Alan King spoofs 'Lib' in Music Hall debut

Comedy prevails when Alan King hosts the season premiere of "Kraft Music Hall" entitled "Alan King Looks at Women's Rights and Wrongs" Wednesday in NBC color.

The comedy hour's theme centers around the movement for equality for women. King's guests are Totie Fields, Eva Gabor, Paul Lynde and Anne Meara.

In an opening monologue, King zeroes in on the "women's equality" theme, noting that he is fully in favor of women getting "all that they have coming to them."

His wife and mother, who have figured prominently in the Alan King brand of comedy for years, again come in for special attention as the host examines the "women's rights" controversy.

• • •

Later, King and his four guests are featured in a series of sketches. In one of these, King and Totie Fields are an aging couple hassling over who should make the decisions at home.

King and Miss Meara appear in another sketch as a couple whose marriage is threatened when he takes the advice of another couple (Paul Lynde and Miss Gabor) and tries to treat his wife "as an equal."

The new season's "Kraft Music Hall," produced by Gary Smith and Dwight Hemion and directed by Hemion, again will be presenting top show business personalities as hosts with leading entertainers as grests.

Joan Kennedy to appear with Phila. Orchestra

PHILADELPHIA — Mrs. Edward (Joan) Kennedy, wife of Massachusetts Senator Ted Kennedy, will make her concert debut as pianist with members of the Philadelphia Orchestra on Tuesday, Oct. 13 at the Academy of Music in Philadelphia.

Operatic tenor Jan Peerce, in his only appearance in Philadelphia this season, will also perform in the concert sponsored by the Arts Committee for ShappbKline.

• • •

Mrs. Kennedy, who has studied and played the piano since childhood, is scheduled to perform, among other works, Debussy's "Arabesques" and the second movement of Mozart's Piano Concerto No. 21, which was the music used in the motion picture, "Elvira Madigan."

Although she has previously played before the public, Mrs. Kennedy's performance at the Academy will be her first with a full symphony orchestra. This will consist of members of the Philadelphia Orchestra and 16 Concerto Soloists, Pennsylvania's only resident Chamber Orchestra. William Smith, Philadelphia Orchestra assistant conductor, will direct.

He was All-Pro in 1962 and played in six NFL Pro Bowl games. He was also rated a top pass blocker.
