Reception honors Miss Gale Parker

GALE PARKER

Mr. and Mrs. Walter B. Parker entertained at a debutante reception for their daughter, Miss Gale Yvette Parker, on the lawn of their Fernhill Avenue home, Sunday afternoon.

Miss Parker, who made her debut at the recent cotillion of the Baltimore Chapter of Girl Friends, is a student at Towson State College. She is a member of the Black Students Union and the Women's Glee Club of the college.

Music was by members of the Martin West Express band.

Assisting hostesses were Miss Angela Maxwell, Miss Veronela Baker, Miss Oglatha Pinkney and Miss Bertha Spriggs.

Guests were introduced to the receiving line by Mrs. Hyrathac Spriggs. In the line with Miss Parker and her parents were her godparents, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Maxwell, her brother, Dwight Parker and her aunt, Mrs. Elmer Jones.

Miss Parker wore the white gown in which she made her debut, and carried a spray of white and yellow carnations.

Out-of-town guests at the reception were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Bar of Philadelphia, Mrs. Dorothy York of Philadelphia, Mr. and Mrs. David Brown of New York, Charles Lang of New York City and Miss Annie Cong of Washington.

Local guests were:

Messrs. and Mesdames Mark Magee, Gerald Kess, William H. Shaw, Arthur Roane, Marvin P. Leneau, Chauncey B. Manson, 3rd., Marshall J. McCree, Samuel T. Green, Randolph Ford, Clinton Coleman, Jr., Warren E. Boyd, Jr. Burt Cooper.

Messrs and Mesdames Burton Stinette, Fred Sampson, Jack Simbler, Ronald Harlee, Harold Wallace, Arnold Howard and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. William Austin;

Mesdames Lurena Sabb, Beesie Mack, Frances Gaines, Juanita Grier, Charlene Ravenell, Elaine Ravenell, Thelma Falcon, Geretha Turner, Minie A. Green, Annie B. Morton, Yvonne Turner, Mary Commons, Helen Lee, Gail Bundy, Linda Taliaferro, Mary McGee,

Mesdames Geneva Stinette, Barbara Maxwell, Ruth Sampson, Audrey Robinson, Brenda Amis, Regina Amis, Annette Sabb, Gwendolyn Sabb, Mary Heggie, Deborah Bundy;

Miss Carmen Maxwell, Carla S. Maxwell, Yolanda Stinette and Patrice Ravenell.

HONORED BY ELKS — Mrs. Mattie J. Hawkins, Washington nurse and cosmetologist, was recently honored by the Flash Club, Department of the Grand Temple of the Elks, at which she is grand directress. Prominent in many of their activities, Mrs. Hawkins has written the Daughter Elks column in the Washington AFRO-AMERICAN for several years. (Cabell Photo.)

'Y' program set for Fall

The YWCA of the Greater Baltimore Area is opening the Fall season with programs of classes for all ages in creative arts, physical fitness, swimming, home arts and performing arts. Activities also include teenage clubs, senior citizen clubs and after school and Saturday programs for children. Registrations are now being taken.

All sixteen branches of the Baltimore County Police Library will be closed next Monday, Labor Day, September 7. The branches and offices will reopen on Tuesday, September 8, on the regular winter schedule of hours.

The study of astrology will be offered at the North Area YWCA, 21 W. Susquehanna Avenue, Towson. Taught by Etta Kohn, the well known teacher of yoga at the YWCA, the course will be a new addition to Fall classes.

Welcome Team Asks Vote For Its Central Committee

"Vote for the Welcome Central Committee" is the appeal being pushed by the followers of Senator Verda Welcome, as they also push for the reelection of the senator and her entire ticket.

"Most people don't seem to know how important the Central Committee in every legislative district is," declares Senator Welcome, as she pressed for the election of her candidates to the Central Committee. Her candidates are:

Mrs. Christina J. Anderson, local business woman and chairman of the Maryland Board of Cosmetology; Mrs. Elsie Bumbry, public health nurse and coordinator of the Model Cities Program; William Council, engineer in the Baltimore public schools, assistant director of the Royal Gents Boys Club, and millitary director of Junior Citizens Corps of Washington; Dr. Emerson E. Julian, noted physician and member of the City Council, and Henry C. Welcome, well known physician.

When asked "What is the State Central Committee, one of the candidates for the committee, Mrs. Bumbry listed the following:

1. The State Central Committee is the ruling body of the Democratic Party. Under boss control this committee meets in a secret, smoke-filled room, away from public eyes. Our committee will hold open meetings.

2. The committee represents the Democratic Party in a district between meetings and conventions.

3. It is responsible for filling vacancies of elected officials that occur through death or resignation.

4. The committee elects delegates to the Democratic National Convention, at which time the President of the U.S. is nominated.

5. The State Central Committee has the responsibility to check on elected officials and see that they are living up to the campaign promises.

All the candidates know why they are running and they also ask for support and for the support of Senator Welcome and her whole ticket.

Other lawyers appointed to the Bar Association of Baltimore City's new committee include William Agee, Paul Alpert, Mrs. Elsbeth Levy Boothe, Frank Cannizzaro Jr., Joseph I. Huesman and E. Thomas Maxwell.

1970 marks the 90th anniversary year of the Association. In addition to Messrs. Robertson and Russell, other officers include M. Peter Moser, 1st vice president; Z. Townsend Parks Jr., treasurer; and William W. Cahill Jr., secretary.

Gwen Burke is executive director. Offices are maintained in Suite 821, Court House, Baltimore.

2 suspects held 15 pt.

Police Commissioner David D. Pomerleau has announced that the Check Unit of the Special Investigation Section, Criminal Investigation Division, with the assistance of postal inspectors, arrested two subjects for tendering eight Fellowship Grant checks belonging to staff doctors of the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Seventeen of these checks, which had been forwarded from the Johns Hopkins University to the hospital mail room, were stolen by a hospital employee.

In company with another employee, eight of the checks were cashed at local banks for a total value of $2,099.26; nine checks were recovered at the time of the arrests. The checks ranged in value from $200 to $400.

On August 26, at the hearing before Judge Solomon Baylor, in the Southeastern Municipal Court, a preliminary hearing was waived and the defendants were released on their own recognizance after the case was ordered held for action of the Grand Jury.

U.S. sues Fla. realtor, landlord for housing bias

WASHINGTON — The Department of Justice last week filed two fair-housing suits charging an apartment locator service and an apartment building owner in Florida with discrimination.

Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell said the suits were filed in United States District Court in Miami against Carole and Wayne Goldenstein, owners of Carole's Compatibles in Fort Lauderdale, and against Abraham Goldberg, owner of two apartment buildings in Hollywood.

One suit charged the Goldensteins with following a policy and practice of racial discrimination by not advising black clients of apartment vacancies in substantially all-white areas and by not advising white clients of vacancies in predominantly all-black areas.

These practices, the suit said, makes dwellings unavailable on account of race and promote and perpetuate racial segregation in housing, in violation of the Fair Housing Act of 1968.

The other suit said Goldberg owns the Isle of Venice and Lisa Ann Apartments, containing a total of 74 rental units, none of which has ever been rented to blacks.

The suit charged that Goldberg has refused to make apartments available on account of race, has made radially discriminatory statements, and has attempted to coerce, threaten and interfere with a black man who attempted to rent an apartment.

Both suits asked for court orders enjoining the defendants from discrimination in housing and from failing or refusing to take affirmative steps to correct the effects of past discriminatory policies.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Justice Department Monday asked courts for interim o. stop New Hampshire and North Carolina from enforcing literacy tests for the Nov. 3 election.

Earlier in August the government asked the courts to require the two states to comply with the 1970 Voting Rights Act which, in addition to giving the vote to 18-year-olds beginning next year, suspends for five years literacy and related tests in North Carolina, New Hampshire and 12 other states.

Grand-Dad to have his Day

NEW YORK — Grand-Dad's Day, which will be observed on Sunday, Sept. 13, for the eighth consecutive year, will be bigger than ever in 1970.

That is the report from the Grand-Dad's Day Council, Inc., a non-profit organization dedicated to the promotion of respect and appreciation for Grand-Dads.

Each year, an increasing number of activities mark the day. Foremost among them are the Grand-Dad's Golf Tournaments, held by more than 2,500 golf clubs, with more than 80,000 Grand-Dads participating.

The general rule of the tournaments is that all entry fees are donated to a local or national charity. As a result, the tournaments have become significant fund-raisers for charitable causes.

Each year, a "Grand-Dad of the Year" is elected by the Grand-Dad's Day Council.
