Schools use TV stations for teaching

Baltimore City Public Schools' Radio and Television Department reports it produced 462 educational programs using the facilities of Baltimore's three commercial VHF television stations during the 1969-70 school year.

The fitures were reported in the Department's annual report and revealed that 344 or 75 per cent of the programs were produced at Baltimore's WBAL-TV using the station's studios and staff of directors, engineers and production personnel.

The programs were designed for in-school viewing by Baltimore City elementary, junior high and senior high school students and featured a wide range of topics from science to playground activities. They were also used by private, public and parochial schools throughout the State of Maryland, Southern Pennsylvania, The District of Columbia and portions of Delaware and Virginia.

Included among this group were such continuing programs as "Where is Art", "Spotlight on Speech," "Ideas in Art," "Science Everywhere," "Reading Music" and "Your Wonderful World," televised in WBAL-TV's weekday 1-1:30 p.m. "School Shows" time slot.

WBAL-TV also co-produced a number of special program series aimed at specific topics relevant to young children in elementary schools. In all cases, the presentation and material content of the programs were tailored to meet the cognizance level of elementary school children. (Agnew in 34 pt.

In Memoriam

BOND — In loving memory of my dear husband, HARRY B. BOND, who passed away September 28, 1968:
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss him more
As I walk through life alone.
Loving Wife,
DICKERSON — In loving memory of our dear mother, ALBERTA B., who passed away September 28, 1969:
We feel so sad when those we love
Those we love
Are called to live in "THE ABOVE."
But they have but gone to prepare the way,
And we'll meet them again some happy day.
For God has told us that nothing can sever,
A life He created to live on forever
So let God's promise soften our sorrow,
And give us new strength for a brighter tomorrow.
SON, DAUGHTER, GRANDCHILDREN.
DUNSTON — In loving memory of our daughter, DEBORAH GRAY DUNSTON, who passed away September 26, 1968:
We have only your memory, dear daughter,
To remember our whole life through;
But the sweetness will linger forever
As we treasure the image of you.
Loving Parents,
SPENCER and ALBERTA GRAY
DUNSTON — In loving memory of my dearly loved wife, DEBORAH GRAY DUNSTON, who passed away September 26, 1968:
I have lost my soul's companion,
A life linked with my own!
And day by day I miss her more,
As I walk through life alone.
Loving Husband,
JOHNNIE
DUNSTON — In loving memory of our sister, DEBORAH, who died, September 26, 1968:
Peaceful be thy rest, dear sister,
It is sweet to breathe thy name;
In life we loved you dearly,
In death we do the same.
Loving Sister, and Brother,
BERTIE, SPENCER JR., ARTHUR and MICHAEL GRAY
GLASCOE — In loving memory of my dear husband and our father, MILTON F. GLASCOE, who passed away September 26, 1966:
You fought the pain so lovely,
Your head, you did not bend.
I kept my watch with you, dear husband,
You, alone to the end.
I watched and waited long in vain,
God—great—some—to—be—blessed
Devoted Wife,
CARRIE
God and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all;
A bitter grief, a shock severe,
It was to part with one so dear.
We often sit and think of you,
And speak of how you died.
We think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
Oh, God, grant your eternal rest.
Loving Children,
CARRIE, CLARENCE, MILTON and LORNA G. BRICE.
GREEN — In loving memory of my husband and our father, CHARLES H. GREEN, who passed away September 26, 1966:
"Gone but not forgotten."
WIFE and CHILDREN
GREEN — In loving memory of my husband, father and grandfather, HYMAN L. GREEN SR., who passed away September 26, 1968:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary house, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His worn-out heart, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife, SADIE MILLER
GROSS — In loving memory of our dear son, and loved one, CHARLES GROSS, who passed away September 26, 1958:
Broken is the family circle,
Our dear son has passed away;
Passed from earth and earthly darkness
Into bright and perfect day.
But we must all cease to languish
Over the flower of hope we love,
Strive to be prepared to meet him in the better world above.
MOMMIE and DADDY
MRS. AUDRY GROSS and MR. CLARENCE GROSS
