B'nai B'rith honors Ernie Banks in NY

NEW YORK (ANP) — Ernie Banks of the Chicago Cubs was one of a number of outstanding baseball personalities honored at the annual dinner of the sports lodge of B'nai B'rith here Sunday.

Banks has received a number of honors since becoming the first player to win the National League's Most Valuable Player award for two second consecutive years, in 1959.

He also posted an impressive record in which he batted over .300, drove in 143 runs, top in the league, and clouted 43 home runs.

Daddy Lipscomb victor in pro wrestling debut

SAN FRANCISCO — Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb, scourge of opponents as an all-pro tackle with the Baltimore Colts, is now a winning wrestler.

Big Daddy, taking with him the gentleness that urges him to help opposing ball carriers to their feet on the football field, refused to display meanness in winning a tag team match on Tuesday night.

"Big Daddy," at 297 pounds, was teamed with fellow Colt Don Joyce, who came in at 272. They opposed Leo Nomellini, 266-pound lineman for the San Francisco Forty Niners, and bad boy Tom Rice— just a shell of a man at 240.

The first fall came after 18 minutes when Rice— who seldom is nominated for popularity awards— was disqualified for kicking Joyce when he was down.

Lipscomb ended the match about nine minutes later by pinning Rice after blasting him with a football-style block. The crowd of 3,500 fans thundered its approval.

LIPSCOMB'S great strength was revealed when he constantly broke loose from all attempts to pin him— but he seemed reluctant to use his muscles on the attack until he pinned Rice.

Ducks Top Poly for MSA Lead

Douglass High School, thirsting for the nectar of first place, took over the undisputed lead in Division 1 of the Maryland Scholastic Association basketball race yesterday (Thursday) afternoon.

The Ducks took the measure of their nearest rivals, Poly, 51-46, in the Douglass gym.

In order to do so, though, they had to withstand a determined bid by the Engineers in the final period.

AIDED BY the spectacular defensive work of Coley Sanders, Douglass ran up a 26-13 halftime lead. The rangy Sanders handled Poly's Bill O'Hara under the defensive backboard with relative ease, rebounding effectively when he wasn't blocking Engineer shots.

The Ducks gained a 10-4 bulge in the first quarter, but Poly closed to within three points, 14-11, midway of the second period.

THE ENGINEER hopes died as quickly, however, as Sanders blocked shots by Paul Bernhardt and Ron Evans, and fed to a teammate downfloor.

Dennis Hill grabbed the first pass and bucketed it; Bill Hailey the second for a score. This marked the "duck" surge was not yet finished.

Frank James elbowed his way into the act, hitting two consecutive two-pointers from close up, then caging two free throws. When Evans tallied twice from the foul line for Poly, it was 26-13.

A MILD POLY rally in the early moments of the third quarter cut the Douglass lead to eight points, 31-23. But again Sanders and James, with help from Hill, pulled out the Ducks at the three-quarter mark they were in front, 38-25.

all-court press as the final period commenced; and it paid off in some measure.

With Evans, Homer Schwartz and Dave Nicholson, a husky-body ballhawk, red-dogging the Duck attack, Poly moved steadily closer only to have time run out as they were still lacking five points of snarling things.

FOR COACH MACK Payne's youngsters it was a case of getting back in the winning groove after being untracked by a scrambling Patterson Park five on Tuesday.

Befuddled by the tight Clipper defense in the confines of the small Patterson gym, the Ducks fell behind early and could never catch up. Only once, when they rallied to within two points of the opposition, where the Ducks in position to threaten as they went down, 48-42.

THE VICTORY served as some solace for the Douglass mentor, since it kept his team in the thick of the race at a time when he was losing two key men, Ken Hill and Coley Sanders played their last game and Payne must find replacements for the second
