11 children in host roles as Mr. and Mrs. Foster celebrate

Their 11 children lent their time, talent and planning to the gala reception that marked the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Jefferson Foster, Saturday.

The anniversary celebration was held in the Faith Baptist Church Educational Center, with five prominent clergymen participating in the program.

They included the Rev. Frank J. Bell and Timothy Gillison of Faith Baptist Church, the Rev. Reginald J. Daniels of Madison Avenue Presbyterian Church, the Rev. William Brown of Mount Sinai Baptist Church and the Rev. Montague Brackett of Central Baptist Church.

Mrs. Florence Kidd presided, and the tribute to half a century of successful marriage was given by Raymond Puryear.

Each generation of the family paid a tribute. Mrs. Foster's mother, Charles Evans, represented the parents' generation. Mrs. Jean McNeill, a daughter spoke for her sisters and brothers. Miss Patricia McBride, one of Mr. and Mrs. Foster's 19 grandchildren, represented that generation. Mrs. Dennis Foster, daughter-in-law, spoke for the in-laws; Mrs. Hattie Clemens for the neighbors; and Mrs. Lucille Hawkins for the Golden Age Club of which Mrs. Foster is a member.

Mrs. Foster gave the response.

Attesting to the esteem in which the couple is held, friends from across the city vied to add to the beauty of the occasion. Mr. Beckett of St. Francis Flower Shop decorated the center. The DeShields Caterers provided the lavish buffet. Mrs. Alease Hurte and Mrs. Mary Bishop, soloists, provided music. Mrs. Rose Davis fashioned the honoree's coiffure. A hundred and fifty guests attended.

The Foster children who hosted were:

Mrs. Evelyn Mejia of Newark, N.J., a registered nurse; Mrs. Dorothy Bennett of this city, a vice principal of a city school; James Foster of Hoboken, N.J., contractor, Mrs. Bettie Petitew, East Orange, nurses aide; Frank Foster of Newark; Robert Foster, this city, long shoreman;

Also Mrs. Delores Bell of Hoboken, a factory supervisor; Mrs. Mozella Johnson, this city, registered nurse; Samuel Foster, who is in the Air Force and Mrs. Jean McNeill, a secretary in the Child Health Clinic.

In addition to the 19 grandchildren, Mr. and Mrs. Foster have two great grandsons.

Said the charming honoree, this week, making a marriage work for 50 years takes some doing and much give and take. The main responsibility is the woman's job, she says.

That she loves clothes, another admission, was shown in the steel gray silk dress she wore for the party. Her corsage was a gold orchid.

She says that she taught herself to sew, and adds "I can do pretty well, too." Her masterpiece, she says was a wedding gown which required 40 yards of material, and the veil, which was worn by two of her daughters. Her other hobbies are church, housekeeping, visiting and travel. Her husband who has retired after 44 years at Bethlehem Steel, likes bowling and pinochle.

S. Viet Kill U.S. Troops

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (UPI)—Sen. Alan Cranston, D-Calif., said "a shocking, little-known fact" is that half the American troops killed in Vietnam were killed by South Vietnamese civilian peasants. Speaking to a state democratic convention, Cranston, said "over half of the American boys who have died in Vietnam were not killed by front line Viet Cong or North Vietnam troops. "They were killed by South Vietnamese peasants—men, women and child ren—who planted mines and booby traps."

WASHINGTON — A new modern English translation of the Bible, on which Roman Catholic scholars labored for 25 years, has finally been completed and will be published next month.

It's called "The New American Bible." Produced under official church sponsorship, it will replace the used by English-speaking Douay-Rheims-Challoner used by English-speaking Catholics since 1750.

DIVORCE GRANTED

Mother, daughter trap, son-in-law and other woman

Mrs. Herbert R. Sampson, a clerk typist, was granted a divorce this week from her husband, a grinder, on grounds of adultery. Judge Basil Thomas signed the decree on Aug. 24.

The Sampsons were married on Nov. 7, 1945 and separated on Nov. 13, 19 9, according to the wife's testimony before Circuit Court examiner master H. Paul Rome on July 24.

Mrs. Sampson informed the court that she had been a faithful, kind and affectionate wife but could not condone nor forgive her husband's infidelity on Nov. 23, 1969.

Referring to the incident Mrs. Sampson told the court that she was at work that morning when her mother called her and told her she had seen Mr. Sampson go into the 1100 block Gilmor St. house with another woman about 11:30 a.m.

Mrs. Sampson testified she rushed home and discovered her husband had returned to the house although he had left their abode and separated from her some days prior.

She stated that she discovered the other woman had gone up to her third floor and was putting on her clothes.

She said her second floor godroom "was a mess" with the TV on and an earring in the room.

Mrs. Sampson said she wanted her maiden name restored.

master examiner was Mrs. Maggie Walker, 1103 N. Gilmor St.; Mrs. Sampson's mother, who said when she and her daughter entered the house they noted the woman had run up to the third floor and Mr. Sampson was in the kitchen with only trousers on.

Mrs. Walker also testified that her son-in-law "acted mad" and the police (who had been summoned earlier by Mrs. Sampson) had to tell him to "quiet down".

The mother said she felt her daughter and her husband could not become reconciled.

Tydings seeks youths for Coast Guard Academy

Senator Joseph D. Tydings has announced that the U.S. Coast Guard Academy is now accepting applications for appointment to the Class of 1975.

The young men selected will enter the Coast Guard Academy during the summer of 1971.

"I urge all qualified young men to enter this nationwide competition for appointment," Sen. Tydings said, "because it not only provides an excellent college education but results in a commission as an ensign in the Coast Guard."

Applications for appointment must be submitted prior to Dec. 15, 1970, and arrangements to participate in the prescribed CEEB tests should be made through the high school guidance counselor.

Bowie State College at Bowie, Maryland will find it necessary to rent an apartment building because the anticipated construction of a new dormitory for September will be delayed.

Bowie will have a record enrollment of 700 students plus. Recruiting programs for the area around Bowie, which is mostly white seems to be paying off, according to campus sources.
