Servicemen in News

Navy Seaman Harvey Berman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl E. Berman of W. Collington Ave., Baltimore, is now serving aboard the attack aircraft carrier USS Constellation undergoing overhaul in Bremerton, Wash.

• • •

Marine Private First Class Curtis Epps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Epps of Hilton St., Baltimore, was graduated from the Aviation Structural Mechanics Course at the Naval Air Technical Training Center in Milling, Tenn.

The nine-week course included instruction in aircraft structural repair, welding, plastics and repair of internal structures.

Navy Seaman Apprentice Bonald G. Lee, of Flowerton Road, Baltimore, departed its home port of Little Creek, Va., for a Mediterranean deployment.

Sgt. Charles R. Hankins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Hankins of Booth St., Baltimore, is a member of a unit that has earned the U.S. Air Force Outstanding Unit Award.

The 1099th Physiological Training Flight at Andrews AFB, Md., was cited for meritorious service for initiative in the employment of an aggressive and vigorous training program.

They train some 4,000 air crew and noncrew personnel yearly in a variety of subjects related to the effects of flying upon the human body.

Sergeant Hankins, a physiological training specialist in the 1099th, will wear a distinctive service ribbon to mark his affiliation with the unit.

The sergeant is a 1965 graduate of Frederick Douglass High School. His wife is the former Grace E. Kendall.

• • •

Lieutenant Colonel Russell E. White of Hunting Lane in Laurel, Md., was promoted to his present rank during a ceremony at First Army Headquarters at Ft. Meade.

Colonel White is a 1945 graduate of Stanton High School in his native Jacksonville, Fla.

He received a bachelor of science degree in industrial education from Tuskegee (Ala.) Institute in 1951, and was commissioned through the school's ROTC program.

A staff action officer in First Army's individual training branch, he returned in May from a year's tour with the Military Assistance Command, Vietnam.

During 1952 and 1953, he served as a platoon leader, and later a company commander, with the 2nd Infantry Division in Korea.

He holds the Joint Service Commendation Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, and the Combat Infantryman Badge.

Class helps rejects get training

Special adult classes for young men who have been rejected by the Armed Forces when they attempted to enlist have been conducted by the Voluntary Military Rejectee Program sponsored by the Maryland Department of Employment Security.

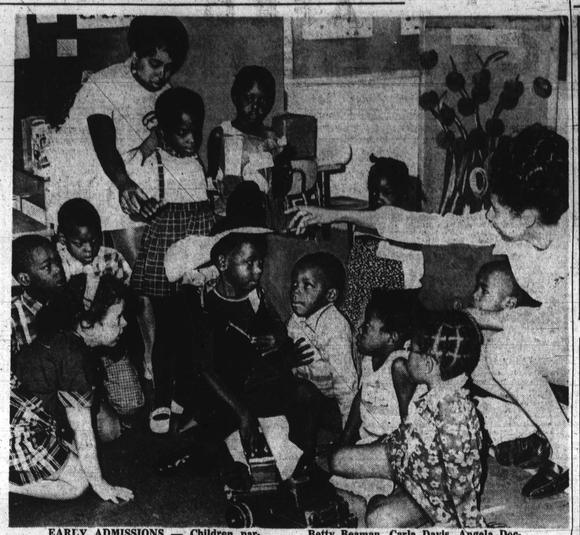
During the fiscal year just ended, 288 young men attended classes which are operated by the Adult Education Division of the Baltimore public schools.

The class is one of many which is operated by this division at employment sites, housing projects, churches, etc.

On last Wednesday evening, representatives of all branches of the service were on hand to observe the class which is held at 1727 N. Charles St.

On hand, also, was Stanley McConner, newly-appointed Director of Adult Education for Baltimore City, and Miss Norma Moore, Specialist in Adult Basic Education.

Miss Moore is the Cordinator of the program; John Creighton is the teacher, and he is assisted by Wilton Welles, a Morgan College student.



EARLY ADMISSIONS — Children participating in the Early Admissions Program at the Guilford Elementary School No. 32, are: William Cooper (fireman), Larry Dixon, Roderick Hatchett, Eric Hatchett, James Owens, Michele Barrett, Betty Beaman, Carla Davis, Angela Doctor, Renee Martin and Maxine Seawell. Mrs. Ruth Greene is teacher and Mrs. Beulah Neal is the aide. During the six-week program, children are provided medical, psychological, social, dental and mental health services.

Children's Center now at Kennedy Institute

Teh Diagnostic and Evaluation clinic of the Children's Center, The Johns Hopkins Hospital, has been relocated to the John F. Kennedy Institute across the street.

Formerly located in the Children's Center, the clinic's patients include children with mental retardation, communication disorders, learning disabilities and certain organic behavioral disorders.

Dr. Dennis Whitehouse, Director of the clinic, said the move came about because the clinic and the Kennedy Institute already are working closely together on children with multiple handicaps.

The Kennedy Institute serves not only as a patient care area for mentally and physically handicapped children but also as a training ground for persons in medical or paramedical fields.

The clinic, which sees about 250 new patients a year, is still considered a hospital clinic despite its new location.

It is part of a State Health Department program which provides free evaluation to children of Maryland residents.

Birthday Tribute

WHITMORE — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, WESLEY HAYWOOD, on his birthday July 31, who passed away October 20, 1969:
What would we give his hand to clasp,
His patient face to see,
To hear his voice, to see his smile,
As in the days that used to be,
But some sweet day we'll meet again
Beyond the toil and strife,
And clasp each other's hand once more
In Heaven that happy life.
Sisters, VICTORIA, WANDA, WINIFRED, VALERIE; Brother, VINCENT — MOTHER and FATHER.

BROOKS — In loving memory of my dear granddaughter, CYNTHIA J. E. BROOKS, who passed away July 26, 1967:
Just a thought of sweet remembrance,
Just a memory sad and true,
Just the love and sweet devotion
Of one who thinks of you.
Loving GRANDMOTHER.

BROWN — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, MASTER MAURICE ELEY, who passed away July 26, 1969:
Before the throne of God
Thousands of children stand,
Children whose sins are all forgiven,
A holy, happy band.
Up there among the throne,
Our little MAURICE stands,
Waiting for us to join him in that holy, happy land.
MOTHER — FATHER — SISTERS and BROTHERS.

BROWNE — A tribute to the sacred memory of my husband DR. BENJAMIN F. BROWNE, who departed this life, July 28, 1962:

BUCKNER — In remembrance of the birthday of our Mother, MRS. SEULAH E. BUCKNER, who passed away July 28, 1961:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
We miss to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best.
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
Devoted Daughters: MARY WALL, FLORENCE FULLEY, BERLAH FOGLE — HELEN CROXTON and CHARLEYE COLEMAN

BRUNT — In memory of our father, SAMUEL J. BRUNT, who passed away July 28, 1961:
To love dying, that stooped to share
Our sharpest pang, our bitterest tear
On thee we cast each earthborn care,
We smile at pain while thou art near
While drooping pleasure turns to grief
And trembling faith is changed to fear
The murmuring wind, the quivering leaf
Shall softly tell us thou art near
On thee we fling our burdening woe
O love divine, forever dear,
Content to suffer while we know
Living and dying, thou art near
DEVOTED CHILDREN, BROTHERS.

DIXON — In loving memory of our dear mother, EVA DIXON, who departed this life July 27, 1958:
We will never forget you.

God grant some day we'll meet her there.
Devoted Children — ORIE, SAMUEL, LILA, GERE and WILLIS

GARDENER — In memory of my beloved husband, ROBERT LEE, who passed away July 24, 1956:
I seem to see in the soft, dim light
A face I love the best,
And think of him when the sun's last ray
Goes down in the far-off West.
I miss you no less as the time passes on
Than I did on the day of your going,
Per absence can never close the door of my heart
And the lamp of my love is still glowing.
Your heart was the truest in all the wide world
Your love the best to recall
For no one on earth can take your place
You are still the dearest of all.
Loving Wife — SHIRLEY.

GOLDMAN — In loving memory of our mother, MARY FRANCES GOLDMAN, who passed away July 31, 1952:
Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile;
A loving heart that knew no guile,
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of others,
We know its said, well done, dear Mother.
