Miss Epps married to Wendell T. Brown

MR. AND MRS. WENDELL T. BROWN

HAMPTON, Va. — In a candlelight ceremony held in Trinity Episcopal church here, Miss Linda Ann Epps, daughter of Mrs. Lillian E. Epps, became the bride of Wendell Thomas Brown Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Wendell T. Browne Sr. of Norfolk.

The Rev. J. B. Henderson of Norfolk officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Horace Williams, played the church organ over pews of silk gown styled with full length cathedral train, peau de soie with a Queen Anne mandarin collar and short sleeves.

Her cathedral length veil of silk illusion was floor length ranged with a cupid cap of lace encrusted with seed pearls. She carried a cascade of white orchids, white carnations, mums, peonies and white orchid.

Mrs. Sherrin Robinson was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Joseph Scott of Charlottesville, and Miss Clayton Brown, sister of the groom, of Philadelphia, Pa., who, like the bridesmaids, wore identical gowns of peach matelasse. They carried nosegays of peach and orchid mums edged with purple calcedes.

Wendell T. Browne Sr. served his son's best man. Ushers were Mark Williams, Charles Brown, Paul Hamilton and George Epps, all of Norfolk, Marvin Gray of New York and Clayton Brown, brother-in-law of the groom of Philadelphia.

Mrs. Howard Lovett, god-mother of the bride, served as mistress of ceremonies.

The reception was held at the Beau Brummel Club following the ceremony.

The newlyweds left to make their home in Kingston, N.Y.

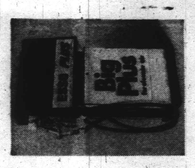
It's here: lowest-lead, highest-octane gasoline for the money.



We took most of the lead out, to help clean up the air.

We left half a cc of lead in, because engine tests show some lead is needed to prevent possible valve damage.

We doubled the amount of engine-cleaning detergent, to cut exhaust emissions even more.

We kept octane high, so 9 out of 10 drivers can use it without worrying about engine knock.

And we kept the price below most major premiums, leaded or unleaded.

We call it Big Plus. It's the lowest-lead, highest-octane gasoline for the money.

Ask for it where you see the Esso sign.

And help your car run clean.

Mike Douglas on WJZ-TV

Television personality Mike Douglas, actor Henry Fonda and syndicated columnist Art Buchwald are the featured guests on "The Best of David Frost," to be telecast on WJZ-TV, Channel 13, this Sunday at 7 p.m.

Emmy award-winner David Frost talks with Mike Douglas, who hosts his own syndicated talk-variety program for Group W Productions, about his newly-published cookbook. Mike sings "At Long Last Love" and "Try A Little Tenderness."

Recalling his many and varied stage and screen roles, Mr. Fonda says he is proudest of his work in the film, "12 Angry Men," and comments on how his hit Broadway play, "Mr. Roberts," was changed by Hollywood.

* * *

Mr. Buchwald, whose favorite targets are politicians, discusses the reactions he has received over the years from his subjects and explains why he feels the world is "mad."

The Group W (Westinghouse Broadcasting Company) special also features singer Al Jarreau in this 60-minute color version of Mr. Frost's daily 90-minute program, originally seen in November, 1969.
