19 win diplomas from Provident

Nineteen graduates of the Provident Hospital Helene Fuld School of Nursing received their diplomas in recent ceremonies held in the Little Theater of the Community College of Baltimore, here, Saturday.

Graduates receiving awards for excellence in the nursing achievements were Celestine Cole, who won The Walden Surgical award for highest achievement in the theory and practice of surgical nursing; Chi Eta Phi Sorority award for excellence in psychiatric nursing; Hsiang Lan Tseng award for highest scholastic achievement.

Donna Barney received the Lyles-Hull award for perfect attendance and health records.

The Alumnae award went to Robert Gilhum for demonstrated professional manners, respect for co-workers, and active participation in student activities; Helen Harrington received the Vessells award for demonstrating qualities which make her a credit to the School and to the nursing profession; Sylvia Truesdale earned the OB-GYN award for outstanding performance in practice of maternal and newborn nursing; and Elsie Walker was presented the Gail award for highest achievement in the nursing care of children.

The Woman's Auxiliary of Provident Hospital award for the two graduates with the highest scholastic averages during the 3-year school period went to Celestine Cole and Jacquelyn Brooks.

The Medical awards for the two graduates in the theory and practice of medical nursing were given to Elsie Walker and Jacquelyn Brooks.

Dr. Nathaniel Proctor, professor of Biology, Morgan College, delivered the commencement address.

Other participants were: Mrs. Doris Reese, assistant administrator of Nursing Service and Education, and Henry J. Whyte, executive director. Presentation of the awards was made by Mrs. Beatrice Avery, Auxiliary president, and diplomas were conferred by Joseph Meyerhoff, chairman of the Building Committee of the Board of Trustees. The invocation was delivered by the Rev. Walter O. Hildebrand of Bethel AME Church.

Walters seeking "most beautiful"

The search is on for the most beautiful girl in Maryland! Married or single, no talent required.

To qualify for the title of Miss Maryland World, 1970, contestants must be 17 years of age and not over 35 years of age by Nov. 1, 1970.

Sponsored by The Walters Academy, The Maryland State finals will be held at the Club Venus in Baltimore on Friday, Aug. 7 at 8:30 p.m.

The lucky girl chosen that night to represent Maryland at the Miss World USA Beauty Pageant at Kings Castle, Lake Tahoe, Nevada, during the week of Sept. 28 to Oct. 3 will receive an all expenses paid trip to the finals.

The winner of the Miss USA title will go on to London, in November to vie for the title of Miss World. She will also visit Paris, London, and Rome.

Entry blanks are available at The Walters Academy, 313 N. Howard Street or at any of their other studios in Bel Air, Harundale, Pikesville, Towson and Westview. For further information, call Plaza 2-4455.
