Ministers endorsed candidates

The Interdenominational Ministerial Alliance announced Tuesday the names of the candidates it will support for public office in the September 15th primary election.

According to an Alliance spokesman, the churchmen have endorsed the following candidates: Joseph Tydings for U.S. Senate; Parren Mitchell for Congress (7th Dist.); Paul Sarbanes for Congress (4th Dist.); Milton B. Allen for States Attorney; Paul Chester for Clerk of the Court; William Murphy for Municipal Court Judge; John Harden Judge; Harry Cole for Supreme Bench; and Bertram Dorsey for Sheriff.

Final endorsements were made by the Alliance after an all day Political Workshop held last Thursday in which all interested candidates were given the opportunity to express their views on current issues in an open forum before the group.

These endorsements represent in the opinion of the Alliance the best qualified of the candidates based on grove for Municipal Court their past performance and the present needs of the community," the spokesman stated.

An Alliance spokesman told the AFRO that the reason members did not endorse additional candidates was that the effort to do so would have split the ministers.

"The ministers come from all over town, and most of the candidates, regardless of their connections as politicians have membership at one or the other of the churches," the spokesman said.

"We therefore decided to endorse only those persons who were running for city-wide offices and about whom we could all agree."

All those endorsed are seeking offices which are larger than legislative districts.

COMPENSATION to the tune of a check for $1800 is what State Sen. Verda F. Welcome is giving to Alan Johnson, who spent five months in jail recently as the result of a mistake. The Senator introduced and saw through the legislature a bill which made the payment possible for the young man.

Sen. Welcome carries on work during campaign

As the close of the primary campaign for the election of State Senators and other officers of government approaches, State Senator Verda F. Welcome this week continued campaign activities as well as others she pursued as a working senator.

She paused long enough to hand to Alan Johnson, 26, 1000 block Pennsylvania Ave., a check in the amount of $1800 which was granted by the state legislature as compensation for sinking the young man in jail 170 days beyond the time he should have been held.

Mr. Johnson was convicted as a curfew violator shortly after the April, 1968 riots and was sentenced to 60 days in jail and $50 fine. He did not pay the fine, and therefore would have been required to spend 90 days in jail in all.

While he was at the Baltimore City Jail, two other men with the same name charged with traffic violations, larceny and violation of probation were admitted to the jail.

Through administrative mistake, Mr. Johnson's identity was confused with the other men's, and he was accordingly held while

Residential Center tries new approach

By BRENDA WRIGHT

"Instead of putting a man in handcuffs we give him a helping hand."

Earl Maulsby, as director of the Druid Hill Residential Center, was telling the AFRO about the 10-month-old prisoner rehabilitation program which was established to aid prisoners after their release from prison.

The center, also known as the Druid Hill Key Club, is for the most part, controlled and operated by a private organization, most of whose members are ex-prisoners.

Mr. Maulsby explained that the center is a "model program" and said, "we see our role as trying to find an alternative to the prison system as it is."

MRS. IDA MURPHY SMITH

AFRO ad rep. takes two press prizes

Mrs. Ida M. Smith, Advertising Representative and Board Member of the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN, was recently awarded two plaques for first and second place in a newspaper advertising contest sponsored by the Maryland-Delaware D.C. Press Association.

Mrs. Smith is the first place in the Community Service Program division for the best advertising idea related to community service. The winning entry submitted by Mrs. Smith was a full-page ad saluting the Delta Sigma Theta Sorority, The Shriners, and Zeta Phi Beta Sorority, three community service oriented organizations.

Her second place award was for the best advertising idea. The winning entry in this category was a salute to black businessmen during Negro History Week.

A special section of the AFRO was devoted to ads by black owned businesses during that week. Mrs. Smith will receive her plagues at a special awards luncheon tomorrow (Saturday) at the Association's Summer Conference in Ocean City, Md.

Mrs. Murphy is the first black woman to be awarded an advertising award by the Maryland-Delaware-D.C. Press Association. A graduate of the University of Wisconsin School of Journalism, she has been associated with the AFRO-AMERICAN Company for 32 years.

Before coming to the Balsche had been advertising manager for the Washing-Manager for the Washington AFRO for five years. She was awarded a plague in 1969 by the National Business and Professional Women's Association for "Outstanding Woman of the Year."

JOHN CLARK KIDNAP BACK IN NEWS

Local Panther's trial opens in Calif. protest ignored here

John Clark, a Baltimore Black Panther Party official was scheduled for trial on a minor robbery charge in Los Angeles, Calif. yesterday (Thursday).

The charges local Panthers alleged were "cooked up" precipitated an unusual incident here on July 30.

Clark, charged in Baltimore with possessing a deadly weapon, was spirited away from the Court House after his trial was postponed.

Filing many protests in Criminal Court and before States Attorney Howard Cardin, his attorney, Nelson R. Kandel, claimed that he had been abducted and taken out of the state by a person known as "James Valdez," an agent acting for a California bonding company for "jumping bail."

He asked that Clark be returned at once to Baltimore or that all Baltimore charges be dropped since he had been taken from the state and could not thus stand trial in his absence.

* * *

As a Grand Jury probe was initiated (but has never been concluded) Mr. Kandel told the court that Valdez forcefully took the Panther member from the Court House and was "aided and abetted by members of the Baltimore Police Department, namely Sgt. Robert Clark, Sgt. Arden Livingston, Detective Frank Tricka, Officer Roger Leonard, Detective John Hess and Lt. Snedburg."

The lawyer asked that Clark be returned to testify.

Records filed as late as California, had conferred August also states, "James Valdez, the bondsman from" California, had conferred with members of the Baltimore Police Department's Fugitive Equad concerning his intention to forcefully remove Clark from this jurisdiction and said policemen aquiesced in the said plan."

The latest plea the lawyer made asserts that the police officers involved in the plot could be subject to fines or imprisonment. The document on file addressed to State Attorney Cardin remains unanswered.

The record states, "These same policemen knew of the pending charges against the defendant in this jurisdiction however they allowed his removal, either by way of failure to stop said bondsman or by helping the bondsman in this venture.

"The police knew the defendant would not be present in Maryland to defend himself on the local charge.

"The police by not acting helped the extradition of the defendant without due process and in violation of Maryland law.

"The police ignored the law and are in fact guilty of a misdemeanor which carries a penolty of a $1,000 fine or six months imprisonment."

Parren Mitchell 'outraged' by opponent's Mahoney bid

Parren Mitchell today expressed "outrage" at Carl Friedler's promise to support George P. Mahoney if Mahoney wins the primary for U.S. Senate over incumbent Joseph D. Tydings.

"The blatant racism of the 1966 Mahoney campaign for governor revolted the people of Maryland," Mitchell said.

"We have no reason to hope that Mahoney today is any different from the Wallace-style demagogue we repudiated in 1966.

"No man who honestly understood the needs and feelings of the black community could ever support George Mahoney for any office."

Mitchell further charged that Friedler, his opponent in the Seventh District Congressional race, was "willing to give aid and comfort to the worst elements of the party for a few votes."

* * *

The former CAA director made it clear that he would have nothing to do with Mahoney, whose "home is your castle" slogan, in the 1966 Gubernatorial race produced an unprecedented outpouring of black citizens to the polls, causing his defeat.

"If, by some misfortune, George Mahoney wins the primary, I will completely divorce my campaign from his and will actively work for his defeat. George Mahoney cannot be permitted to represent the people of Maryland in the U.S. Senate.

"I call on all candidates who have not sunk to Carl Friedler's depths of opportunism to make the same pledge."

* * *

Friedler made known his willingness to support Mahoney in answer to a question on WBAL-TV Sunday evening.

On the same program, he refused to commit himself to supporting Mr. Mitchell should the Morgan State College professor win the primary.

Unfaithful wife divorced by firefighter

Lewis Williams, 3705 Woodhaven Ave., a city firefighter, was granted a divorce this week from his wife, a resident of Mt. Vernon, N.Y., on grounds of adultery. Judge Robert B. Watts signed the decree on Sept. 8.

The Williamses were married March 13, 1964 in Baltimore in a religious ceremony and separated on Nov. 4, 1968 while residing at the Woodhaven Ave. address.

On Aug. 7 when Mr. Williams testified before Circuit Court Examiner Master Thomas J. Kenney he stated that it was not until Feb. 17, this year that he located his wife in the New York town.

He stated when he arrived at his wife's house she told him to leave before her paramour came home. He told the court she was holding an infant child in her arms.

Mr. Williams testified that he left Mt. Vernon and has not seen Mrs. Williams since

Also testifying was Bobby Williams, 2421 Arunah Ave, the husband's brother, who told the court that he recalled when Mrs. Williams left.

He statel that he did not believe the couple could become reconciled.

'Perry Mason' show returns to TV 11

The tense, emotion-charged courtroom drama of "Perry Mason" returns to WBAL-TV weekdays at 4:30-5:30 p. m. begining Monday, September 14.

The series, starring multiple Emmy Award-winning actor Raymond Burr in the title role, features outstanding dramatic teleplays which led to the award of numerous industry citations for acting, directing and production.

Other series regulars are Barbara Hale, Mason's secretary Della Street; William Hopper, investigator Paul Drake; Ray Collins, police Lt. Tragg, and William Talman, District Attorney Hamilton Burger.

In Monday's season opener, Perry tackles "The Case of the Empty Tin," a story involving several would-be heiresses.

Tuesday finds Mason defending an unidentified, amnesia-struck teenaged suspect in "The Case of the Desperate Daughter."

On Wednesday, "The Case of the Dangerous Dowager" leads Mason to defend a client suspected of committing murder in order to avoid paying a large gambling debt.

"The Case of the Singular Double," Thursday's suspense-filled drama, features a peculiar twist of fate involving Mason's client.

Closing out the week is "The Case of the Loquacious Liar," a story involving a minister struggle for control of a boat-building firm.

Plumbing, too requires care

You have your car checked and lubricated regularly.

Your house gets a fresh coat of paint every couple the same careful treatment to assure years of service and enjoyment.

Your plumbing hould receive the same type of "preventive maintenance," the Middle Atlantic Plumbing and Heating Council points out. Here are some steps you can take to keep your plumbing functioning smoothly:

Fix leaky faucets immediately to prevent poisible stains on fixtures, save water and avoid the damage to your nervous system that comes from that drip, drip, drip!

When repairing a faucet, pad the wrench to prevent marring the bras finish.

Have your heating plant checked annually. Summer is the best time because it's shut down and heating contractors are more readily available.

Have all valves tagged so you know where to shut off the water if an emergency comes up.

Don't throw trash into your water closet.

Don't pour grease into your kitchen sink drain. Pour boiling water down the drain every day.

The plumbing in your home represents 10 percent of its value. Proper care will assure you many years of service and convenience.

Shamed by Your English?

"Many intelligent men and women are held back in their jobs and social lives because they use poor English or can't speak and write effectively," says Don Bolander, director of Career Institute.

"Adults who realize that their English is holding them back use our new home method to stop making embarrassing mistakes to improve their writing, to increase their vocabularies, to speed up their reading, to acquire the techniques of fluent conversation. But the use of effective English pays off in unexpected ways," says Bolander, "because language is a tool of thought.

"You use words whenever you think...The more you learn about words and how to use them to form and express your ideas, the better your thinking becomes. The improvement of your English — including your thinking—can lead to amazing personal achievements."

For interested readers of this newspaper, Bolander has made available a free 32-page booklet that tells how you can gain a command of good English, quickly and enjoyably at home. Just send your name, address and zip code on a postcard or letter to Don Bolander, Career Institute, Dept., 400-88, Mundelein, Illinois 60060. The booklet will be mailed promptly with no obligation.

DEMOCRATIC LADIES GUILD ENDORSES C. M.

Dear Fellow Citizens:

As by now you realize September 15th is Primary Election Day. Don't be mislead, the Primary Election is the most important, for here and only here is where you select your candidate.

The Democratic Ladies Guild is proud to announce that our President, Mrs. Catherine "Kitty" Mueller, is a candidate for the House of Delegates and State Central Committee from the Fifth Legislative District.

For the past 20 years, Catherine Mueller has actively participated in nearly every phase of political and community work.

Director and founder of the Summer Day Camp for underprivileged children; President and one of the founders of the Democratic Ladies Guild, a statewide organization.

Through Mrs. Mueller's direction a total of ten college scholarships have been awarded to needy young women from Baltimore's inner city.

For seven years Catherine Mueller taught in Baltimore City public schools.

The overwhelming success of the 1970 Spring Drive of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association was due to the dynamic Project Director, Catherine Mueller, in which nearly 20,000 persons were given chest x-rays.

This is just to cite a few of the activities in which she is involved.

Catherine Mueller has done her community work unofficially, now, we are seeking you to vote for her so she may continue officially.

The Fifth District is in dire need of this calibre of representation. Catherine Mueller needs your Help!!!

In 1968 the first time in history the courageous Catherine Mueller alone exposed and attacked the Grand Jury for its discriminatory practice in selecting panel members. i.e. (only three (3) blacks) resigned.

By her determined efforts, she was threatened with a jail sentence plus fine—and ordered to return. However, this did not intimidate her, Catherine Mueller continued her fight refused to return. Results are, we now have eight (8) black members on the 1970 panel.

Vote twice on September 15th.
