REUNION IN GERMANY: Mrs. Ella Douglass was reunited with her son, LTC Willie Douglass, Jr., an assistant inspector in the Inspector General Section, in Germany, recently. LTC Douglass gave his mother the trip, her first by air, and he and his wife, the former Hilda Miller of the Eastern Shore, Maryland, took her on a tour of that country, surprised her with gifts and entertained her at famous restaurants. Mr. Douglass is a career man.

Tormenting Rectal Itch Of Hemorrhoidal Tissues Promptly Relieved

(Gives Prompt, Temporary Relief from Such Burning Itch and Pain in Many Cases.

The burning itch and pain caused by infection and inflammation in hemorrhoidal tissues can cause much suffering. But there is an exclusive formulation that in many cases gives prompt relief for hours from this itch and pain so that the sufferer is more comfortable again. It also actually helps shrink swelling of hemorrhoidal tissues caused by inflammation and infection.

Tests by doctors on hundreds of patients in New York City, Washington, D.C. and at a Midwest Medical Center reported similar successful results in many cases. This is the same medication you can buy at any drug counter under the name Preparation H®.

Preparation H also lubricates and protects the inflamed surface area and it doesn't sting or smart. In fact, it has very soothing qualities which make it especially helpful during the night when itching becomes more intense.

There's no other formula like Preparation H. In ointment or suppository form.

Northwood visits at Hilton School

Students of the Literature class of the Northwood Elementary School No. 242 visited the literature students of the Hilton Elementary School No. 21 to share summer school experiences and meet new people.

The Tuesday visitors were received by Hilton Elementary students modeling African costumes that they had created, were entertained with African poetry, music, dancing, and story telling by students of the Literature class at Hilton Elementary School.

Lisa Saunders, a 12-year-old student, choreographed and taught a group dance (Polemze), and performed an exciting solo to Miriam Makeba's "Amampondo."

A drum solo performed on several different sized tom-toms was presented by a talented musician that our Literature class has discovered: Robert Horton.

The African story-teller Wayne Wright, dramatized The Tale of a Crocodile, a Congo folktale retold by Ann Kirn, while seated on an authentic Ghanaian tribal stool and wearing a native hat.

The Wise Singers and their director, Mrs. Julia Wise at the invitation of Mr. Willie Grier, the Black History teacher, climaxed the program with poetry and spirituals which included "Oh, Happy Day."

After the program the Northwood visitors and the literature students met in the library to examine an African art exhibit, and participate in a get-acquainted party.

NAACP drive launched for memberships

NEW YORK — The NAACP has launched a stepped-up nationwide membership campaign in the hope of exceeding its 1969 total of 461,957 despite a 100 per cent increase in the minimum annual membership fee from $5 to $4.

In a memorandum to local units throughout the nation, Gloster B. Current, director of branches and field administration, and Miss Lucille Black, secretary for membership, called for an intensive drive to enable the Association "to end 1970 with the largest membership in the history of the organization."

Local units were urged to "reorganize your membership campaign and go out for new and old memberships."

Local Red Cross to aid Texas hurricane victims

The winds that raged across Corpus Christi and other south Texan towns are stirring up action for the local Red Cross.

With a six million dollar national goal, the Baltimore Regional Red Cross has pledged its support to help the thousands of disaster victims affected by the hurricane.

Announcing the emergency fund appeal, Mrs. John S. Williamson Jr., local Red Cross chairman, said, "It will be necessary to help thousands of Celia's victims rebuild their entire lives and to do the job, we need funds."

Latest Red Cross survey figures indicate some 65,000 families suffered losses due to the recent storm with 8,980 dwellings destroyed, 13,850 severely damaged and 41,800 with minor damage.

Mrs. Williamson urged all Baltimore area citizens to assist in this nationwide relief effort by sending contributions to the Baltimore Regional Red Cross, earmarked for Hurricane Celia Disaster Relief, St. Paul and 23rd Sts, Balt.....e 21218.

by Joe Black

"Be honest with everyone...especially yourself." That's a little saying I heard a long time ago. It's not very eloquent or clever, but I like it. It sums up in a phrase, the essence of a series of Greyhound Community Service ads entitled: BY THE WAY, by Joe Black.

The ads are placed in black newspapers. Adaptations of them are heard over black-oriented radio stations. They are written in an effort to shake people out of their complacency about subjects of great concern to the black community. In these ads, I say what I believe ...not necessarily what I think you want to hear.

So, when you hear my voice on the air, or read my words in the paper, remember that they are not merely to inform or impose my views upon you...but simply to make you think about things in a way you may not have thought about them before.

I am not a preacher or a teacher. I'm citizen Joe Black, fortunate enough to be able to talk to thousands of people and hopefully influence them to re-examine solutions to black problems in a new and constructive light. I still feel strongly that the things that unite people of good will are much more important than the things that divide them.

BY THE WAY, by Joe Black, is just one small voice asking humbly for a little more sanity, a little more honesty, and a lot more thinking through of what we are doing and the methods we are using to realistically solve the problems of our black community.

John H. Murphy, Jr. honored on his 90th

By ELIZABETH M. OLIVER

Nearly 100 relatives and friends came from far and near last Saturday to attend the 90th birthday celebration honoring John H. Murphy Jr., the AFRO's oldest living incorporator.

Mr. Murphy, namesake of the AFRO founder, company trustee and active director, reached 90 years of age on Aug. 4.

The party given Aug. first at the Morgan Park home of nephew, Howard H. Murphy, witnessed relatives present from as far away as Canada and heard congratulations and best wishes from the Caribbeans, beans.

Present on the scene and one of the hostesses was Sister Constance, daughter of the honoree's oldest brother, the late George B. Murphy Sr., Sister Constance is head of the Toronto, Canada Province of Ontaria Church Home for the Aged and member of the Episcopal Sisterhood of St. John The Divine.

Among greetings from other relatives who could not be present were those from Haiti where another niece, Mrs. Clementine Murphy Knox resides with her husband, Dr. Clinton Knox, the U.S. Ambassador.

As a token "to the man who has everything" John H. Murphy III, AFRO president, presented Mr. Murphy with a check.

A giant birthday card was signed by all guests present.

The gala affair was out of doors with guests seated at umbrella tables.

Highlighting the event which extended past dark were color movies showing the AFRO history and progress and photos of the family gatherings including weddings and funerals.

The 60-minutes feature which represented a collection made over the years by Mr. Murphy III also included the colorful AFRO 75th Anniversary celebration in 1967.

Many times during the party the honoree was moved to tears.

Summarizing his feelings, however, was his statement, "It's mighty nice of so many of your to come out to see Uncle Johnny as he reaches 90.

"I expect to have a party in 1973 and I hope all of you will come back."

Mr. Murphy often predicted in the past that he would reach 90 and now looks forward to becoming 100 years of age.

Bishop and Mrs. H. Z. Plummer, Portsmouth, Va. close friends of Mr. Murphy and his wife, Mrs. Marie Murphy, were special guests. They were accompanied by Charles D. Plummer also of Portsmouth.

In greetings which brought tears to both the minister and the honoree, Bishop Plummer recalled how his friend's life had included many joys sorrows, disappointments and despair.

However, he concluded because Mr. Murphy had weathere the trials so well, he has been granted 90 years and longer on earth.

Also present were two Murphy family brides, Mrs. John J. (Sally) Oliver and Mrs. George D. (Ruth) Gilbert.

Members of the party committee included Sister Constance, Mrs. Rebecca Young, her son, Lawrence T. Young, Chicago; Mr. and Mrs. James Murphy, Mr. and Mrs. John H. Murphy III, Elizabeth M. Oliver, Howard H. Murphy, Frances Henderson and Bettye Moss.

Designs for the tables which represented the families of the sons and daughters of the late Mr. Murphy Sr. and his wife, Mrs. Martha Elizabeth Murphy, were the residents of Sister Constance's Home for Aged in Canada.

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority host gala press luncheon

By LILLIAN WIGGINS

Zeta Phi Beta Sorority convened Monday at the Shoreham to celebrate its 50th anniversary boule. The first order of business that day was the press luncheon where grand basileus Capers G. Bradham and sorors explained how the body intended to carry out the boule theme "Meeting Human Needs through Delivery of Effective Servicing and Developing Methods of Improving the Delivery of Effective Servicing and Developing Service and finer womanhood with national programs designed to establish a world family of sisters with its full implications; provide training scholarship counseling services and grants to deserving women; implement improvements in every area of community life through the world and project the image of finer womanhood through community action and the recognition of community persons for exemplification thereof.

"Zeta Phi Beta has its objectives in fostering deals of sisterhood, scholarship, service and finer womanhood with national programs designed to establish a world family of sisters with its full implications; provide training scholarship counseling services and grants to deserving women; implement improvements in every area of community life through the world and project the image of finer womanhood through community action and the recognition of community persons for exemplification thereof.

According to the grand basileus the world contains three fourths black, brown and yellow people. "Yet many are still deprived of Human Rights and treatment," she said. "Can we come together after 50 years and not look for some change in the future of people, setting forth our contribution to this prescription for a new world?" she asked.

Today's Oldsmobile:

The year-end buy that pays off three ways.

1. You save big money when you buy it. The 4th Annual Year-End Sale is on now at your Oldsmobile dealer's—and the savings are substantial on every new Olds in his stock!

2. You save even more money as you drive it. Olds is famous for features that help keep costs down. Like Positive Valve Rotators in every V-8 for peak performance thousands of miles longer . . . rustproof inner fenders . . . aluminized exhaust system . . . bias-belted tires . . . many more!

3. You get a nice bonus at trade-in time. An Olds is a good investment—traditionally you get more of your dollars back when you're ready to trade the next time around.

If you think you can't afford an Oldsmobile ...it's time to think again.
