DEWAR'S PROFILES

(Pronounced Do-ers "White Label")

RICHARD HUNT

HOME: Chicago, Illinois
AGE: 38
PROFESSION: Sculptor
HOBBIES: Horticulture, listening to classical music.
LAST BOOK READ: Samson Agonistes
LAST ACCOMPLISHMENT: Voted one of the ten outstanding men in Chicago.
QUOTE: "I'm political in the sense that I have strong ideas about the important contributions art can make to society."
PROFILE: He quietly gives metal life, filling spaces with a strength, movement, and force worth preserving.
SCOTCH: Dewar's "White Label"

Authentic. There are more than a thousand ways to blend whiskies in Scotland, but less are authentic enough for Dewar's "White Label." The quality standards we set drawn in 1846 have never varied. Into each drop goes only the finest whiskies from the Highlands, the Lowlands, the Hebrides. Dewar's never varies.

Tydings to tour black city areas Saturday

Continuing his campaign for reelection, Sen. Joseph D. Tydings has scheduled a walking tour Saturday of black communities in Northwest and East Baltimore.

The senator is to begin at 10 a.m. at Mondawmin Shopping Center, where he will be hosted about by Jim Parker, former Colts football star, and Charles Tildon Jr., co-chairman of the Tydings Baltimore campaign.

Sen. Tydings, no stranger to the black community, will then proceed about 10:45 to the 1800 block Pennsylvania Ave., do - to the 1400 block and back to Lafayette Market until 11:45.

At 12 noon, he is to meet Robert L. Dalton, a black candidate for State Senate in the 2nd District, at the firehouse at Orleans and Gay Sts.

They will then proceed to walk northeast on the Gay St. shopping area to Aisquith St.

Sen. Tydings is then scheduled to close the tour somewhere in the vicinity 1:1:30 p.m. at the black owned Jet Food Market, Patterson Ave. and Chase St.

Electric Power Shortage Seen

WASHINGTON — Chairman John N. Nassikas of the Federal Power Commission says some areas of the nation may face shortages of electrical power this winter because of inadequate generating capacity and avortages of fuel at some power plants.

Nassikas said one of the long range answers to the nation's power problems might be the liberalization of antitrust laws to allow power companies to grow bigger.

He proposed a critical look at antitrust laws to see if they are blocking the development of utilities capable of meeting "an energy crisis." He said utilities "have got to be bigger" if they are going to meet the demand for electrical power.

Anti-Dope March scheduled for August 22nd

Another March Against Dope will be held Saturday, August 22. Marchers will rally at Unity Methodist Church, Stricker St. and Edmondson Ave., at 12 noon.

The march will begin shortly after.

Concerned citizens and off-duty policemen are invited to join the march. Destination will be disclosed at the time of the rally.

The march is a continuation of the Western District Police-Community Council's declared war on dope.

Harvey Johnsons end 36 years marriage

Harvey Lee Johnson, 500 block Baker St., a Bethlehem Steel worker 10 years was granted a divorce this week from his wife of 36 years, Mrs. Rosalee Owens Johnson, 1800 block Madison Ave.

Judge James K. Cullen signed the decree on Aug. 18.

Testimony in Circuit Court revealed that the Johnsons were married Christmas Day in 1934 in a Baptist ceremony in Halifax, Va.

The husband testified he and his wife, a private nurse, were separated July 17, 1949 while residing at the Madison Ave. address.

He stated, "I left. We were always arguing and fighting. We have never lived under the same roof since."

Creative Arts Workshop accepting applications

Applications are now being accepted for 1970-71 school season by the Creative Arts Workshop, Inc., as the fall season opens at the Roland Park Country School, 817 West University Parkway, on Oct. 3.

Executive Director, Deborah London states that this season and experienced group from the workshop will perform at local private schools and colleges.

The workshop will also sponsor a professional dance company comprised of Creative Arts Workshop graduates who are now appearing in a professional capacity. This company will use. several teen-age current workshop students.

Mrs. DeEtte Wilkinson Tomka and Miss Betsy Harry former graduates of the Roland Park Country School and Creative Arts Workshop will rejoin the Dance and Drama departments this fall.

Mime, advanced drama, creative drama, creative writing — dance, modern comtemporary, jazz, ethnic, and ballet will be included in the curriculum. Students will produce their own programs, sew costumes, direct, write, and develop at their own age levels all aspects of the theatre.

The workshop is a non-profit organization founded for the purpose of giving each member a chance to explore and participate in the creative and performing arts at his own level with complete freedom of expression under the supervision of teachers trained both academically and professionally.

For information, call Tuxedo 9-5757.

American Airlines announces full fare, ¾ fare, ⅔ fare, ½ fare, no fare.

If you're taking the family on vacation, American Airlines can save you a bundle. With our special low family fares.*

Here's how they work if you're going to California, for example: Dad pays full fare—$308.00 (round trip). Mom pays ¾ fare—$231.00. Children between 12 and 21 pay ⅔ fare—$205.35. Children between 2 and 12 pay ½ fare—$154.00. And, of course, a child under 2 goes for free.

What's more, you can fly any day of the week except between 1 P.M. and midnight on Friday. And 1 P.M. and midnight on Sunday.

Now, if the only thing that's holding you back is cash, cheer up. American accepts all major credit cards, including bank credit cards. Such as Master Charge and BankAmericard. Plus we have our own credit card.

Another bonus is our free Treasure Chest Booklet. It's packed with discount coupons worth up to $100.

One last point: If you're traveling alone, we have a special money saving fare for you, too. Just call your Travel Agent. He can help you get the most for your money.

So if you thought the cost of flying was getting sky high, think again.

American has brought it down to earth.

It's good to know you're on American Airlines.

*Family fares applicable in continental U.S. and Canada. All fares include federal taxes.

Birthday Tribute

BATES — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our loving son and brother, on his birthday August 22, who passed away August 22.

So many years ago there came a boy
Bringing to us our overflow of joy!
Cradled and taught to walk, with tender care,
Growing to manhood, strong to do his share.
Then came the summons. . .ah, how cruel the blow
How could he leave us, who had loved him so?
Father, who seest us; hear our prayer;
As we watched here, O God, please watch him there.

Mother, MRS. MARGARET BATES
Sisters: BARBARA and GLORIA
Aunt, MARGARET MYERS

In Memoriam

ALLMOND — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, LAWRENCE JAMES, who departed this life one year ago August 22, 1969:

I have lost my soul's companion
A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.

Devoted Wife, QUENCIS
We had seen you to the last
And held your dying hand,
And heard the last sigh from your heart
We would not feel so bad.
We did not know the pain you had,
We did not see you die,
We only know you went far away
And never said goodbye.

Devoted Daughters, Sisters, Brothers, ROBETTA WHITE—SISTER NESTINE, MAYO BERNARD and WILLIAM REEZ and FAMILY.

DORSEY — In loving memory of my dear husband, PAUL G., who passed away August 22, 1966:

I have lost my soul's companion
A life linked with my own.
And day by day I miss you, PAUL,
As I walk thru life alone.

Devoted Wife, BESSYE L. DORSEY

FRANKLIN — In memory of our mother and sister, BEATRICE F. FRANKLIN, who passed away August 22, 1966:

Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.

Children — EVELYN and THOMAS FRANKLIN
Sister, MARGARET L. JONES

GAMBRILL. — In loving memory of my beloved husband and our brother, EDWARD, "who departed this life August 22, 1966:

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, and shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died,
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us you did your best
On, God, grant you eternal rest.

Loving Wife — MILDRED and FAMILY

HOLLIDAY — In memory of our mother, CLARA HOLLIDAY, who passed away August 22, 1950:

Though now we walk thru life alone.
The path we once together trod,
We walk with eager hopes and joys
For each leads nearer you and God.

Daughters: EMMA and MILDRED

GRANDDAUGHTER and GREATGRANDCHILDREN
Devoted SON-IN-LAW

JEFFERSON — In loving memory of our dear son and brother, CPL. ROLAND IRA JEFFERSON, who passed away August 24, 1967:

There sad lonely years have passed
Since our great sorrow fell;
The shock that we received that day
We still remember well.
How his life was shed we know not;
What his last word, look or thought
Only that he did his duty —
Died as he bravely fought.

JEFFERSON-FAMILY

SEABORNE — In loving memory of our dear mother, SALLIE SEABORNE, who passed away August 23, 1950:

Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
One year has passed since that sad day,
When the one we loved was called away;
God took her home, it was His will,
Within our hearts she rests still.

YOUR CHILDREN
