About Our Town

By DARRYL BROOKS

What's on the recreation calendar for next week? Each week the Bureau of Recreation sponsors events at local parks and recreation centers which may range from active competition in sports to excursions to Ft. Smallwood or Gwynn Oak Amusement Park.

Check out the calendar of your local rec center in the AFRO and participate in the events.

Tomorrow, August 8, the fifth annual Governor's track meet is set for Annapolis.

Sponsored by the Maryland Commission on Physical Fitness it will be held at the U.S. Naval Academy's field house. Starting time is 9:30 a.m.

On Monday, August 10, the Baltimore Neighborhood Basketball League will start its play-offs in hopes of finding a champion in each of the three age groups, 15 and under, 17 and under, and unlimited.

There are a number of teams undefeated in league play and hopefully these teams, which have proven themselves throughout the season will triumph.

Would you like to attend an Oriole home game free? If you live in the Model Cities Area 'D' you may be able to do just that.

The boundaries of Area 'D' are roughly Monroe Street to the west, Mt. Royal Avenue to the east, North Avenue to the south and Fulton Avenue on the north.

In the spotlight: Sharon Glenn, a senior at Northwestern High School. Sharon is a rabid sports fan and a regular follower of baseball, football and basketball.

Her favorite players are Paul Blair of the Orioles, Gene Washington of the San Francisco 49ers and Wes Unseld of the Baltimore Bullets.

Besides attending games, Sharon also participates in sports at Northwestern.

In badminton, volley ball and ping pong she professes some skill.

This summer, Sharon is taking driver's education. After graduation next year she hopes to attend Hampton Institute in Virginia and major in home economics. She might try for an airline stewardess.

Sharon's family includes her father, David Glenn, director of the Community Relations Commission; mother, Mrs. Ruth Glenn, a teacher at School No. 67 and a younger sister, Connie.

Do you have someone you'd like to see featured in this column's spotlight?.

Send his or her name to me c/o the AFRO, P.O. Box 1857, Baltimore, Md. 21203 or call me at 669-4066 during the week.

Summer Job Committee put 804 youths to work

The Summer Youth Job Coordinating Committee has reported that 804 youth have been placed in summer jobs during the period July 24 through July 31.

This makes a total of 2,686 youth hired for summer jobs since the statistical reporting of summer placements was initiated on June 1. A total of 4,576 youth were hired for summer jobs between June 1 and August 4 of 1969.

The committee released the following breakdown for the July 24 through July 31 period.

1. Placements by age group:
   a. 16-17, 407
   b. 18-21, 108
   c. Over 21, 5
2. Placement distribution:
   a. Direct to private sector, 26
   b. NAB (National Alliance of Businessmen), 0
   c. NAB — Employer (Gate) Hires (no age breakdown available), 284
   d. Federal agencies, 493
   e. State government, 1
   f. City/county, 0

These figures do not include 5,600 youth placed to date with Neighborhood Youth Corps Summer Projects.

All figures are based on the number of youth placed in summer jobs through the Baltimore Job Bank Operation of the Maryland State Employment Service in conjunction with the Community Summer Youth Campaign.
