"The scientific breakthrough in religion"

Like math, can religion be logical? And based on laws?

Christian Science says yes. Religion can and should be logical and true. It should be scientific as well as comforting . . . provable as well as inspiring . . . and practiced as an effectual help in every aspect of life.

If you would like to learn about a religion that can be experienced in everyday life, come and hear a lecture called "The Scientific Breakthrough in Religion" by Otto Bertschi, C.S.B. Mr. Bertschi speaks from many years' experience in the public practice of Christian Science. He is a member of The Christian Science Board of Lecturership. Admission is free.

You're cordially invited to bring family and friends.

Birthday Tribute

JOHNSON — A Birthday Tribute in memory of my dear husband and our brother, HERMAN W., on his birthday November 22, who passed away April 20, 1969:
We do not need a special day
To bring you to our mind.
The days we do not think of you
Are very hard to find.
If all this world were ours to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more,
To see the face of our dear one,
On this his Birthday Morn.
Loving Wife, RUTH
Sisters, MYRTLE and DOROTHY
Brothers, BENJAMIN and DANIEL

JOHNSON — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear daughter and sister, MARY on her birthday November 22, who passed away June 21, 1968:
You were so very good, dear MARY
Until the day you died,
God must have loved you dearly
When He took you from our side.
For above in the silent Heaven
There is a soul pure, we know.
If we could only hear you speaking
As we did a short while ago.
Mother, LOUISE TAYLOR and Sister, IRENE BENJAMAN

LAWRENCE — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of our father and grandfather, CLEVELAND, on his birthday November 20, who passed away December 12, 1969:
If I could have my fondest wish,
The most wonderful in the world
I would wrap it up in loving words
And send it on its way.
And when your birthday morn dawn's
We'll whisper soft and low;
"Please, God, let us have my loved one
Back, because we miss him too."
Loving Daughter — EMMA L. ALLEN and GRANDCHILDREN

BARBER — In loving memory of our dear husband, HARVEY F. BARBER SR., who passed away November 16, 1969:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his living eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.

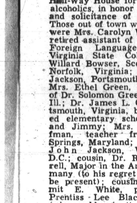
JOHNSON — In memory of my husband, REV. ROLAND JOHNSON, who passed away November 21, 1969:



One year has passed and still it seems like only yesterday,
When God called you home to rest and took your soul away.
My heart still aches, the pain I feel, no one will ever know.
I count each day of loneliness with love that grows and grows.
But I thank God, for your peaceful rest, with the rising of the sun.
I believe you are with God today, your bright crown you have won.
You worked so hard, you did your best, you did the Master's will.
One long year today, you've gone, and how I miss you still.
I know someday I'll meet you,
For Jesus is my guide,
We'll tour the streets of Heaven,
Walking side by side.
Your Loving WIFE

JOHNSON — In loving memory of our dear father, and brother, REV. ROLAND JOHNSON, who passed away November 21, 1969:
You passed away one year ago,
You left us all so stunned.
You worked so hard, so serving,
Your battle you have won.
But in our hearts we still mourn,
Your loss we can't erase;
You meant so very much to us,
No one can take your place.
We think of you so brave, so strong,
And so encouraging too.
To get us all to come home to God,
And start our lives anew.
Your leadership and life you lived—
Stand out amongst the best:
A Pastor, Father, and Brother
Till God called you home to rest.
The family who shared your love,
From beginning to end;
Will carry always in our hearts
A break that cannot mend.

Sincere and true in heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
