Rev. C. E. Johnson buried in Annapolis

Funeral services were held on Tuesday at the Asbury Methodist Church, Annapolis, for the Rev. Charles Edward Johnson, 71, veteran Methodist minister, who died Jan. 14 at Provident Hospital.

On retirement since June, 1959, because of illness, the Rev. Mr. Johnson had pastored churches in Maryland and West Va. for more than 46 years.

He spent his last ten years as pastor of the John Wesley Church in Baltimore.

More than 500 persons attended the rites which featured tributes from prominent ministers of the Baltimore and Washington Conferences, who described the deceased clergyman as a "great preacher."

The casket, which had a painting of the Last Supper inside the lid, was placed at the foot of the altar of the church where he became a member in his youth and later pastored in 1933.

Over four dozen floral designs banked the altar.

Thirty-five Methodist ministers and church officials were among those present for the rites and 15 pastors took part in the ritual while six served as pall bearers.

* * *

ATTENDING IN a body were other ministers, members of the Washington and Baltimore Conference and of the Ministerial Alliance.

Also present were members of the Ministers Wives Associations of the Baltimore and Washington Conferences.

Many Annapolis neighbors, friends and longtime acquaintances stood outside the church and on street corners.

The Rev. I. R. Berry, Asbury pastor, presided.

As he eulogized the Rev. Johnson, he recalled the veteran minister's career as "a man who could really preach—a man who knew he could preach."

He said: "He was certain of his salvation. He was absolutely confident of the Almighty. "He enjoyed fellowship of the angels."

He continue: "He was a born preacher. He had spirit. He had vision. He was certain of immortality."

* * *

THE REV. KELLY JACKSON, district superintendent of the Washington Conference, said:

"He blew the trumpet sounds of God in the high places and in the low places, sounding the great, deep words of God."

The Rev. S. W. Fields, a retired pastor of the Baltimore Conference, said:

"I was shocked when I heard of his death. There will be an empty chair."

The Rev. N. B. Carrington, pastor of the Baltimore Union Memorial Church said:

"He was a preacher of the first magnitude. His chief joy was preaching.

"He did not need pull nor politics. He was successful in all areas of the church.

"He was a veteran of the cross, a soldier who gave his life to the Methodist Church."

* * *

THE REV. S. W. Hardesty wept as he said of his friend: "Asbury church gave to him the inspiration for his accomplishments.

"If he could rise up now, he would say he is where he wants to be. He never forgot home.

"We'll never forget the good man, Johnson."

The Revs. C. S. Harper and Frank Williams and A. W. White announced the singing of hymns. The Rev. R. L. Ball gave the opening prayer.

The Rev. U. S. Briggs gave the reading from the Old Testament while the Rev. E. D. Hall gave the New Testament reading.

The Rev. C. B. LaGrange acknowledge over 60 letters, telegrams and expressions of sympathy received by the family.

The Rev. Frank J. Frye read the obituary. Benediction was by the Rev. F. F. King.

Music was by the Asbury Senior Choir with Roland W. Colbert as soloist. Four members of the Baltimore John Wesley AME Church also sang.

MEMBERS OF the Asbury Church Ladies Usher Auxiliary served as ushers.

Honorary pall bearers named were the Revs. F. J. Williams, P. R. Vauls, C. L. Davis, S. A. Thompson, W. N. Edwards, A. A. Scott, R. L. Clifford, C. Y. Trigg, J. H. Carter and V. T. Key.

Pall bearers included the Revs. J. D. Foy, D. M. Pleasants, J. W. Langford, James Adams, Fustin Bennett and O. S. Franklin.

More than a dozen cars formed the procession to the Brewer Hill Cemetery for burial.

Relatives and friends in the cars included Mesdames Blanche Chambers, Cassie Gaskins, Helen Jones, Anna Johnson, Dorothy Chambers, Hester Creek;

Mesdames Ruth Bunch, Mary Clay and Philophia Wells;

Misses Lillian Johnson, Viola Johnson, Regina Johnson, Catherine Johnson;

Messrs. George Johnson Jr., Frank Chambers, George Johnson, Theodore Johnson, Hayward Gaskins, Moses Wells, Joseph Johnson, Charles Johnson, Arthur Wells, and Arthur Wells II, Samuel Wells, Robert Wells.

Survivors besides his wife are a daughter, Miss Louise Johnson; two sisters, Mrs. Cassie Hawkins and Miss Florence Johnson and a brother, Frank Johnson.

THE REV. Mr. Johnson was born in Annapolis, one of the ten children of the Rev. John A. and Adeline Johnson.

He attended the Stanton Elementary School and completed high school in Annapolis.

When he was 21, he and the former Miss Carolyn Wells were united in marriage in 1910 by the late Rev. N. M. Carroll, pastor of the Asbury church.

At an early age, he joined the Asbury church where he served as leader of the No. 7 class.

He was encouraged to enter the ministry by his father who was also a Methodist minister.

He attended Clark College and was graduated from Gammon Theological Seminary in 1924.

IN 1924 he joined the Washington Annual Conference and was appointed to preach in Laytonsville, Md.

He served in Piedmont, W. Va., 1924 to 1929 in Ellicott City, Md., from 1919 to 1923; at Asbury Church in Baltimore from 1933 to 1935.

Prior to becoming District Superintendent of the South Baltimore District in 1943, the Rev. Mr. Johnson was pastor of the East Hoffman St. Church, Baltimore for eight years, from 1935 to 1943.

HE SERVED as District Superintendent until 1949 when he was appointed pastor of the John Wesley Church in South Baltimore.

The Rev. Mr. Johnson was pastor of the John Wesley Church until 1959 when he retired in July at the 94th session of the annual conference.

His retirement came at the time of the John Wesley church's decision to acquire a new building in Northwest Baltimore at North Ave. and Fulton St.

LAID TO REST in bronze casket was the Rev. Charles Edward Johnson, 71, retired Methodist minister, who was buried Tuesday in Annapolis. The casket lid was painted with a picture of the Last Supper.

MRS. CAROLYN WELLS JOHNSON, widow of the Rev. Charles Edward Johnson is shown above entering the Asbury Methodist Church in Annapolis, Tuesday, accompanied by the minister's brother, Frank Johnson, of Baltimore.

Rev. N. D. Bridges, evangelist, buried

Funeral services were held for the Rev. Nathan D. Bridges, 77, of Faith Church for the Apostolic Faith World Assembly, at 8 Edmondson Ave., who died at his home on Jan. 9.

The Rev. Mr. Bridges, nationally known Evangelist for the Apostolic Faith World Assembly was ill four days and had just returned from a Ft. Worth, Texas, mission.

More than 35 bishops, elders and high church officials presided at the 12 noon services, which lasted five hours.

* * *

BISHOP Samuel Grimes, New York City, gave the eulogy in which he likened the popular evangelist to "a fallen soldier."

The Rev. Mr. Bridges had been a member of the Apostolic Faith World Assembly for 35 years and began his ministry under the direction of the late Bishop J. M. Turpin in 1925.

His duties as a traveling evangelist for the church took him to all sections of the United States where he was known as a great Bible teacher and a dynamic speaker.

He held the post as pastor of the Bethlehem Apostolic Temple in Baltimore prior to becoming a District Elder of the church.

A NATIVE of Pine Hill, Ala., the Rev. N. Bridges was born March 17, 1882. He came to Baltimore in 1903 and was employed at Swift and Co. until his retirement in 1948.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Luvenia Bridges and two step sons, four sisters and four brothers.

Among bishops, elders and district elders who presided are: Bishops William H. Davis, Winfield Showell, Baltimore; Henry Brooks, Washington; George Levatt, Turner Station, Md.; Hobart Tolifario, Atlantic City, N.J.

District Elders Lenwood Christian, Petersburg, Va.; Edward Williams, Upper New Rochelle, N.Y.; Bert Peskins, New York City; Alexander Nicholas, Philadelphia, Pa.; John D. Barnes, and Wesley A. Thomas, both of Baltimore.

Also Elders Willard Saunders, William Torrance, William Barnes, George Moore and Samuel Giles, all of Baltimore, and Elders Thomas Wickes, Boston, Mass.; and Giles Hughes, New York City.

Pallbearers included Elders Lucius Davis, Benjamin Traynham, William Barnes, Marcelle Davis, Luther Johnson, Isaac Lucas and Bishop Ramsey Butler.

Burial was in Arbutus Cemetery, Baltimore.

Funeral today for Mrs. E. Henson

'He lived to see all his children graduate'

He lived to see all his children graduate from college, the youngest, Helen, graduated this past June.

"He was very proud of them.

These were the words of Mrs. Ella C. Holmes as she talked about her husband, Alonzo D. Holmes who died on Jan. 17.

He died after a two-week stay at Fort-Howard Hospital.

He had been ill for seven years.

Mr. Holmes, 73, saw the last of his six children, Miss Helen M. Holmes graduate from Howard University in June, 1959, to become a nurse at the Women Medical College in Philadelphia.

He was father of five sons, Alonzo, a graduate of the School of Architecture at Howard University; Bernard, a graduate of Howard's School of Law; Harold G., a Howard pharmacy graduate.

George is a commercial artist and William, a graduate of Morgan State College, is a draftsman for the Transit and Traffic Division of Baltimore City.

THE HOLMES were married in 1911 in their native Baltimore.

It was in that year that he joined St. Plus Catholic Church. However, in 1947 he became a member of St. Francis Xavier Church.

When Christ the King was opened three years ago in Turner Station, where the Holmes reside at 641 Avon Place, Mr. Holmes became a member there.

He had been retired for three years from employment in two city departments as a messenger.

In addition to his wife and children, he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Florence Dorsey, who is mother of Magistrate Calvin A. Douglass, and a nephew, Dr. Arthur Johnson, a former Baltimore doctor now practicing in California.

Saturday rites for Mrs. Catherine Burton

Mrs. Catherine Burton, 80, 834 Edmondson Ave., who died at University Hospital Tuesday, is scheduled to be buried after 11 a.m. services at Emmanuel Christian Community Church Saturday.

The Rev. Sidney Daniels will officiate at the services for Mrs. Burton, a long time member of the church. Burial will be in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

At Emmanuel she was a member of the Sophie Sparrow Bible Class. She was also active in other past grand worthy counselor of the Court of Calantha of the Knights of Pythias.

Married to John H. T. Burton she was widowed 20 years ago.

MRS. BURTON is survived by two children, Maurice Burton and Mrs. Edna Finney, both of Baltimore; seven grandchildren, 10 great grandchildren and one great, great grandchild.

In addition, she is survived by three sisters: Mesdames Edna Holley, Rosa Bivens and Lula Revera;

Also two aunts, Mrs. Fannie Saunders of Freehold, N.J., and one sister-in-law, Mrs. Mary E. Burton.

Ernest Coombs

Ernest Chaunte Jr., 3207 Elmont Rd., was pronounced dead on arrival at Lutheran Hospital Wednesday morning. His wife, Mrs. Bertha Coombs, said he became ill at his home.

Mr. Coombs had been employed as a maintenance worker at University Hospital for seven years.

A native of Charles County he had lived in Baltimore for 15 years.

He is also survived by three sisters, Mesdames Wm. Briscoe and Hilda Owens of Washington, and Mary McLaurin of Baltimore; three brothers, Joseph Seymore of Baltimore and James of La Plata, Md., and Appt. Mrs. Lillie Jones of Baltimore.

Funeral services will be held from 1338 N. Dallas St., on Saturday, at 1 p.m. with the Rev. Marion C. Bascom, officiating.

Interment in Mt. Auburn Cemetery.

E. H. Anderson

Funeral services will be held for Earl William Anderson, 56, 222 N. Montford Ave., 1 p.m. tomorrow (Saturday) at a funeral home in the 2000 block Orleans St.

The Rev. Albert C. Hammond will officiate.

Mr. Anderson had an attack at his home on Tuesday and died enroute to Johns Hopkins Hospital.

A native of Baltimore, Mr. Anderson attended Dunbar High School.

He married the former Miss Gladys Gibson in 1928 and for 14 years had been employed by a chemical plant as a crane operator.

In his spare time, Mr. Anderson turned to his back yard garden or to his books.

Besides his wife, Mr. Anderson is survived by two sons, Earl, Jr. and Hartley, five daughters, Mesdames Norma Bingold, Shirley Barden and Joan Mack, Misses Mae Gladys and Linda Anderson, and two brothers, Cleaton and Mitchell.
