient ritual and modern ways.

* * *

The telecast will mark the first time the special has been televised in the Baltimore viewing area since its original network run. During that time the documentary amassed an estimated audience of more than 19,260,000 viewers, one of the largest ever for a program of this nature.

One of television's most lavishly praised programs, "Africa" has been called "Four of the finest hours ever seen on television," by the Dallas News, "A landmark . . . with parallel," by The New York Times and "A massive achievement," by the Minneapolis Tribune.

Portions of all four telecasts will on presented by the Schmidt Baking Company: "North Star," normally seen Sundays at 7-7:30 p.m., will return to TV 11 August 16.

Consecration service to spark Convocation

WASHINGTON The 13th annual General Convocation of the Bible Way Church World Wide, now in progress in Washington, will climax over the weekend with a gala motorcade and two days of sessions at the Washington Coliseum.

Currently daily sessions are being held at the Bible Way Church, 1130 New Jersey Ave., NW, with Bishop Smallwood E. Williams, founder-presiding bishop of the Bible Way Church as host minister.

Sunday's program will get underway with a morning prayer service at 6 a.m., followed by a sermon by Bishop Winfield A. Showell of Baltimore at 11:45 a.m., then the impressive ordination service at 4 p.m. All of these sessions will be held at the Coliseum.

Preceding the ordination service, a 300-car motorcade will begin at the New Jersey Ave. Bible Way Church and go to the Washington Coliseum.

* * *

Among those to be consecrated at the service are:

Junior Bishop Henry A. Brown of Prince Frederick Md., who has been elevated to the Senior Board of Bishop and assigned to the Western North Carolina and South Carolina district.

Overseer L. E. White of London who has been promoted to Bishop of England and will be in charge of the 10 Bible Way Churches in England, Bishop White was accompanied to Washington by a delegation of 10 from England.

District Elder Cato Pierson of Baltimore who has been promoted to junior Bishop and assigned to the diocese of Texas.

Elder William A. Cark of Trenton, N. J., who has been general secretary of the Bible Way Churches for 13 years. He will be consecrated as an honorary bishop in recognition of the many years of "meritorious service" to the church, and will continue to serve as general secretary.

Twenty other deacons and elders will be ordained.

* * *

Following the consecration rites, the International Youth Congress, Elder Hule Rodgers of Brooklyn, presiding, and the Youth Congress Choir, directed by Alfred Kee of Lynchburg, Va., will hold its annual session at 8:30 p.m., also at the Coliseum.

The Saturday sessions at the Coliseum featured the General Young People Union with District Elder Bernard Battle presiding. Sepcial guest will be the Rev. Lawrence Roberts and the Angelic Choir of Nutley, N.J., and the 500-voice National Young Peoples Choir under direction of Wallace Williams.

Speaker at the session will be Elder Sherman Thomas of Ragland, Ala.

* * *

Bishop Smallwood E. Williams, in his annual Convocation address, stressed contemporary problems of youth, narcotics and the Vietnam War, and urged that the proper direction be taken in solving these difficulties.

Before the Convocation is over, it is expected that the church group will go on record emphasizing that Bishop Stephen Gill Spottswood's recent criticism of the Nixon Administration's policy is gaining results.

Prior to the Spottswood blast, the Convocation resolution, is expected to say the Administration's policy had not been favorable to black people but in recent weeks there seems to be a slight change. This change, the delegates feel, was prompted by the NAACP charge.

Bishop Williams declared "it may not be too late if the Administration will change directions, and expressed the hope that such a change will be forthcoming.

Upward of 12,000 delegates and visitors are expected for the weekend sessions.

CONVOCATION HOSTS—Bishop and Mrs. Smallwood E. Williams of the Bible Way Church World Wide are hosts this week to the 5th Annual Convocation of the Church which will climax Sunday with a motorcade from the New Jersey Ave. Bible Way Church to the Washington Coliseum for the 4 p.m. Consecration Service.

Rights Commission to probe housing

WASHINGTON The Commission on Civil Rights will hold a three-day public hearing in Baltimore County, Maryland beginning Aug. 17, to collect information on equal housing and employment opportunities for blacks in the suburban areas of Baltimore City.

The hearing is the second in a series being conducted by the Commission to explore the racial implications of suburban development as they relate to housing and employment for blacks and other minorities.

Information derived from the hearings will provide the basis for making recommendations for new Federal legislation for executive action to restructure present programs and requirements to improve housing and economic opportunities for minority group members in suburbs.
