MCRC Orders Nurse Re-Hired

DETROIT —The University of Michigan Medical Center in Ann Arbor was formally ordered by the Michigan Civil Rights Commission to offer employment to a black nurse the MCRC found had been a victim of racial discrimination while formerly employed at the facility.

The MCRC order directs the University of Michigan to offer Mrs. LaVerne Hill her former position as assistant operating room supervisor or a comparable position, and give her back wages.

A registered nurse at the medical center from 1953 until she submitted her resignation in April 1965, Mrs. Hill testified that because of her race, she was not given the opportunity to apply for a vacancy, which would have been a promotion, giving her responsibility over the activities of the operating room.

At the time she submitted her resignation, she had been an assistant supervisor in the operating room, in charge of training technicians.

Plainclothesmen on Planes

WASHINGTON — Starting last week armed plainclothes guards began riding some U.S. domestic and overseas airline flights as part of a broad federal plan to halt hijackings, President Nixon announced Friday.

"We can — and we will — deal effectively with piracy in the skies today," the President said in disclosing the steps the United States plans to take in the wake of the command-eering of three airliners by Arab guerrillas.

To pay for the guards and the other precautions, Nixon will ask Congress, probably early next week, for what an aide called "slight" increases in federal taxes on both domestic and international air fares.

Airline industry sources have estimated that as many as 4,000 guards, two to a plane, would be needed.

2 Charged In Murder At Sea

VIRGINIA BEACH, Va. — Two men charged with murdering a Norfolk couple whose chained bodies were found floating last weekend in the Chesapeake Bay were ordered Friday to stand trial for murder Sept. 21.

Judge P. B. White ordered Fayette Tillman, 39, and Robert Lee Woody, 32, to be held under $25,000 bond each pending the trial in municipal Court here.

Tillman and Woody are charged with the murder of Samuel W. Jones, 49, last weekend. Both the suspects and the slain couple were from Norfolk.

The Joneses were last seen alive Friday when they boarded their 30-foot Trimaran sailboat with two men believed to be prospective buyers. Their bodies were found early Saturday, chained to an anchor, in the Chesapeake Bay and their unoccupied boat was found floating near an island of the Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel.

Carswell Rides On Kirk's Future

TALLAHASSEE, Fla — Former Federal Judge G. Harrold Carswell's judicial career may not be over after all, but his fate is riding with Gov. Claude Kirk's political prospects.

A source close to Kirk said Thursday Carswell has been promised any state appointive vacancy that might develop during the administration of the current governor.

But one catch is that Kirk faces a runoff and a general election before he gets another term in office and the other is that there apparently is no justice contemplating resignation. Carswell was rejected by the U.S. Senate in his bid for the U.S. Supreme Court and then won renomination in Tuesday's primary for the U.S. Senate.

Birthday Tribute

DOWDY — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our dear mother, FANNIE DOWDY on her birthday September 19, who passed away January 16, 1970:
Dear mother, on your birthday
What words can we impart
That would tell the true devotion
We have within our hearts
No words can tell love's message,
But this we know is true;
There's no one like a mother,
Nor other quite like you.
— Your Daughter, GRACE MINNIER BROTHERS and HUSBAND

TRAVERS — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear beloved friend, ROBERTA, on her birthday September 17, who passed away May 10, 1967:
Loving memories never die,
As years roll on and days go by,
And in my heart a memory is kept
Of the wonderful friend I'll always love and will never forget.
By Her Loving Friend, RAYMOND BEVANS JR.

In Memoriam

DAY — In loving memory of my dear brother, RAYMOND M. DAY, who passed away September 19, 1969:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered, "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Sister, DOROTHY DOORSEY

LEACH — In loving memory of our dear aunt, ALVERTA E. LEACH, who passed away September 19, 1966:
There is a sad, but sweet remembrance
There is a memory fond and true,
There is a token of affection, dear aunt,
And a heartache still for you.
Loving, NIECES and NEPHEWS

JACKSON — In loving memory of my husband, DAVID JACKSON, who passed away September 19, 1952:
I do not forget you, nor do I intend
I think of you often and will to the end.
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to my memory you ever will be.
Wife MRS. SARTORIO JACKSON

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my dear aunt and sister-in-law, BERTHA FISHER JOHNSON, who passed away September 20, 1969 at the age of 100:
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind
Beautiful memories she left behind.
Niece GRACE M. HAYWORTH
Sister-in-Law MRS. WILLIE FISH

JOHNSON — In loving memory of my dear wife, INEZ B. JOHNSON, who passed away September 19, 1966:

My lips cannot tell how I miss her,
My heart cannot tell what to say;
God alone knows how I miss her
In a home that is lonesome today.
Husband — EARL E. JOHNSON

JOHNSON — In memory of my dear sister, INEZ JOHNSON, who passed suddenly, four years ago, September 19, 1966:
Should you go first and I remain to walk the road alone
I'll live in memories sard dear
With happy days we've known.
I'll hear your voice, I'll see your smile, tho' blinds I may grope
The memory of your helping hand will busy me on with hope.
Should you go first and I remain, one thing I'll have you do:
Walk slowly down that long, long path for soon I'll follow you.
I want to know each step you take,
So I may take the same.
For someday down that lonely road,
You'll hear me call your name.
Lovingly — LILLIAN M. SMITH, Sister

JONES — In loving memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM H. JONES, who passed away September 20, 1966:
I'll remember you dear, while there's life in my heart,
And the God in his wisdom has torn us apart;
In your home up in Heaven you must know that I'm true
To the love and esteem that was only for you.
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end,
I will meet you in Heaven, my own dearest friend;
My friend and my sweetheart, my one, dearest love,
God keep you and guard you in Heaven above.
Wife ESTELLE JONES

JONES — In loving memory of my dear husband and our loved one, WILLIE JONES, who passed away September 19, 1969:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
WIFE and FAMILY

MOODY — In loving memory of our dear daughter, ARITHA D. MOODY, who passed away September 14, 1964:
No stain was on her little heart,
Sin had not entered there;
And innocence slept sweetly on
That pale white brow so fair;
She was too pure for this cold earth,
Too beautiful to stay,
And so God's holy angel bore
Our darling one away.
MR. and MRS. MAZILE MOODY

ROBINSON — In loving memory of my dear husband and father, WILLIAM ROBINSON, who passed away September 19, 1966:

Two sad lonely years have passed
Since you left us dear William
The shock that we received that day
Time will remember well.
Not a day, dear father,
Not an hour this we could do now
Would we be so glad we knew
What he left behind, work, or
Duties he did his share
Dear as the heavenly angels
Father we miss your care.

RUCKER — In sad memory of my dear daughter, CONNIE JA NICKSON, who passed away September 18, 1967:
Never a smile so sunny
Not brought such joy and cheer
Never a touch so gentle
Gave a heart so true
Just a thought of sweet remembrance
Just a memory sad and true.
Just the love and devotion of those who think of you.
Loving — MOTHER, SISTER, BROTHERS and FAMILY

SMITH — In loving memory of our dear sister, ULA SMITH who passed away September 19, 1969:
A broken circle, a vacant chair;
We seem to miss you everywhere
But in our lonely hours of thinking
Thoughts of you are ever near.
BARBARA SILER
JOHN COLEMAN

SPINNER — In loving memory of my dear mother and grandmother, PAULINE VIRGINIA SPINNER, who passed away September 19, 1958:
How much you are missed,
You'll never know
But God, He loved you best
So now you're heavy mother
As by God's side you rest.
Daughter JOSEPHINE and GRANDCHILDREN

SPINNER — In loving memory of our dear mother and grandmother, PAULINE SPINNER, who passed away September 19, 1958:

No one know how much we miss you,
No one knows the bitter pains
We have suffered, since we lost you
Life has never been the same.
In our hearts your memory lingers,
Sweetly, tender, fond and true;
There is not a day, dear mother,
That we do not think of you.
DAUGHTER and GRANDDAUGHTER

SUTTON — In memory of our dear sister and aunt EMMA SUTTON, who passed away one year ago September 20, 1969:
Gone but not forgotten
We keep you in our loving memory,
Sleep on dear sister until we meet again.
Your Sisters Mrs. Macie Madden Zola Dorsey and Virginia Morris

TRIPP — In loving memory of my dear husband, JEREMIAH TRIP who passed away September 16, 1967:
It broke my heart to lose you,
But you did not go alone,
Part of me went with you
The morning God took you home.
God gave me courage to face it all
And strength to bear the blow,
But what it meant for me to lose you,
No one will ever know.
Devoted Wife — GWENDOLYN TRIP

TUCKER — In loving memory of my dear husband and our loved one, ROSCOE R. TUCKER, who passed away September 19, 1966:

We do not forget you, nor do we intend
We think of you often, and will to the end;
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
Loving Wife, GLADYS and BROTHERS
