N. Wilson goes back to 'Rm. 222'

Nancy Wilson guest-stars on the NBC-TV series, "Julia," Sunday night.

Miss Wilson plays Julia Phillips' friend, Marvelous Marva, a former Miss Watermelon Queen who is a student, enlisted to help in the school's drive to prevent high school students from dropping out.

Miss Wilson's appearance is set for 8:30 p.m. on NBC's Room 222 Wednesday.

Counselor Liz McIntyre, who suggests contacting Marva, is played by Michelle, a Walt Whitman High student, who, at first, is reluctant to get involved in the project as a student assembly. She also is reluctant to relate to the singer, who proposes to make a movie about her life.
