Where Baltimore Lives-New AFRO Feature

THE NEIGHBORHOOD TEAM — In picture one, Mrs. Nancy Moye takes time out of her busy schedule to be an advisor to the AFRO Clean Block workers. Next, Olive Wilson, 18, Clean Block Captain and Jeanette Gardner, 16, Clean Block Co-Captain proudly display their AFRO Clean Block flag. In picture three, Charles Pryor does what he can to help keep the block clean. Here, he is shown trimming the hedges. Next, Tony Wakles make sure that the street is spotless. He takes pride in his block and in keeping it on the Honor Roll. Photos by Frank W. Phillips, 3rd.

The AFRO visited two streets this week and met the reiddents. Besides being small streets, the two blocks are also participants in the AFRO Clean Block Campaign.

There are 31 brick and form stone row houses in the 1900 block of Etting St. located between the 500 block Robert and Prestman Sts. Some have little porches but the majority have three step white fronts.

Up and down the street, plastic potted flowers accent the multi-colored lawn chairs in frnt of the doors.

Living at 1903 are Mr. and Mrs. Margin Lewis (Cherry). They have been residents of the block for 15 years. "Our neighbors are just fine," said Mrs. Lewis.

Mr. Lewis is employed by Social Security. Mrs. Lewis has been working for the Department of Education for 10 years.

They are 15-years members of Ames Memorial Methodist Church.

Next door to the Lewises are Mrs. and Mrs. Jessie Bagly and their six children including a set of twins. They have been on Etting St. for eight years. The twins are 14-year-old Earldine and Geraldine. Geraldine is the captain of her street's clean block campaign. Both girls attend Booker T. WashingtonJunior High School.

As captain of the block, Geraldine finds her hardest job is keeping the litter out of the alleys and the yarss.

This is her first time as captain and she gets a lot of help from the neighbors.

The other Lewis children are, Eva, 12, Boker T. Washington Junior High; Sharon, 6, School No. 11; Kieth, 8 and Willie 11, School No. 11 and Jessie Jr., 16, Douglas.

Mr. Bagly works for Koontz Dairy, while Mrs. Bagly keeps house and sees after the children.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Holmes (Gertrude) have been living on the block (1902) for 23 years.

They have three sons: Albert Jr., 22, Morgan State College; Gregory, 20, Coppin State College and Leonard, ...¾ Douglass High School. For the summer, Leonard is working with the Upward Bound Program.

Most of Mrs. Holmes time is taken up in housekeeping and pot gardening. However, she still finds time to collect whatnauts and od a little sewing.

She is very enthusiastic about sewing. With the high prices and little fabric that a customer receives these days, Mrs. Holmes finds it cheaper and more convdnient for her to make her own clothes. Besides, she gets more variety and a chance to use her imagination.

Has her Etting St. neighborhood changed during the years?

Mrs. Holmes said, "It is pretty much the same. There hasn't been too much change over the years."

She and other neighbors try to acquint newcomers with the Clean Block campaign in the block. On a whole, she finds the neighbors to be cooperative.

"I work with Clean Block because I'm home in the summer. If I see trash in front of someone else's door, I well pick it up," she said.

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes have been attending the Payne A.M.E. Church since they moved in the neighborhood. Mrs. Holmes sings on the Senior Choir.

She is employed by the Garrision and Forrest School and Mrs. Holmes has been working for Sparrows Point as a clerk for almost 20 years.

Up the street at 1906 is Mrs. Emma Little. She has five children and one married. Norma, 22, is now Mrs. Speaks.

Samuel, 20, attends Morgan State College. Nigel, 14, attends Booker T. Washington Junior High and during the summer he is an N.Y.C. worker; Randy, 13, attends Booker T. Washington and Larry, 12, attends school No. 122.

The family has been attending the Penn. Ave. A.M.E. Zion Church for eight years.

Mrs. Little enjoys cooking. She has no special recipe but just enjoys preparing meals.

There is one family that has been in the block 1907 for 26 years. They have seen neighbors come and go. They are Mr. and Mrs. Willie E. McKnight (Leavonia) and their four children.

Lovett just returned from Vietnam recently. The other three children are Poinsetta, Ronald and Haiwatha.

Mr. McKnight has been with the Western Maryland Railway for 22 years. The family attends the Metropolitan Baptist Church.

Mrs. MiKnight was happy to share her experience with the AFRO in 1967. She received a public service award from the president of the company.

Nineteen-eleven (1911) is the residence of Mrs. Thelma Brown and her four children, Dennis, Curtis, Ronnie and Lonnie. They have been in the block for 4 years.

There is a scouting family on the block also. They are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Gough (Ardeen) and their 13-year-old son Daniel. Daniel attends Booker T. Washington Junior High.

They have been at 1910 for 9 years, and are members of the Ames United Church.

Mr. Gough has been in scouting for 22 years, Mrs. Gough has participated for 8 years and Danny has been a scout for 5 years. They are affiliated with troop 521.

Mr. Gough has been with the U.S. Public Health Bureau for 21 years.

Located between the 2700 block of Baker and Presbury Sts. is the 1600 block of Braddish Ave.

There are 16 row homes with white porches and beautifully decoreated grass beds in the front yard.

In each grass bed, there is a pot of assorted colored plastic flowers in a tire ring of green and white. Some have wire fences around them and others are enclosed by hedges.

Captain of the block is 18-year-old Olive Wilson. She is a student at Douglass High School and this is her first time as captain. Olive and her family live at 1636 Braddish.

As captain, Olive found the job to be hard at first but with the help of the neighborhood children and her advisor she finds it to be interesting.

Her hardest task is getting up early in the morning to start the day's clean up campaing.

To beat the heat in the summer time, Olive watches TV, sits under the fan and drinks sodas.

She enjoys dancing and roller skating and wants to be a secretary when she finishes school.

Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Sam L. Wilson (Olina). Mr. Wilson has been employed by the Journeymen Factory for 25 years. Mrs. Wilson works at Social Secrity in Woodlawn.

She has four sisters: Mrs. Linda Thortaon, Ernestine, 20, Diane, 15 and Yvonne, 9 and one brother, Sam Jr., 19.

Jeanette Gardner, 16, a student at Carver High school si co-captain of the block. She lives at 1628.

She finds it nice living in her block. Around two or three years ago, Jeanette was captain of AFRO Clean Block for her street.

To beat the heat, Jeanette stays in doors under her air conditioner. She

81 police enrollees score on summer jobs

The Baltimore City Police Department has expressed much satisfaction with the 81 NYC enrollees whom they hired for summer work.

Major Lon Rowlett, head to the department's personnel division, told the AFRO: "We are very pleased with their performance. They began working here on August 5 and department heads wherever they have been assigned have expressed satisfaction with their work."

The program, which is in its second year, utilizes all city agencies for employment of NYC enrollees. In the Police Department the enrollees are assigned to the Central Headquarters and all of the area district stations.

Major Rowlett said the department could really have handled 125 workers "but I guess they were only able to send us 81."

Most of the youngsters are assigned to clerical duty but Del Edwards, Public Relations Director for NYC, said "altogether we have 1700 enrollees working throughout the city and many of them are in other areas."

Of the many agencies in which the NYC people are working, the Police Department has the largest number and, as Major Rowlett describes their duties, none are very taxing.

"They don't work any at night," he said, "they work a 28 hour week, receive $1.45 per hour and have all weekends off."

The Division head pointed out that "their hours are regulated by the supervisor of their respective departments but most of them are pretty uniform."

In addition to working in the district stations the enrollees are assigned to Tactical, Public Information, Traffic, Research and Analysis, Communications, Community Relations, Property, Central Records, Personnel, Fiscal Affairs and Criminal Investigation.

The program is financed by the Community Action Agency through NYC and will continue through Aug.

POLICE WORKERS — These pictures show three of some 81 junior high and high school students who have found employment with the Baltimore City Police Department during the summer thanks to the Neighborhood Youth Corps. Pictured here (l to r) are Miss Geraldine Curtis, Edmondson High, Miss Curtis works in Central Records Division at Central Police Station. She is assigned to the Identification Department. Second Panel shows Miss Denise Bannerman clipping news stories with Mrs. Carolyn B. Maser, secretary in the Public Information Division. Miss Bannerman is a student at Carver Vocational High School. Third panel shows Dunbar student, Miss Joanne Daniels searching ID Files in the Central Records Division.
