Black Catholics study their church

The National Conference of Black Lay Catholics at its first meeting in the early fall expressed great concern over the role of the black Catholic in the Church in the United States today.

"We feel," the Convention said, "that the only way black people will obtain a redress of the white problem is by obtaining the power of their own parishes. Because of this very basic premise, the following resolutions are designed to provide the means of assuming such control."

The Convention called for the establishment of a National Office of Black Catholics and that "non-christian principles incident within the church must be recognized, changed and immediately implemented."

The leaders said that bishops of the church must recognize that many blacks will leave the church unless there is institutional change.

"The question of whether we can be black, Christian and Catholic is such an important issue that many blacks are leaving the church because they cannot reconcile the differences. Therefore we resolve that we are black first and then Catholic.

"We insist upon parish community autonomy and self-determination with the belief that the body founded on this philosophy will be the basic black power structure in the black community.

"We, the Black Catholics of this nation, analyzing the organizational structure of institutions of the church, and recognizing that those institutions do not now, nor ever have allowed for the active and meaningful participation of black people, demand:

(1). Four regional black bishops; that the black Catholics of each region elect this black bishop; that the American Hierarchy consecrate this elected bishop; that this bishop possess his own legitimate diocese.

(2). We endorse the establishment of black lay pastorates.

(3). That all policy decisions on the parish level be made by an elected lay representation which should make special provisions to incorporate youth.

(4). That we demand the cooperation and respect of the American Catholic hierarchy in the development of a liturgy reflective of our Afro-American heritage.

(5). That black youth organizations be recognized as a necessary element in all decision-making policies relating to the youth in affairs of the church and that such organizations be appropriately funded.

(6). That youth programs be developed at the church parish and natiogal level which will enhance black awareness, develop black leadership and support evolving black unions in high schools, colleges, and universities.

The National Convention supports the existence of Catholic schools for black children provided the following demands are implemented:

(a): No black child, desirous of Catholic education be excluded from the Catholic school because of economic or financial difficulties.

(b). The curriculum must include all the areas required for a well-rounded education with definitive provisions that no black child in our schools will grow up ignorant of his African heritage and of the tremendous achievements reflecting the desires of the of the Afro-American.

(c). that diocesan boards must include black members chosen by and a black community.

(d) That since the present staffing patterns of our schools will for the immediate future be primarily white nuns, a careful review should be made of those who come into the schools. These would be volunteers of specific educational competence, screened by and accepted by the appropriate parish groups.

(e). The voice of the black community will be the deciding factor in any decision to close a black parachial school.

(f.) That there be black personnel at the administrative levels, in the National Catholic Education Office and in diocesan superintendencies.

(g). That black review boards and investigative committees be established to scrutinize all research done, experiments conducted and materials used involving black children.

The Convention also urged the creation of a delegation of black Catholics to seek an audience with his Holiness, Pope Paul VI to put before the Vatican an agenda of urgent proposals relating to the welfare and involvement of black Catholics in America in the mission of the church in the United States.

Birthday Tribute

BROWN — A Birthday Tribute to the memory of my dear mother, JULIA E. BROWN on her birthday December 23, who passed away December 20, 1968:
God made lots of beautiful things,
Sunny and roses, and trees,
Birds, and starlight and loyal friends.
And, after he made all these,
He gave to the earth a gift more rare,
More loving and more true,
Of all God's gifts, the one most rare —
A mother as dear as you.
Daughter,
EDNA WELCH
and FAMILY

Death Notices

SHARP — On December 22, 1970, R. Sharp of 533 Laurens Street. Beloved son of Mrs. Daisy Sharp, two sisters, one of Detroit and one Baltimore.

Xmas Tribute

BALL — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my beloved husband, and our father, JOSEPH BALL, SR., who passed away, May 16, 1969:
Memories are a keepsake
No one can steal
Death is a heartache
No one can heal
Beautiful memories
Are all we have left
Of a wonderful husband and Father.
Devoted WIFE
and CHILDREN

BOSWORTH — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my dear mother, MARTHA, who passed away March 13, 1966:
Sunshine passes, shadows fall,
Love's remembrance outlasts all.
And though the years be many or few,
They are filled with remembrance,
Dear, Mother, of you.
Son,
FRANK BOSWORTH

COLEMAN — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our dear son, brother and friend, LEON, who passed away July 30, 1968:
There is a sad but sweet remembrance
There is a memory fond and true.
There is a token of affection,
LEON,
And a heartache still for you.
MOTHER,
FATHER
SISTER,
THELMA
BROTHER,
RUFUS
and FRIENDS

COX — A Xmas Tribute to the memory of my dear brother and uncle, JOHN T., who passed away September 21, 1970:
A tender cord of memory,
Is softly touched this Christmas Day.
Loving thoughts of our dear brother and uncle
Will never fade away.
Time will never dim our memory
Of the one we dearly love;
His voice, his smile is missing,
Since God called him above.
Sister,
MRS. ANNIE DOUGLASS

FORD — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our dear beloved sister, HELEN INEZ FORD, who passed away February 7, 1942:
Some say time heals an aching heart,
But no that is not true.
Since you have been gone, dear sister,
Our hearts still ache for you.
Even though it has been twenty-nine years since you went away,
But we remember you as though it was yesterday.
God blessed us with a ruby dove,
He blessed us with you, sister, dear.
You were so sweet, loving and kind;
A sweeter, dearer sister,
No one could ever find.
You were so good in all your ways,
Helping and doing for others throughout your days.
Even though you are gone,
In our hearts you will always live on.
Forever In Our Hearts,
Devoted Sisters
MRS. ALEASE STOKES
MISS DORIS FORD
MISS MARLENE FORD
Brother,
Mr. JOSEPH FORD Jr.
We know he had something very good for you in store,
God alone knows the loss we bear,
God alone knows how much we care.
How much we miss you, words could never say,
Our loss grows deeper with each passing day.
Some day we will meet on that blessed shore,
And we will be together forever more.
Forever In Our Hearts,
Devoted Sisters
MRS. ALEASE STOKES
MISS DORIS FORD
MISS MARLENE FORD

Xmas Tribute

FORD — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our dear beloved mother, MRS. CARRIE E. FORD, who passed away May 4, 1966:
There is not a day that goes by, Mom,
That we do not speak your name.
Since you have been gone,
Life has not been the same.
The sweet memories of you are so precious and dear,
And will live with us year after year.
God blessed us with a beautiful ruby rare,
He blessed us with you, mother dear.
You stuck by us through good times and bad;
You sacrificed your life no one could give more
A sweeter, dearer sister,
No one could ever find.
You were so good in all your ways,
Helping and doing for others throughout your days.
Even though you are gone,
In our hearts you will always live on.
Forever In Our Hearts,
Devoted Sisters:
MRS. ALEASE STOKES
MISS DORIS FORD
MISS MARLENE FORD
MR. JOSEPH FORD, JR.
Brother,

HARRIS — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my dear mother and my friend, ARLEE E. HARRIS (SPERMAN DIXON), who passed away March 2, 1969:
REST IN PEACE
You are not forgotten loved one
Nor will you ever be.
As long as life and memory last
We will remember thee.
We miss you now, our hearts are sore,
As time goes by we miss you more.
Your loving smile, your gentle face
No one can fill your vacant place.
Son, GREGORY
Friend, JOE

HARRIS — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our dear daughter, sister, friend and loved one, DEBORAH (CHIPS) who passed away December 6, 1967;
Do not ask us if we miss her;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear her footsteps
And see her smiling face.
Days of sadness still come o'er us,
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps her ever near us,
Though she left us three years ago.
The HARRIS FAMILY
and BEVERLY

GAMBRILL — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my dear husband, WILLIAM H. GAMBRILL, who passed away December 21, 1968:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb;
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest at last.
Loving Wife,
JULIA

PRICES — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our dear FATHER, MOTHER and FAMILY:
We remember when the sun shone so bright,
When the moon gave evening a glowing light.
When we awaited the happiness Christmas brings,
Then our troubles were trivial things;
Now it is different, for thru the sun's rays
We seem to see their warm, loving gaze;
And the cool, frosty nights when the moon lights the sky,
Remind us so often of the glow in their eyes.
Memories during this Festive Season when all is so gay,
We remember our Loved Ones, who are now far away.
And we pray that God's blessings be with them there
As they rest serenely in Heaven, so fair.
The Children:
MARIE, IDA,
ETHEL and MARIE
and JOHN

NICKENS — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my husband and father, CARROLL, who passed away December 25, 1969:
If we had all the world to give,
We'd give it, yes, and more,
To hear his voice and see his smile
And greet him at our door.
But all we can do is go and send your gifts
And leave behind tokens of love.
Husband and father God ever was kind
We like to think, when life is done
Wherever Heaven may be
That He'll be standing at the door
Up there to welcome us.

DIXON — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my dear husband and our father, GEORGE A., who passed away April 3, 1967;
You're not forgotten, Loved One.
Nor ever shall you be.
As long as life and memory last,
We shall remember thee.
Devoted Wife,
LILIAN DIXON
DAUGHTERS and SON
and RELATIVES

BUCKNER — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our beloved mother and father, BEULAH E. and CHARLES H. BUCKNER:
The memory of mother, Oh, it comes to everywhere
It shines in the darkness, and it floateth on the air,
It clings to us, it talks to me, through the livelong day.
It meets us in our daily task, our household work or play.
That blessed, blessed memory, that dear familiar tone,
As her spirit watches still, and communeth with her own
Loving Children,
FLORENCE PULLEY
BEULAH FOGLE
MARY WALL
HELEN CHRISTON
CHARLENE COLEMAN

GOLDEN — A Christmas Tribute in memory of our loved one, EDWARD ENOCH GOLDER, who passed away February 18, 1970:
Sad and sudden was the call
Of one so dearly loved by all
A bitter grief, a shock severe
It was to part with one so dear
We often sit and think of you
And speak of how you died
To think you could not say goodbye
Before you closed your eyes.
For all of us, you did your best.
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
Loving Wife,
VIRGINIA E. GOLDER,
Loving Children,
CHARLOTTE G. DYSON,
FRANCES G. MANESS,

HUGHES — A Merry Christmas wish for our beloved mother, MRS. ELIZABETH HUGHES, who passed away April 12, 1968, and our beloved father, MR. AUBREY HUGHES, who passed away April 1, 1970:
Because you're both so wonderful,
So dear in every way,
This greeting brings a Christmas wish
For happiness today—
And in each line you'll find fond thoughts
And memories, too,
For all it means to have and love a mother and father like you.
Have a Merry Christmas Mother and Father.
Love,
MRS. LOUIS BOYD
and Three Children:
MICHAEL, LARRY
and YVONNE HUGHES

For all of us you did your best
Oh, God, grant you eternal rest.
THE FAMILY

RAY — A X-mas Tribute to the memory of our son, CORNELIUS, who passed away February 2, 1969:
Gone, dear son, gone forever.
Hot we miss your smiling face,
But you left us to remember
None on earth can take your place.
A happy home we once enjoyed.
How sweet the memory still,
But death has left a loneliness
The world can never fill.
Loving Pa RAY and
DORSEY FAMILIES

SCOTT JR. — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of our dear son and brother, DAVID, who passed away October 3, 1968:
Do not ask us if we miss him;
There's such a vacant place,
Oft we think we hear his footsteps
And see his smiling face.
Days of sadness often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us.
Days of sadness still come o'er us;
Tears in silence often flow;
Memory keeps him ever near us.
Though he left us one year ago.
Mother, MARGARET,
Father,

SISTERS and BROTHERS

SKINNER — A Christmas Tribute to the memory of my dear husband and our father JOHN SKINNER, who passed away February 24, 1970:
He is gone, but not forgotten
His loving memories he left behind
His kindness and love for mankind
Will always be remembered
So often he thought of others
Never of himself
When the toll is called up yonder
And all the dark clouds shall roll away
We shall we see his smiling face
Never more to come.
Loving Wife,
MRS. MARY LOUISE SKINNER and CHILDREN

JACKWON — Xmas Tribute to the memory of my husband and my father, LEROY SR., who passed away January 13, 1965:
What would we give her hand to clasp,
Her patient face to see
The kind, her voice, by see her smile
As in the days that used to be.
Her expression sweet day or night
Up there in the cold and cold and clear each other's hand in hand
In Heaven, that home of

WILSON — A Xmas Tribute to the memory of my husband and my father, CHARLES O., who passed away December 16, 1965:
God saw the road was getting rough,
The hills were hard to climb,
He gently closed his loving eyes
And whispered: "Peace be thine."
His weary hours, his days of pain,
His weary nights are past;
His ever-patient, worn-out frame
Has found sweet rest.
Loving Wife,
MARY and
Son, POWELL

WILSON — A Xmas Tribute to the memory of my wife MARIE, who passed September 9, 1970:
I'll remember you, dear, while there's life in my heart,
And tho' God in His wisdom has torn us apart;
In your home up in Heaven you—must know that I'm true
To the love and esteem that was only for you.
And I pray that when life for me comes to an end,
I will meet you in HeaVen, my own dearest friend.
My friend and my sweetheart, my one dearest love,
God keep you and guard you in Heaven above.
Loving Husband,

RANDALL — A Xmas Tribute to the memory of my wife and our devoted mother, MRS. MARGARET:
Just close your eyes and open your heart
And feel your worries and cares depart.
Just yield yourself to the Father above.
And let Him hold you secure in His love.
For life on earth grows more involved
With endless problems that can't be solved.
But God only asks us to do our best.
Then, He will take over and finish the rest.
So, when you are tired, discouraged, and blue,
There's always one door that is open to you—
And that is the door to "The House of Prayer."
And you'll find God waiting to meet you there.
The "House of Prayer" is no farther away
Than the quiet spot where you kneel and pray.
As we place ourselves in His loving care,
And he hears every prayer and answers each one.
When we pray in His name,
He will be done
And the burdens that seemed too heavy to bear
Are lifted away on "The Wings of Prayer."

ELAM — In memory of our beloved mother and Loved One, ANNIE MAE, who passed away December 24, 1965:
A picture we see of a beautiful face,
Reflecting an image of heavenly grace—
A picture which shows many traces of care,
And yet an expression of sweetest love there.
The work of an artist the loveliest art—
A picture of "Mother" that is framed in our hearts;
And though she has crossed to her Heaven of rest,
Sweet memories of Mother lie wrapped in our breasts;
The print of her footsteps again we can see,
Her voice we hear, saying "My dears, follow me."
No artist can paint us a picture so fair;
It takes a true mother, her love, faith and prayer.

NICHOLSON — In loving memory of my dear husband, JOHN H., who passed away December 23, 1965:
When the evening shades are falling,
And I am sitting all alone,
In my heart there comes a longing,
If you only could come home.
Oft and oft my thoughts do wander
To your grave so far away,
Where I laid you, dearest husband.

Loving Wife,
ANNIE MAY PINKETT

SMITH — In loving memory of my dear son and our brother, WILLIAM, who passed away December 24, 1969:
We have lost our soul's companion
A life linked with our own.
And day by day we miss you more and more.
As we walk through life.
Loving Mother,
LOUISE
SISTERS and BROTHERS

THOMAS — In loving memory of my dear sister, FLORENCE THOMAS, who passed away December 23, 1955:
Loving and kind in all her ways,
Upright and just to the end of her days;
Sincere and true, in her heart and mind,
Beautiful memories she left behind.
Sister,
BERTIE LEMON

TURNER — In loving memory of our dear mother, WILLIE MAE, who passed away Dec. 25, 1967:
We do not forget you, nor do we intend,
We think of you often, and will to the end;
Gone and forgotten by some you may be,
But dear to our memory you ever will be.
The Children:
SUSIE WILLIAM
JOSEPH and IOLA

WALTON — In loving memory of my dear husband, and our father, GEORGE, who passed away December 26, 1966:
We do not forget him, we love him too dearly
For his memory to fade from our lives like a dream;
Our lips need not speak when our hearts mourn sincerely.
For grief often dwells where it seldom is seen.
Wife, REBECCA
and DAUGHTERS
