IUE Calls RCA Boycott

WASHINGTON — The International Union of Electrical, Radio and Machine workers called a nationwide boycott of RCA Corp. products last week after contract negotiations stalled again in the 10th week of a strike.

The union has been on strike since June 1, with federal mediators trying to break a deadlock over the chief issue — the company's offer of a 42-month contract which would expire during the Christmas season in 1973.

Week's best buys

By VIRGINIA McLUCKIE, FOOD ECONOMIST

These are the weeks when melons prove a good buy.

The selection of other summer fruits along with melons means a pleasure of our palate in their texture and taste.

Cantaloupes are probably most familiar small melon. Though they are available from June through September the heaviest month of shipments is August.

Cantaloupes when mature and ready for harvest separate from the vine with slight pressure. When the cantaloupe reaches the mature state it leaves a slightly sunken, well caloused scar at the stem end. This is a sign of a vine ripened melon. The netting of a ripe melon is well raised, coarse and gray in color. The background of the melon will be a light color. These characteristics contribute to the distinctive cantaloupe aroma, which in itself is a guide to ripeness.

• • •

Once you purchase a good aromatic cantaloupe it should be chille before serving. Wrap the melon, uncut or cut into halves or slices, in a film bag or aluminum foil to keep the aroma or odor from penetrating the milk, butter, eggs and other foods in the refrigerator. Cantaloupe is a melon rich in Vitamin C and a good source of Vitamin A.

August is also the peak month for honeydew melons.

This is a creamy yellow rind, smooth and velvety feeling melon, with a faint pleasant aroma. In contrast to cantaloupe, honeydew melons are always cut from the vine so there is no full slip sunken scar stem end.

It is difficult to tell if a honeydew is ripe. Look for blossom end white modled spots indicating the rise of the sugar content to the surface. If the melon is white and hard allow it to ripen at room temperature for as much as three or four days.

• • •

Watermelons are in good supply from the Eastern shore where a heavy volume is expected. The small round Sugar Babie, watermelons will be available until the end of the month.

Other suggested fruits include peaches, nectarines, plums, Thompson seedless grapes, blueberries, lemons and summer apples. Less emphasis is placed on the early apple varieties because of the relatively short marketing period. They also represent a small percentage of the total crop.

If you frequent roadside markets and orchards you will find a nice selection of Summer Rambo apples.

These are a fairly large green apple with pale red stripes. The shape is fairly flat. Rambos are fairly tart, and can be used for out of hand eating when ripe. They cook up to a soft mass which makes excellent applesauce and green apple pie. When cooking early apples use a tightly covered pan to avoid flavor loss. Use a small amount of water and boil gently. Use sugar in small amount to bring out, not mask the apple flavor.

• • •

Honeydew, ham and cottage cheese salad is our recipe this week.

You will need 12 slices boiled ham, 12 slices honeydew melon, 1 pound creamy cottage cheese, and fresh grapes or berries in season.

Shape boiled ham slices into rolls and arrange at each end of platter, alternating with honeydew slices. Spoon cottage cheese as desired in center. Garnish with fresh grapes or fresh berries in season.

Serve with mayonnaise and lettuce if desired for lunch or supper. 6 servings.

Bates Hi class holds re-union

The Class of '60, Wiley H. Bates High School, Annapolis, recently held its ten year class reunion with a semi-formal dinner dance for the class members and their guests at the Charles P. Crane Ballroom of the Friendship International Hotel.

The program centered around the black man's plight in a struggle for equality. The theme was "An Epitome of Progressive Blackness." Master of Ceremonies, Preston T. Hebron Jr., elaborated on the events of the past decade which have inspired the current trend of Black awareness.

Invocation was by James Carter and the welcome by Mr. George Redd, the president of the class. Guest speaker for the evening was Sen. Clarence M. Mitchell, III, who was rewardingly introduced by the class secretary, Mrs. Vonzetta Pinkney Stokes. Senator Mitchell spoke on the black man in politics, and how we as a people should strive for stronger black representation in our government.

Neighbor was raised in Pa.

By CHARLOTTE W. MASON and MARIE SMALLWOOD

Our good neighbor of the week is Miss Anna Roberta Gibson. She is a native of Baltimore (East Side), raised in Phila., Penna.; attended West Phila High School and belongs to Sharp Street United Methodist Church.

Additional schools attended to further her education were: (CEP-MDTA-Clerk-Typist Program-(Concentrated Employment Program-Manpower Development Training Association) and Special Impact-Concentrated Employment Program on the job training with the Police Department as "Police Clerk."

Members of her family are son, John H. Gibson, 4th, who goes to Polytechnic High School; brother, John; sisters Lily, Martha, and Mary. Her hobbies are dancing, sewing, colors, blue, green and brown. Favorite foods are steak and seafoods. Favorite songs are "Peace In The Valley" and "Free At Last."

Miss Gibson has worked in the community with children and adults in various capacities. Some of the organizations she belongs to are Woman's Club, Model Cities Area "A", etc.

Present employment is with the Eastern Terrace Community Council Inc. Model Cities Area "B" as secretary.

The 4th Annual Fashion Show and Luncheon is being sponsored by the Adliner B. Crawley Memorial Young Adult Choir at the Statler Hilton Hotel, Sept. 20 located 101 W. Fayette Street.

Choir members are: Mary Fields, Brenda Young, Harvey Jutice, Marline Shelton, Ella Diggs, Fannie Moore, Madleyn Stokes, Benny Jones, Buddy Jones, Steve Davis, Zenovia Barner, Denise Barner, Verdena Jones, Geroginе Crawley, Brenda Epps, Joyce Gambel, and Gary Jones.

The fashion show and luncheon have been very successful each year. The money is for the beneft of St. Paul Baptist Church which has recently moved to its new location, Alameda and 31st Street. The church burned down several years ago. The pastor, Rev. George A. Crawley, is well liked by everyone. All out congratulations to our choir instructor Miss Mary Fields, who has really helped us in every compacity. Miss Fields belongs to other organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. William Smallwood celebrated their 24th anniversary, Aug. 10. Other birthdays are Patricia Gaye, Aug. 8; Mary Carter, Aug. 8; Emma McKnight, Aug. 6.

Come go with the Flower Circle of Mt. Pleasant Baptist Church to Lancaster, Pa., Aug. 29, 8 a.m.; tickets $11. To purchase tickets call Mrs. Arzalo Gilmore (president) at 945-6668. Deadline for tickets is Aug. 20. Bus will leave from 1801 E. Preston St.; from Lancaster, Pa., bus will leave at 5:30 p.m.

The Harford Avenue CAA Center is presently involved in tough recreation and travel.

Trips have been scheduled for Druid Hill Park (pre-schoolers) on Aug. 12, Sandy Point Beach (10 a.m.) on Aug. 14, Chesapeake Beach and Amusement Park (10 a.m.) on Aug. 21, and Marshall Hall Amusement Park (10 a.m.) on Aug. 26.

The above trips will involve individuals of the community up to 21 years of age. In order to participate just sign up at the CAA Center, 1131 Harford Ave. approximately 2 days prior to the scheduled trips.

The center is also soliciting adult residents of the community for a food-buying club. This, we feel, will enable residents to purchase items such as milk, sugar, cereal, etc. at a wholesale rate, thus cutting out the middle man. After purchasing items by cases we can distribute them equally among the residents involved.

What's needed for an effective food-buying club is participants. We're asking residents to unite for effective food buying.
