Yule cards on sale in August

A special sale of Christmas cards is being held this month at the Walters Art Gallery.

All of the 20 cards included in this annual event reproduce paintings, sculpture, illuminated manuscripts and woodcuts found in the gallery's collection.

The works represented range in date from the Twelfth to Nineteenth Century and some are being offered at a discount of as much as 40 per cent.

Thirteen of the cards have been reproduced in full color. They include "Bathing the Christ Child," from a Book of Hours executed in France about 1415, picturing the Virgin and Child in the stable with the ox and the ass, while a handmaiden prepares water for the Child's bath.

Prices range from six to twenty-five cents per card including envelopes and may be obtained, along with Christmas wrapping paper and matching enclosure cards, from the sales desk at the head of the staircase in the entrance lobby during regular open hours. They are: Monday, 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.; Tuesday through Saturday, 11 a.m. to 4 p.m., and Sunday, 2 pm. to 5 pm.

Quantities are limited and will be sold on a first come, first served basis. The sale ends August 31.

FBI Says Mustang Not Ray's

PHILADELPHIA — A white 1965 Mustang found in a garage here is believed by some to be "connected" somehow with the assassination of Dr. Martin Luther King, despite FBI statements that the car driven by convicted assassin James Earl Ray in custody.

Mercel Randolph of the Philadelphia chapter of the Southern Christian Leadership Conference believes that Ray is innocent, however and that the Mustang is one of several decoys driven away from the site in an effort to confuse police.
