James W. Cobb new NBA head

James W. Cobb was elected president of the National Bar Association for the 1971 term at the NBA's 45th Annual Convention held in New York City last week.

Mr. Cobb, a practicing Washington attorney, is also a founding member and general counsel of Independence Federal Savings and Loan Association of Washington, the first and only area S. L. to have % had a black operating officer or director, and the first to concentrate over 90 per cent of its loans in Washington's inner-city.

He is a past president of the Washington Bar Association and was formerly Vice-President of the National Bar Association.

Mr. Cobb, who received his LLB from Catholic University, is also a trustee of the Legal Aid Society, associate professor of law at Howard University.

Final concert at Reisterstown

The 1970 Concerts Under The Stars series, marking an end to its 12th anniversary, will hold its final concert of the season at Reisterstown Road Plaza today (Friday) at 8:30 p.m.

The free outdoor music series has attracted more than 250,000 people since its inception in 1959. Performances have been played in Baltimore City, Baltimore, Anne Arundel, Harford and Prince George's counties. The concerts are sponsored by the Equitable Trust Company.

Conducting the 45-piece Concerts Under The Stars Orchestra will be Dr. William Sebastian Hart who has been with the series since its beginning. Gladys Callahan, soprano and Frank Whitmore, baritone, prominent area vocalists, will appear as guest soloists.

Selections from the works of E. Keler Beis, I. M. Albeniz, Emmerich Kalman, John Philip Sousa and others will be included in the program.
