Tourin' Turner

By E. S. McDANIEL

Mrs. Berma Jones of 116 Walnut Ave. has been appointed as captain for the 1960 Heart Campaign in this community. The drive comes off Feb. 25-28. Since it is a known fact that heart diseases kill many people, it is hoped that all of the citizens of the community will give freely when the representatives call for support.

The Charioteers for Mental Aid of Turner Station visited the Crownsville State Hospital on Dec. 19 to carry their annual Christmas treat. The group was accompanied by the Rev. S. R. Bennett, pastor of St. Matthew's Methodist Church.

The Banks Gospel Chorus entertained the patients with singing. The group treated the patients with a variety of goodies and each was given a gift. Mrs. Willie M. Alston is president of the group.

* * *

THE CHARM Social Club, a group of young matrons, helped in preparing and giving three baskets to families during the holiday season. The purpose of the club is for the young mothers to get together for some relaxation and social activities.

The officers and members of the club are Elsie Winston, president; Shirley Howard, vice president; Annette Glenn, secretary; Marjorie Evans, treasurer; Texanne Jones, chaplain; Adese Randolph, business manager; Shirley Willcox, Jean Stokes, Helen Evans and Essie Sale.

The Recreational Council of Turner Station is working hard to promote wholesome recreation in the community for the young people and thereby help to reduce delinquency. More adult leadership is needed to carry on this fine work. Won't you offer your help?

During the summer, the Little League baseball program kept many of the smaller fellows busy in activities that were interesting to them. It was highlighted by the first interracial Little League Baseball Tournament in the South-eastern Area. Glenn C. Henley, the new area superintendent, is credited with promoting this activity.

* * *

THE BASKETBALL program is in full swing at the present with O. Smith, Pierce Jones and Mrs. Mary Flournoy as leaders. All of the Turner-sponsored games are held at the Sollers Point High School.

The program, which started in November, continues through the middle of March, with an area and county-wide tourney next. There are 442 boys and girls registered.

The Juniors (12-16) meet on Monday nights from 7 to 9 p.m. The Seniors (16 — unlimited) meet Tuesday nights from 6 to 9 p.m. Pierce Jones is the leader.

The Little League Basketball team meets on Saturday from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The age limit is from 8 to 12. O. Smith is the leader for this group.

Mrs. Mary L. Fourney is in charge of the girls teams' and she has the largest number of registered participants. 264. The girls meet on Wednesday nigh from 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. The age limit for the girls is from 9 to 16.

The Teen Center is still at Saturday night with

Paul Muni returns to screen in Royal feature

Magnificent Paul Muni, too long absent from the screen, once again is dazzling Royal Theatre audiences with another brilliantly conceived and executed performance as "The Last Angry Man."

As the general practitioner who tries to help the sick, and poor and the unfortunate in his decrepit neighborhood, Muni is so real it hurts. Fiercely dedicated to his work and his large, but ligthent, practice, he nevertheless is inclined to be crusty and bitter about "the goiters who won't let you live."

As a television executive fighting to preserve his professional life and his crumbling marriage to Betsy Palmer, David Wayne conceives the idea of a new television show called "Americans, U.S.A." A show with real people. A brief human interest newspaper item about Muni's help to a girl hit by hoodlums in the middle of the night, sparks Wayne to get Muni for his first TV show. The gruff old doctor grudgingly assents. But then a juvenile delinquent, one of the "the goiters" Muni rails against, needs the doctor's help.

Second feature is "The Two-Headed Spy."

Drug store wants liquor license shift

An application to transfer a package goods permit from 1401 W. Lanvale St., to 1801 W. Lexington St., and to discontinue services of a registered pharmacist was submitted to the Board of Liquor Commissioners Thursday.

A decision on the application of Dr. Arthur A. Lemler, proprietor of Lemler's Drug Store was withheld.

Protests against the transfer were filed on behalf of Mt. Olivet Christian Church, St. James Methodist Church, and the Sweet Hope Free Will Baptist Church.

Through his attorney Louis Hoffman, Dr. Lemler told the Board that it is necessary to move from the Lanvale St., location because it is located in the Harlem Park Urban Renewal area.

Nine protestants testified to the effect that a new liquor outlet is not necessary in the community.

William I. Gosnell, attorney represented St. James. The Reverend John Carrmody represented Sweet Hope and the Reverends C. L. Whitfield, Harrison Everett and Frederick C. Payton, church clerk, represented Mt. Olivet.

* * *

THE BOARD approved the application of Miss Essie B. Perkins for transfer of ownership of a Class "D5" permit at the "Tee Pee Inn," 316 S. Poppleton St.

The liquor permit of George T. Lennon, owner of "Muggins Boat House" at 2200 Boston St., was suspended for 10 days.

Mr. Lennon, a tug boat captain was called before the Board to explain why he hired a bagmaid who was convicted a month ago of soliciting on the premises.

Mr. Lennon said that he and his wife had tried to rehabilitate the young woman.

Louis and Ethel Leibowitz were granted permission by the Board to eliminate a proscription department of the Leibowitz Liquor Store, 8900 Pennsylvania Ave.

Eta Eta Lambda Chapter brings joy to hearts of youngsters; Women's Auxiliary of the Frontiers elects its officers; Caldwell McMillans usher in New Year with gala party, Makell family holds reunion in Galesville; Mrs. Hattie Williams dies at 80.

At Christmas time, the hearts of many Annapolis youngsters were gladdened by the visit of Santa Claus, made possible by the members of Eta Eta Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity.

The chapter presented more than 200 toys to the Anne Arundel County Welfare Department and the Children's Ward of the Anne Arundel General Hospital. This will be an annual project of the chapter.

Eta Eta Lambda Chapter is the first to be organized here. It was established in 1950 and in April 1959 at the Bates High School (now the Tyson Jr. High). The highlight of the program was an address by James C. Evans, assistant to the Secretary of Defense, and a number of the fraternity.

Eta Eta Lambda Chapter is the newest graduate chapter established in Alpha Phi Alpha, one of the oldest colored fraternities in the United States.

The national body has sponsored an annual national oratorical contest, Emancipation Proclamation contest, "Citizenship" drive and a "Good High School—Go to College" campaign for several years. These projects are sponsored by chapters and scholarships to deserving high school students will be the effort of Eta Eta Lambda Chapter—the 50th of these projects here in the Annapolis area.

Officers and members of the chapter are:

The Women's Auxiliary of the Frontiers, held its initial meeting on Sunday at the home of Mrs. Electa Holland. At this time officers were elected as follows:

Mrs. Rose Wiseman, president; Mrs. Irene Mills, assistant secretary; Mrs. Marian Phelps, treasurer, and Mrs. Mary Baden, chaplain.

THE CALDWELL McMILLANS (Sylvia) helped to usher in the New Year by entertaining a few of their friends informally at their lovely country home.

Those who enjoyed their gracious hospitality were Mr. and Mrs. Eli Arthur (Connie) Mr. and Mrs. John T. Chambers (Hannah), Dr. Horace Freeman, Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Williams (Katherine) of Washington and Mrs. Stanley Sargent (Clara).

The McMillans' celebrated Christmas by entertaining members of their families at dinner on Christmas Day.

Relatives present were:

Mr. and Mrs. Betha McMillan (Emilia) of Baltimore and their son, Betha Jr., sophomore at Lehigh University, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. McMillan (Emma) and daughter, Mary, sophomore at Howard University. McMillan and their families).

Also Mr. and Mrs. John Wesley Doyle (Alice, she's Mrs. McMillan's niece), and their children, Caroline, Ronnie and Gordon of Washington; Mr. and Mrs. Clifford White (Clara) of Kansas City, Mo., and Dr. and Mrs. Stanley Sargent and children, Yvonne, Laverne, Karen and Stanley, Jr.

Dr. and Mrs. R. L. Richardson had as their holiday guests their daughter and son-in-law, Ensign and Mrs. Maurice Clark of Pensacola, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Colbert spent the Christmas weekend in Philadelphia as guests of Mrs. Colbert's brothers and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Henry Dean and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dean, who previously had visited the Colberts during the early part of the holiday week.

Mrs. Cora Stepney and Miss Louise Anderson spent the New Year weekend visiting friends in New York City.

On Sunday they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Robinson of Jamaica, Long Island. They were also among guests received informally by the Robinsons later on in the afternoon. They attended services at Greater St. Luke AME Church in New York City on Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Manuel (Nan) were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Sr., her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Jr. Mrs. Manuel is on the faculty at Virginia State and Carl is on the faculty at Tennessee State University.

DOWN AT Galesville, the large Makell family made merry at the annual reunion of the family reunion was held on December 27.

Another important event on the same day was the christening of a new member of the family, Rogers L. Parker Jr., the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Rogers C. Parker Sr. (Debra).

Those in the family who attended the reunion were:

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Makell, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones), Mrs. Howard L. Makell, Mrs. Ethel Mae Makell, Frank H. Makell, all of Galesville; Mrs. Christine Stewart, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Emily McPherson, New York City; Mrs. Mildred Tooks, Baltimore;

Also Mrs. Iala Upchurch, Mrs. Sarah M. Randall and John A. Makell, all of Annapolis; Miss Lillian A. Makell and Mrs. Christine Stewart, Washington, D.C.; Mrs. Emily McPherson, New York City; Mrs. Mildred Tooks, Baltimore;

Also Mrs. Iala Upchurch, Mrs. Sarah M. Randall and John A. Makell, all of Annapolis.

TIDINGS OF JOY — The hearts of many an Annapolis youngster were made happy during the holidays by a visit from Santa Claus, made possible by the members of Eta Eta Lambda Chapter of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity. The group presented more than 200 toys to the Anne Arundel County Welfare Department and the Children's Ward of the Anne Arundel General Hospital. The picture shows Lawrence Knight, president of the chapter presenting some of these toys to members of the two staffs represented.

Baltimore County News and Views

By DORIS BAKER BROWN

Professional faculty meetings are one means of stimulating and promoting professional growth among teachers.

Some of the many students who were presented in the school's choral assembly program, Friday, January 8, were Mr. Bradford Boston, Lucille Smith and Robert Brown, seniors.

Also presented in the school's Christmas assembly program were students from the Catonsville Senior High School choral group, under the direction of Mrs. Pearl Bracken, choral director of Cromwell School No. 24, Baltimore, to be guest speakers.

Quite familiar with the topic "New Trends In Teaching," Mrs. Brackett informed the group of several new experiments now being attempted and the results of some others.

Mrs. Brackett attended Coppin Normal and received her B.S. degree from Morgan College. She also holds a Master of Arts degree from New York University. She is now completing equivalent credits for her doctorate in the area of human relations from the University of Vermont.

Before becoming principal of School No. 24, Mrs. Brackett served as a supervisor in the Baltimore City school system.

Members of the committee who presented Mrs. Brackett to the group were Mrs. Arabella Ross, chairman, Mrs. Rosa Ferguson, Misses Shirley Thomas, Lola Mills and Virginia Brady, who introduced the speaker, also Gerald Griffin.

Mrs. Carl Manuel (Nan) was guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Sr., her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes, and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Phelps Jr. Mrs. Manuel is on the faculty at Virginia State and Carl is on the faculty at Tennessee State University.

ONE OF the outstanding events of the season was the wedding of Miss Carole L. Richardson and Mr. Andrew Fredrick Taylor, both of Annapolis.

Friends from Catonsville journeyed to the Eskridge Recreation Center for the gay affair. As with all teen parties, plenty of good food was a must.

The wise parents were ready and had a small feast waiting for their energetic guests to devour.

Guests were treated to delicious French tams were worn. Vive La France!

Ernestine Boston, Lucille Smith and Robert Brown were present.
