MRS. DEWEY RANDALL was, before her marriage, last week, Miss Elaine Hardin. The wedding took place in Soldiers Memorial AME Zion Church, Salisbury, N.C.

Miss Hardin bride of Dewey Randall

SALISBURY, N.C. — Miss Elaine Ogradus Hardin became the bride of Dewey Linn Randall, Jr., Saturday evening, in Soldiers Memorial AME Zion Church, here.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Herman L. Anderson. Miss Phyllis Partee provided the program of wedding music.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hardin. Both she and Mr. Randall are graduates of Price High School here with bachelor of arts degrees in elementary education from Livingstone College.

She is on the faculty of the Stonewall Jackson Elementary School in Danville, Va., and he will teach mathematics and science at the O. T. Bonner Junior High School in Danville, beginning in September. He is the son of Mrs. Willie Mae Randall and the late Mr. Randall, Sr.

Miss Hardin was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of silk organza over taffeta fashioned with a detachable chapel train.

The molded bodice was overlaid with Venice lace which encircled the high neckline. The empire waist and long Camelot sleeves were trimmed with lace and satin ribbon. She carried a lace-covered Bible marked with pink and white sweetheart roses and centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Charles Hardin, sister-in-law of the bride, and her sister, Miss Mary Hardin, were honor attendants. Both wore mint green dresses of organza over satin peau, with empire waistlines marked with emerald green velvet ribbon. Their headpieces were hats of green daisies.

Bridesmaids were Mesdames Larry Blackwell, James Steelman and Clement Wells; and Misses Neter Harshaw of Morganton and Jean Logan of Danville.

Their gowns were of pink satin peau with bodices draped with pink O'Callaga lace. Their hats were of pink daisies and they carried pink roses.

James Pemberton was best man. Charles Hardin and Monroe Kelsey were head ushers. Other ushers were John Gilmore, Willie Wellington, Philip Wilkins, all of this city; and Sherman Saunders of Danville.

Jacqueline Hardin, niece of the bride, and Beth Pemberton, niece of the bridegroom, were flower girls. The bride's nephew, Gregory Hardin, was ring gearer.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin entertained at a reception at their home following the ceremony.

The couple had been honorees at several pre-nuptial courtesies.

On Thursday evening the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. James L. Stowe were hosts at a patio party.

The hosts presented gifts of silver to the couple.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Pete Hardin, Mrs. Dewey Randall, Sr., Mrs. Mary Jackson, grandmother of the bride; Mrs. Mary Currence, great aunt of the bride; Mrs. Wilma Walker of Charlotte, N.C.

Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Pratt Belton and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Miller, uncles and aunts of the bride, were hosts at an after-rehearsal dinner in the dining hall of the Educational Building of the church. During the evening, the bride and bridegroom exchanged wedding gifts and presented gifts to their attendants.

S.C. Third In Infants Deaths

COLUMBIA, S.C. — One out of every 40 children born in South Carolina this year will die before reaching his first birthday, the State Hospital Association reported last week.

In the summer issue of its research publication "Health Care Headlines," the association said the state's infant mortality rate is the third highest in the nation. Regional comparisons indicate there is a high correlation between the infant mortality rate and per capita income and educational attainment.
