TONIGHT (Friday) is the big night for "Ma" and "Pa" The Ladies' Guild of Cherry Hill is sponsoring their "Ma and Pa" Party, at 8 p.m.

Cards, dancing and refreshments. It is still not too late to get your free ticket. You may call Mrs. Butler at EI. 5-3808.

Admission free by invitation only. Also adults only. Any ladies interested in joining the Guild may also call Mrs. Butler.

The Ushers of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church gave Mrs. Louise Conner, the counselor, a surprise birthday party at her home on Bridgeview Rd. last Monday.

Taking part were Amanda Scurry, Dorothy Harris, Shirley Coak, Barbara Coak, Dorothy and Juanita Pringle, Jean Ellis, Betty Hubbard, Phyliss Taylor, David Coak, Charles Gordon, Jr., Calvin Gaither, Willie White and Mrs. Dorothy Coak.

Mrs. Conner's daughter, Ann, played a very important role in surprising her mother.

BOY SCOUT Week begins on Feb. 7. Open House will be held at the Cherry Hill Community on Feb. 8.

Parents and friends are invited to come out and see the Boy Scouts in action.

The next in a series of variety suppers will be held Saturday at the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Grew, 443 Roundview Rd. from 1 to 7 p.m.

Proceeds will benefit the Building Fund of the Cherry Hill Methodist Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Griffin of 641 Cheraton Road have just returned from Raleigh, N.C. where they attended the funeral of her grandmother who died at the age of 108.

Mrs. Annie Mae Nash was born in 1852 and was the mother of 13 children.

She leaves the following descendents: five children, 32 grandchildren, 70 great grandchildren and two great great grandchildren.

MOST MEADE MEN FINISHED HIGH SCHOOL

Ninety-nine per cent of the officers and 70 per cent of the enlisted men currently stationed at FORT Meade have completed at least 12 years of school.

That was revealed in statistics released today by Gustaf E. Berglund, chief of the Army Education Center here.

Jerry Lewis hit for snub of Hamp

LOS ANGELES. — Timex Watch Co., and the nation's television audience were shortchanged out of what had been advertised as a featured guest appearance of bandleader Lionel Hampton on the Jerry Lewis Timex show last Saturday night, the result of a surprise change in plans while the show was being aired over ABC's national network.

The famed vibraphone player appeared briefly for only about 25 seconds on the screen, though originally he had been allotted eight minutes.

Lewis' explanation was that time ran out. • • •

BUT TO the sad-faced comedian, stage-hands, and at least some 50 persons who had witnessed the final dress rehearsal earlier that afternoon, the mutilated, over-extended televised product appeared to be deliberate.

The famed bandleader, who had been rehearsing for five days at NBC's Burbank Studios, and who had been standing in the wings waiting to go on, managed to be seen at the conclusion of the show only after the closing curtain became caught in the microphone boom.

Had it not been for that unforeseen mishap, he would not have appeared at all. • • •

WHAT WAS peculiarly not understandable to the huge studio audience, many of whom had shown up for the final rehearsal, was why Lionel Hampton was suddenly forgotten.

At dress rehearsal he had been featured playing the vibraphone in front of a 36-piece band in a brilliant arrangement of his recently recorded tune, "Railroad," just released on Glad label.

Its shuffling beat virtually had the entire studio rocking in what was to be a big production number. It was to precede the show's grand finale, featuring Lewis and his 14-piece, all-drum band, which would have included a drum duet between Hampton and Lewis with the other guest star, singer Helen Traubel, reappearing in the closing number. • • •

BUT TIME apparently ran out for Timex, although the watch firm had generously supplied samples of their products to stars and technicians on the show, including Jerry Lewis. The result was that Lionel Hampton and his new recording, "Railroad," were completely "railroaded" out of the show.

Lewis admitted to the studio audience that "Mr. Hampton had been handed the short end of the stick," and apologized to them, saying he would be brought back at a later date. But many of them went away somewhat crestfallen, muttering their disappointments, and wondering aloud if the comic was afraid the bandleader would steal the show.

Later, in his dressing room, Lionel, always genial and jovial, merely chuckled when asked for a comment. "No comment," he shrugged, "it was Jerry Lewis' show."

Citizenship clinic set for Feb. 5

"Do you really know where you live?

"Do you know what it really costs you, when you do not vote?

"Do you know what it really means to you, when you do not vote?

These are some of the questions that will be raised and answered on Friday, Feb. 5, at 8 p.m. at a Citizenship Clinic held by Knox Community Center, Broadway, Gay and Biddle Sts.

The clinic is one of the community-building projects of the center which is sponsored by the Knox Presbyterian Church, but open to everyone.

• • •

IN ADDITION to a keynote session, the clinic will be divided into three workshops, two for women and one for men.

It will close with a report session.

Dr. G. James Flemming, professor of political science at Morgan State College, will be the keynote speaker.

Dr. Daynal B. Pettengill, political scientist, will conduct the men's workshop.

The women's group will be led by members of Womanpower, under the direction of Mrs. Victorine Adams and Mrs. Ethel Rich.

Mrs. Mercedes Douglass is director of the Knox Community Center.

'Do you know what this is'?

"Do you know what this is?" According to police, a gunman asked this question before robbing a cleaner's in the 1200 block of W. Lanvale St. Monday night, at gunpoint.

Mrs. Isabelle Brown, 48, 1800 block of Riggs Ave., told officers the bandit pointed a black automatic pistol in her face.

She said she gave him $3 and he told her to "get the rest." Mrs. Brown then went to the rear of the store and gave the robber a brown envelope containing about $35.

Youthful singers look for manager

The Teen Kings, ambitious young local quartet, are searching for a manager and sponsor.

The group, together for about four years, believes steady bookings will come with a small amount of promotion. All in their 'tens, they are:

James Bell, 19, lead tenor; Leon Sherrill, second tenor, 16; Gerald Green, 16, baritone, and Andrew Sherill, 17, bass.

Diggs Recreation Center stages last teen affair

By WALTER W. E. HILL

Funeral services were held at Star of Bethlehem AME Church last Monday for Mrs. Grace Matthews of 1626 Bentalou St. She is survived by her husband Norman, nine daughters and three sons. The Rev. T. B. McQueen officiated.

All boys in the Mt. Winans area desiring to become boy scouts, are urged to contact Mrs. Mamie V. Hill at 2617 Foerster Ave. All parents having an interest in this organization for their sons are also urged to contact Mrs. Hill.

The Rev. Joseph Brehm of Grace Memorial Church, choir and congregation will present services at Shiloh C.C. Church on Sunday at 3 p.m., on behalf of Progressive Young Adult Circle.

Deepest sympathy is expressed in the death of Mrs. Nellie B. Johnson, mother of Mrs. Virginia Baynard of 1031 W. Saratoga St. Services will be held at Shiloh C. C. Church on Thursday at 7:30. The Rev. George W. Baynard is pastor.

The Josiah Diggs Recreation Center staged its last Senior teens crazy pants dance on Thursday.

The Center has as its new director, Edward Richardson, formerly of the McCulloh Home Center. Mr. Richardson, as some will recall, served the community back in the early fifties.

The center will present a talent show, Feb. 2 at 8 p.m. Participants will be mainly local South Baltimore talent.

Mrs. Helen Glover, recreational leader, will focus some highlights on the subject in future writings. Who will be the first Personality of the Week in this column? Don't miss next Friday's edition. It may be YOU.

First Baptist association hits juvenile delinquency

By GERTRUDE M. PARKER

The Christian Education Association of Mt. Winans First Baptist Church showed pictures Sunday entitled "Gateway to the Mind" "Our Hit, Sam."

The Christian Association was organized to prevent juvenile delinquency, search the neighborhood for talent, cultivate talent, encourage talent and develop talent.

Mrs. Sarah Greenwood is the chairman; Eugene Chesley, secretary; the Rev. Herbert S. Moore, pastor.

Installation services for the Deaconess of Bethany Baptist Church will be held Sunday, Jan. 31 at 3 p.m.

The Rev. Nathaniel Wicks, his choir, and congregation of Morning Star Baptist Church, will present services.

Mrs. Marie James, Mrs. Alice Savage, Mrs. Anna Monroe, committee; the Rev. Clinton Johnson, pastor.

This Sunday, Jan. 31, will be Youth Day at Mt. Winans Methodist Church.

At 11 a.m. James Nickols of the North Baltimore District M. Y. F. will be the speaker. The Intermediate and Junior Choirs will provide the music. Miss Harrietta Wallace, president of the M. Y. F.

At 3 p.m., the Rev. Walter Sewell, pastor of Shadyside, Uniontown, Pa., his choir and congregation will give services. • • •

THE EXECUTIVE meeting of the Mt. Winans Christian service of Mt. Winans Methodist Church was held at the home of the President, Mrs. Gertrude Parker, 2613 Huron Street, Thursday.

The Sarah O. Collins Guild met Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Hattie Burley, 2408 Huron Street.

Remember the sick of the community. Send a message of cheer to Mrs. Irene Meekins, Mrs. Gertrude Wicks, William Gardner, Miss Mary Johnson and Reuben Johnson.

Suspensions eyed 'in touching case'

Principal William W. Miles of Sherwood High School in Sandy Spring, Md., said a meeting was scheduled for yesterday (Thursday) with the suspected students to determine the cause of four boys suspended from Sherwood after white girls made complaints against them.

"We have been working on the case ever since it happened," Mr. Miles said. "We want to get all the facts before a decision is made."

The decision will come from Supt. C. Taylor Whittier of Montgomery County Schools on recommendations by the principal and T. R. O. Knight of his pupil appraisal department, which has been investigating the case since the boys were suspended last week. • • •

MR. MILES said the boys, 16 or 17 years old, would be reinstated if the facts warranted lifting the indefinite suspension.

"We want to do what is best for the children," he said.

He stated that eight girls complained that the boys "touched them unnecessarily in the corridors while passing to classes and in some cases made suggestive remarks."

Mr. Miles said in answer to a question, "I suppose we have had cases of the kind, but I can't think of one right now of white girls complaining of being touched unnecessarily by white boys and making suggestive remarks.

"I'm sure, though, that our files would show such a case," he added.

"HE SAID there is nothing unusual about the suspensions in a case of the kind or the procedure in handling the problem.

This is the first time that anything like this ever happened to his knowledge involving students of different races, he said. The school has about 125 colored students among some 1,400.

Sherwood is now in its fourth year of integration, he stated.

IRVING BARNES

Funeral services will be held for Irvin Barnes, attorney, at 1 p.m. at the Stewart Funeral Home, 2 E. St. Mt. Barnes, Interment will be at Lincoln Memorial Cemetery.

Mr. Barnes, 3720 Hayes St., fell unconscious while dressing at his home at about 8:40 a.m. Tuesday.

An autopsy disclosed that the attorney died of natural causes. He was 44 years old.

He was admitted to the District Bar on April 21, 1942 and was one of the founders of the Gamma Tau Fraternity.

Baltimore County News and Views

By DORIS BAKER BROWN

Children with leisure time on their hands soon look for something to do and you may not like the activities they choose to participate in.

To avoid problems later, — not try to provide wholesome recreational outlets now.

What happened to the Teen Center program? How about a Teen Club or Social Clubs?

Wouldn't it be grand if one of the local organizations would sponsor a group or weekly activity?

It's wonderful that the kids are asking for guidance but it doesn't have to be that way. And if too much idleness causes a child to stray, we should all remember, one parent's failure and grief is everybody's failure and grief. Because somewhere down the line the whole community has been neglected.

Everybody appreciates initiative. In a courageous attempt to combat week-end boredom several Catonsville girls decided to form a club. The club's name, The Six Of Us.

Members of the club soon thought entertainment was in order and came up with the idea for a party to which they could invite schoolchums.

The party was held at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. William Dorsey whose daughter Cheryl attends the girls' club.

Attending the group's affair were Carolyn Barnes, Cheryl Henson, Asiean Cole, Beverly Dixon, Ernestine Hayes, Denise Allen, Patricia Dorsey and Muriel Burton.

Also Calvin Randall, Vincent Jackson, Vernon Chase, James Ragler, Ralph Carter, Theodore Baccie, Wayne Randall, William Rideout, Charles Crawford, Anthony Bacon and Earl Faison.

Best wishes and much success in all your undertakings members of the Six Of Us: Cheryl Riley, Phyllis Randall, Cheryl Henson, Sonia Hardy, April Richardson and Cheryl Dorsey.

YOUTH DAY was held at Grace AME Church Sunday, presenting at the morning service Miss Joan Hall, whose sentiments were read by Phyllis Randall. Responsive reading was led by Horace Brown, Decalogue, Beryl Henson. Miss Eleanor Bryant was guest soloist.

Nutlines were read by Lenora Henson and the scripture lesson was read by Ernestine Hayes.

The speaker was introduced by Joan Hall. He was the Rev. Charles Churn Jr., who delivered a very meaningful sermon. Gwendolyn Bennett introduced all visitors.

There were also selections by the Youth Choir and Senior Choirs. At the program's conclusion there were remarks by the pastor, the Rev. C. V. Brown.

Announcements

On Sunday, Jan. 31, there will be a bake sale, benefit of the Stewards and Trustees of Grace AME Church.

There will be three prizes for the highest amounts over $50 raised by the committee: Miss Sedonia Hayes, Mrs. Elsie Williams and Mrs. Mary Brown.

The annual recital given by Kittrell College will be held Feb. 4 at Bethel AME Church. The recital is given under the Presiding Elders of the Baltimore Conference.

A Pre-Valentine Record Hop will be held at Rannocks School on Friday, Feb. 5, 9-12 p.m. The Record Hop will feature Hot Rod, the Outer Space Man, Sponsor of the dance is the Rannocks PTA. Finance Committee, Mrs. Elsie Williams, chairman.

The Cubanite Social Club will sponsor a Friday Fish Fry, Feb. 19, at the home of Mrs. Eleanor Randall, 311 Melvin Ave., Catonsville.

Tickets may be held from 5 to 9 p.m. Chairman of the committee is Mrs. Eleanor Randall. Members of the Cubanettes are Mrs. Elsie Williams, Mrs. Bengies.

On Jan. 31, Morning Star Baptist Church awarded pins to the community's boy scouts.

Sunday, Jan. 31, the Rev. Samuel E. Redd and Morning Star members will go to Havre De Grace where they will attend Redd's 3 p.m. service at Mt. Zion Baptist Church. The Rev. Mr. Phillips is pastor of the church.

On Jan. 31, after the morning service Little David Camps will be crowned as Mr. Morning Star.
