Leroy Dyett gets bang of a surprise

By LULA MACKAY

It took some doing for Partner James Morton (Morton and Dyett, morticians) to keep Leroy O. Dyett out long enough Sunday, for Mrs. Dyett to put the party on the road that was to celebrate his birthday.

Mr. Dyett just didn't see the need of business on Sunday evening . . . and why, he wanted to know would Mr. Morton stop for a drink when they could go to his house and get any kind of drink he wanted? But the competent, suave Mr. Morton managed.

But when they did get back to the Dyetts' magnificent new manse and he found the acre-size back lawn filled with the beautiful people who burst forth with "Happy Birthday to You!" to the tunes of Buss Green and His Townsmen, the Man of the House leaned his head against one of the beautiful oaks and let a tear run down.

The lovely Ann (Mrs. Dyett) floating about in softly pleated white chiffon culottes, sashed with red satin, gave not the least indication that she had supervised the preparation of the ladened buffet that held everything from a whole suckling pig to turkey, roast beef, swedish meat balls, barbecued ribs, fried chicken; to a galaxy of vegetables (string, beans, beets, corn, as well as shrimp and rice, potato salad, and dowls of celery, onions, olives, pickles in addition to a tomato and lettuce salad . . . and hot rolls.

There were a couple of bars under a canopy, the musicians under another, and colorful tables about the pool and on the lawn.

There were enough out-of-town guests to spark a town crowd . . . and all fetched loads of gifts to spark a flame in the honoree's heart. And Mr. Dyett was doing a bit of sparking himself in a see-through shirt, red striped slacks and soft red moccasins.

The out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Leaford Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Lassiter, Miss Trudy Hill, Kharl Williams and Ricky Baumfield of Washington; Allen Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. Scott Wilson of Columbia, Md., Mr. and Mrs. Ted Tillman of Philadelphia, Harold Kennedy and his mother, Mrs. Kennedy of Dayton, Ohio, Miss Tony Perrieva, Mr. and Mrs. Gus Perrieva of New York; David Bust of Miami Beach, Fla.,

Mr. Embry reminded, however, that the owners of the Marlborough live in New York, and negotiations are under way by his department, a developer and the federal government to obtain financing for rehabilitation of the apartment complex.

He said the funds involved are in the neighborhood of $1 million. No time limit has been set on completion of the negotiations.

Lewis has been on the Human Relations Task Force in Carroll County and is well known in the area for his efforts in the civil rights struggle there. gained him some enemies in the area who would "use anything from facts to malicious gossip to keep me off the board".

How much their efforts will affect him he doesn't know but says "I'd like to know if I'm riding the horse or walking beside it.

The latest word from Governor Mandel on the appointment is that he has about the appointment but has "asked for a background on Mr. Lewis as soon as it is available.

"I'm going to personally ask Mr. Lewis to come down so I can talk to him before I make any decision on it."

The Governor also said that he had no idea how long it will take to issue the decision but "I don't think it will be longer than a week", he concluded.

Mr. Lewis himself has not heard from the Governor and on learning of the Governor's statement said, "Well"

He also pointed out that he still sticks by his original release in which he said his only crime was being born black.

"In the minds of those who have attacked me on this basis (and there are those in this county whose only reason is racial.) I have never found allies either for the good of the county or any other reason among this group.

"I'm still confident that the outcome will be for the best and my qualifications for the job rather than my critics' peces will influence the final decision".

aligned along the fire area.

A small alley-way between Elana's and the Evansted Apartments seemed to be what saved Dixon's Beauty Salon at 3826 Liberty Heights.

However all the tenants who live on the second and third floors in the building were evacuated.

James J Lacy, president of the board of fire commissioners, told the AFRO Thursday the fire is still under investigation.

"We haven't determined how or where it started yet but we feel the fire had been burning a good while before it was discovered."

While fire officials do not suspect arson, Mr. Lacy added that, "arson hasn't been ruled out."

Henry Baker told the AFRO he plans to continue his business for the present at his owner Beauty Shop in Edmondson Village which is managed by his daughter-in-law. He has not yet determined whether he will return to the Liberty Heights location.

Mr. Baker said that if the owner restores the structures, he would likely relocate on the same site, and if not the same site in the general location.

George H. Boone said he does not know whether he will return to the Liberty Heights area. Mr. Boone operate another interior business in the 2900 Block Brighton St. He will work out of that office until future plans are made.

It is not known what plans are being made by other displaced businesses in the fire area.

Meanwhile, other stores in the area near Garrison Blvd. continue as usual. There is still a strong stench of smoke prevailing as one walks or drives through the adjacent streets.

workers from Chapel Street sang Aquarius, Netta Mitchell and Shelly Scruggs.

AFRO Clean Blockers dancing as "Go-Go" from from 1800 Chester were: Terry Lynn Addison, Christine King, Shirley Addison and Patricia Fuqua.

The 1800 Chapel performers included Kenny Porter, who danced along with Go-Go Girls — Gloria Winder, Cynthia Ray and Jacqueline Hopkins.

Duncing to the tune of "Up The Ladder To The Roof," were Theresa Hopkins, Zena Miller, Jacqueline Hopkins, Gloria Winder and Cynthia Ray.

Angie Mallory, Constance Winder and Regina Matthews danced to "The Love You Save. Kenneth Brown, Earl Redd and James Harris of Chapiel Street wore the fringe type vest with Cowboy Hats, they sang, The Love You Save."

There were two very young Go-Go-Girls - ages 5 and 6, Rosalyn Ray and April Allen.

The two boys singing and dancing from 1700 Washington were Jerome Washington captain of the block and Michael Johnson.

There was no honeymoon but they seem to be happy

Gorillas are facing extinction in Africa, so Baltimore and Phoenix zoo officials agreed they should be united to conserve the animals.

Obtaining transportation for the 300 pound gorilla Commercial airlines, independent air carriers and military flyers turned down zoo officials' requests to take Jackie on the 2000 mile trip.

Finally, last week Amanda Blake, of the Gunsmoke television series, appealed to the CBS News Service and they agree to help.

Mr. Hefner, editor-publisher of "Playboy" magazine, learned of the efforts and offered his jet.

Hazel apparently found the waiting worthwhile. From the look of their first meeting, Hazel and Jackie have agreed to spend their lives together and raise a family of gorillas to amuse and entertain children at the Phoenix and Baltimore zoos. — BRENDA WRIGHT
