choose the winners.

The winning names may be sweet, like Sugar and Spice or Peaches and Cream or Banana Split or Candy.

Or they may be names of royalty: King and Queenie, Akhnaton and Nefertiti.

Cheeta, the name of a famous movie monkey, was a popular suggestion.

Some contestants suggested names of famous people like Mr. Martin and Mrs. Coretta and Pat and Dick.

Too bad there aren't hundreds of monkeys to be called by all these interesting names.

Check next week's edition of the AFRO for the winning names.

Red Cross has pamphlet for vets

"Get what's coming to you" is a message Red Cross is sending to Baltimore area veterans in a pamphlet outlining important benefits available to veterans, time limitations on applications and where to apply for these benefits.

The project is part of a National Red Cross program to assist veterans in obtaining the benefits that they are eligible to receive. For a veteran to be reemployed in his former job, he must apply within 90 days after separation from service.

His application is made to the former employer. To qualify for unemployment compensation and assistance in finding a job, veterans must appply within one year after separation from service to the State Employment Office.

In addition to explaining other benefits, the new pamphlet, "Get What's Coming To You" explains how the Red Cross can assist veterans in filing for benefits and lists area Red Cross offices along with the addresses and telephone numbers of both Veterans Administration and Red Cross representatives located at the VA office.

STATE VISIT — The first African Head of State to be received on a State Visit to Washington under this administration is being received at the White House on arrival here Tuesday. From left, His Excellency the President of the Democratic Republic of the Congo Joseph Mobutu, President Richard M. Nixon, Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Mobutu gather on White House grounds while Secretary of State and Mrs. William Rogers look on from the rear. Mrs. Mobutu was presented with a dozen American Beauty red long stemmed roses.

name for the Congo River, was accepted amidst a round of applause and an exchange of warm affectionate hugs from these two distinguished men.

Mrs. Cheek presented Mrs. Mobutu with a bouquet of flowers but there was, to the apparent embarrassment of Mrs. Cheek, no exchange of gifts which is customary.

When approached on the subject Mrs. Cheek remarked that had she known her husband certainly would have given the President of the Congo and Mrs. Mobutu a token from the university.

Mrs. Cheek felt that, if proper, this matter should have come to their attention through the office of protocol at the State Department. A State Department official, when contacted, remarked that a formal gift was not necessary because the reception was the biggest gift that could be given.

The 36-year-old leader and his wife were welcomed on arrival by the Cheeks which included their two children, Jimmie, 8, and his sister, Janet, 5, who were both presented to the President and Mrs. Mobutu. The President kissed the two children then pulled a plastic folder of color photographs from his pocket which revealed the pictures of his children.

Dr. Cheek, who will visit the Congo as well as Kenya, Sierra Leone, and Ghana in December for the Board of College Entrance Examinations, told the President that his son Jim mie "wants to be president of the United States one day."

Following the reception line, which lasted for a little better than a half hour, the Mobutus and the Cheeks joined the guests in the recreation room. Here Dr. Mordecai W. Johnson, president-emeritus of Howard University and a few in the party talked about campus unrest.

Dr. Cheek remarked that Dr. Johnson told him of the turbulence when he was on the University. "But it was nothing to what I have and will face this fall," Cheek said.

After the arrival of Mayor and Mrs. Walter Washington the African presidential party left to return to Blair House to dress for the State Dinner.

The hectic schedule of the President of the Congo will continue as he meets with businessmen.

Meadowville, with the departure of the distinguished guests, Dr. Cheek, with his Congolese Decoration which had been pinned on him during the reception, continued to wear the gift proudly as he chatted about his recent television appearance on "Face The Nation."

We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind
The days we do not think of you

We'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of our dear sister
On this, her Birthday Morn.

In Memoriam

ADAMS — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, SIDNEY P. ADAMS, SR., who passed away August 8, 1960:

God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered; "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His everpatient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Wife — MARY and CHILDREN

BUTLER — In loving memory of our loved one, JOHN LEE BUTLER, who passed away August 7, 1968:

Somewhere above this troubled world,
Safe beyond all grief and care,
Our loved one rests in heavenly peace —
God grant some day we'll meet him there.
THE BUTLER FAMILY

COOPER — In loving memory of our mother, IDA MAE, who passed August 6, 1950:

Two dear, bright eyes, a tender smile,
A loving heart that knew no guile.
Deep trust in God that all was right,
Her joy to make some other bright.
If sick or suffering one she knew,
Some gentle act of love she'd do.
No thought of self, but of "the other."
I know He said, "Well done, dear mother."
THE FAMILY

LOVING SISTERS and BROTHERS

HALL — In loving memory of my husband, ROWAND E. HALL (BOY), who passed away August 9, 1967:

There is a memory fond and true,

KENNEDY — In memory of our loved one, JEAN KENNEDY, who passed away August 8, 1969:

We often sit and think of her when
We are all alone
For memory is the only friend that grief can call its own.
Like ivy on the withered oak, when all other vines have gone
Our love for her will still keep green, and never fade away.
THE FAMILY

LEE — In loving memory of my dear husband, BEVERLY M., who passed away August 7, 1969:

That he is dead, he is just away,
With a kidney smile, an eye
of the hand.
Hence we thought into an unknown
land,
And left us dreaming how very far;
It miss the sound of your footsteps and
Your voice, once you have gone,
and though
I no longer see you, in my Mind you still live on. So I smile in the Daytime, but some nights my heart is sore.
As I think of the dear one
God took away to be with Christ and Golden above.
He is not dead, he is just away.
His Devoted Wife
MRS. ROSA MAE LEE

SEATON — In loving memory of our brother and uncle JAMES W., who passed away August 8, 1964:

Even death has a wonderful mission,
Though it robs us of those we love;
It draws us from our surroundings
To long for the meeting above.
No matter how heavy our losses,
No matter how great our despair,
Doesn't Heaven seem nearer and brighter,
To know we have loved ones there?

WASBEY — In loving memory of our dear wife and mother, ELIZABETH WASBEY, who passed away August 8, 1968:

Today our hearts are heavy,
Our thoughts are all of her,
We miss her smile and kindness
dear;
None but God in Heaven can see.
Some day time heals an aching heart,
But, no, it isn't true.
The one long year has passed,
dear,
And our hearts still ache for you.

TALBOTT — In loving memory of our beloved mother, EDNA BEZANETH TALBOTT, who passed away August 9, 1968:

Broken is the family circle,
Our dear one has passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly darkness
Into bright and perfect day;
But we must all cease to languish
O'er the grave of her we love,
Strive to be prepared to meet her
In the better world above.
Daughter — LUCILLE T. WILLIAMS and FAMILY

TARTER — In loving memory of our dear daughter, ELAINE, who passed away August 9, 1967:

We often sit and think of you,
And of the way you died.
And that you couldn't say goodbye,
Before you closed your eyes, dear
The blow was hard, the shock severe.
We never thought your death was so near.
And only those who have lost can tell,
The pain of parting without farewell.
Devoted Mother and Father, HATTIE and JOHN BAILEY

WILHOIT — In loving memory of my wife and our mother, ALLEEN, who passed away August 7, 1966:

Do not ask us if we miss him;
Isn't a dream a vacant chair?
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And as his voice we hear.
Days of sadness fall come O'er us,
Pain in silence often flows;
Memory keeps him ever near us,
Though he left us one year ago.
MOTHER, TWIN SISTER MESDAMES and BROTHERS

WHITING — In loving memory of our daughter and our sister, WANDA, who passed away August 8, 1967:

Her pleasant way and smiling face
Are a pleasure to recall.
She had a kindly word for each
And died beloved by all.
Our days we long to meet her,
Some day, we know not when,
To clasp her hand in the better
land,
Never to part again.
