Lt. Col. Claude C. Clark retired after 35 years

Six major units and five companies of the 3rd Armored Cavalry Regiment massed officers and presented arms, on Thursday in the field house at Fort George G. Meade, Md., at retirement ceremonies for eight commissioned officers and one non-commissioned officer of the 2nd Army.

Lt. Col. Claude C. Clark, of the ROTC Department at Morgan State College, Baltimore, was one of the commissioned officers for which this ceremony was held.

He was retiring with over 35 years of combined service having begun his military career in 1924 with the Illinois National Guard, in Chicago. Five years later, he was commissioned a second lieutenant.

WHEN WORLD WAR II broke out, Mr. Clark was called to active duty as a Captain with the 184th Field Artillery Regiment.

He commanded Battery C of the 660th Field Artillery Battalion, 92nd Division, during the Italian Campaign. It was during this tour of duty that he then Captain Clark was wounded in action and was awarded the Purple Heart.

Upon his return to the United States he was assigned as Assistant Professor of Military Science and Tactics at West Virginia State College, from 1946 through 1950.

FROM 1950 through the school term of 1954, the then Major Clark served as PMS and T at Florida A and M University.

It was under his leadership that the ROTC Detail was rated superior during many inspections, and the present ROTC building was constructed.

From Florida A and M University, Major Clark was assigned as Advisor to the G-3 Section and the Instructors' Group of the Replacement Training Center No. 2, of the Republic of Korea Army.

In Nov., 1954, while serving in this capacity, he was promoted to the rank of Lt. Colonel.

• • •

IT WAS also on this tour of duty that Col. Clark was cited by Chong Il Kwon, General, ROK Army, Chief of Staff, Seoul, Korea, for the performance of his duties in a highly efficient and commendable manner. General Kwon's letter of appreciation of Col. Clark stated in part: "Through tactical knowledge and wide military experience, combined with your professional skill, you met all challenging situations with courage and determination.

"The willing and effective assistance and guidance you rendered to the Republic of Korea Army have helped promote international confidence and respect between United States and the Republic of Korea."

Returning from Korea, Col. Clark was assigned to the Training Command at Fort Benning, Ga. After this assignment, he was assigned to the ROTC Department at Morgan State College, headed by Lt. Col. Edward C. Johnson. It is here that he completes his more than 35 years of combined military service.

"Col. Clark and his family (wife, Ella and college-age daughter, Ruth) will remain in Baltimore until June, 1960. After school closes, the family will take up permanent residence in Miami, Fla.

Science Finds New Healing Substance That Promptly Stops Itching and Pain of Piles

New York, N. Y. (Special) — One of the most common afflictions is a condition known as "itching piles". It is almost embarrassing for the victim during the day and especially aggravating at night.

No matter what you've used without results—here's good news. For the first time, science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to promptly stop the burning itch and pain. It actually shrinks hemorrhoids—without surgery. Medical science has proved this substance produces a remarkably effective rate of healing. Its germ-killing properties also help prevent infection.

In one hemorrhoid case after another "very striking improvement" was reported and verified by doctors' observations. This improvement was maintained in cases where doctors' observations were continued over a period of months! Among these sufferers were a wide variety of hemorrhoid conditions, some of 10 to 20 years' duration.

The secret is this new healing substance (Bio-Dyne*) — discovery of a world-famous research institution. This substance is now obtainable in ointment or suppository form known as Preparation H. Ask for Preparation H* suppositories (convenient to carry if away from home) or Preparation H* ointment with special applicator. 'Romance' figures in fight over Harrison's $100,000

WASHINGTON

An alleged romance of approximately a quarter century ago was recalled in District Court this week in an effort to discredit the will of the late restaurateur, Robert H. Harrison whose estate is valued up to $100,000.

Samuel C. Klein, an attorney for relatives who are fighting the will, charged before a jury that Mrs. Nealy S. Boone, manager of Harrison's Cafe, who received the bulk of the estate, was the "mistress" of the late Mr. Harrison.

His assertion was called "unjustified by George E. C. Hayes, one of the attorneys representing Mrs. Boone. Mr. Hayes said the allegation was made for the purpose of "besmirching a man who lived decently in the community."

• • •

The defense was expected to present its case today (Friday). The jury may begin deliberation this weekend or early next week.

• • •

THE CASE went to trial Tuesday before District Court Judge George Hart. Relatives claim Mr. Harrison who died at age 85 in June, 1959, made the will four months before his death under undue influence and that he was mentally and physically unfit at the time.

Under the will, dated Feb. 9, 1959, Mrs. Minnie E. Fowler, a sister, 221 F St., NW receives 22 2/9 percent of proceeds from sale of a house at 5074 Central Ave., S.E. Other house proceeds go to another sister, Mary C. Lewis, 22½ percent; an employee at Harrison's Cafe, Daisy M. Bolden, 22 and 2/9 percent; another employee, Willie L. Skelton, one - half percent.

With the exception of the Central Avenue home; $1,000 awarded to People's Congregational Church and sums of $500 each to J. Franklin Wilson, attorney who is executor and Alice S. Mayo, an employee, the rest of the estate goes to Mrs. Boone.

Mr. Harrison left $29,848.03 in stocks and bonds. Real estate is valued at $49,500 in the District and $750 in property in Maryland.

• • •

MRS. LEWIS, 5517 7th St. NW, testified that she had known Mrs. Boone ever since she came to work at the cafe located in the 400 block Florida Ave., NW over 30 years ago.

The sister stated she lived with Mrs. Boone briefly at an apartment on 7th. NW about 20 years ago and observed her brother "coming there, and staying" with Mrs. Boone.

"I felt because I was so disgusted and discouraged. I could not stand to see my brother whom . . . Mrs. Lewis did not finish her statement after attorneys for Mrs. Boone objected.

Mrs. Lewis also recalled that Mr. Harrison could not be found when a relative died but she was located at Mrs. Boone's apartment.

"Mrs. Boone told me he had stayed there all night," Mrs. Lewis asserted.

She claimed Mrs. Boone married at the suggestion of Mr. Harrison after he had an operation, about 15 years ago.

"She told me Robert would not be any good to her anymore," Mrs. Lewis asserted.

After the cafe proprietor's wife's death in Nov. 1951, Mrs. Boone occupied a room adjoining Mr. Harrison's on the third floor of a residence next to the cafe, Mrs. Lewis testified.

• • •

DESCRIBING her brother's health, Mrs. Lewis said he blacked out at a stag picnic given in 1956 by the De Priest Club, and suffered other illnesses at various times. She also stated he had depended more on other people in his last years and seemed to be under the impression he did not have much money.

The sister also stated her brother had lost interest in his personal cleanliness and habits.

• • •

MRS. BOONE was given an automobile by Mr. Harrison and drove him wherever he wanted to go, Mrs. Lewis testified.

On the morning her brother's death was discovered, Mrs. Lewis, who was sharing a second floor bedroom next to the cafe, came downstairs to the room occupied since his illness and found Mr. Harrison's body, she said.

"I awakened Mrs. Boone," the witness continued, "and she ran to the telephone to call Mr. Wilson. I told her it was customary to call a doctor to pronounce a person dead before calling in a lawyer."

• • •

MRS. BERNICE HARRISON, 741 Longfellow St., NW, former wife of a step grandson of Mr. Harrison, described an incident which she said occurred following her marriage to the youngest Robert Harrison.

"Miss Boone came to a family dinner. Robert H. Harrison told her it was just for the family but she said the food made her hungry. He introduced her as a trusted servant. She sat down and monopolized the conversation.

"She was so rude to Lottie (deceased wife of Mr. Harrison), until Lottie said, 'I'm still the mistress in this house and you shut up.'

"In November, 1951 at Lottie's funeral, Mrs. Boone pushed her way into the family car, which was second in the procession.

"Mrs. Boone was gay and witty and it didn't seem proper. She told the driver to take us to her house for refreshments and I told him to take us to the house of mourning. If Mrs. Boone wanted to go home, she could go alone."

Relatives at first contended fraud in the execution of Mr. Harrison's will but the charge was withdrawn.

• • •

B. DOYLE MITCHELL, president of the Industrial Bank, and Mervin O. Parker, cashier and vice president of the bank, testified that they had signed as witnesses to the will following a meeting of the bank's Board of Directors at which Mr. Harrison was a member.

Among others who testified were Mrs. Fowler, sister, who said her brother had seen "dead people" during his last illness; Mrs. Beatrice A. Lepper, 222 First St., NW, a niece; Mrs. Bolden, Miss Mayo; Mrs. Ida Smith Taylor, and a nurse who attended Mr. Harrison.

In addition to Mr. Klein, the relatives are represented by Simon Tucker. Others appearing on behalf of Mrs. Boone along with Mr. Hayes are J. Franklin Wilson and George Windsor.

Lincoln-Douglass sale to be held on Feb. 13

Plans for the sixth annual Lincoln - Douglass Day sale, scheduled for next Saturday are going ahead "full blast." All phases of the mammoth sale will be completed by the time the stores open on the 13th at 8:30 a.m.

According to merchants who make up the Pennsylvania Avenue Lafayette Market Association (PALMA) hundreds of items will be marked down for this savaleade of bargains.

All PALMA stores will be again recognized by the big PALMA Lincoln-Douglass Day sale signs on their windows.

This year, as in the past, all efforts are being made to offer real "price busters."

• • •

PAST EXPERIENCE during the five previous Lincoln-Douglass Day sales indicate that the public is well aware of the types of item and know the prices at which they will be sold during this event.

Thousands of shoppers who were attracted to the PALMA stores in the past indicate that they will take full advantage of the tremendous bargains PALMA merchants will offer.

This annual event has become a tradition on Pennsylvania Ave.

PALMA merchants have a code of "Courtesy, Service and Merchandise Values."

SINCE THE inception of the PALMA Association, the single biggest event of a selling nature is the Lincoln - Douglass Day Sale according to shoppers who were questioned.

"I know one thing," said a lady who asked not to be identified. "I know that the bargains I bought in the last Lincoln-Douglass Day Sale were really good bargains and that everything I bought was just as it was advertised."

THE PALMA stores will open at 8:30 a.m. on Lincoln-Douglass Day and stay open until 9:30 p.m. Extra sales people have been engaged to handle the expected crowds.

St. Louis aldermen kill bill to open public places

ST. LOUIS (NNPA) — The Tucker Administration bill to eliminate racial discrimination in places of public accommodation was defeated by the St. Louis Board of Aldermen 17-11, last Friday.

A total of 19 votes was needed for passage of the bill into law.

The proposal would have made it illegal for such places as restaurants, theaters and hotels to refuse service on the basis of race, color or religion. Violators would have been subjected to fines of $25 to $500.

ACCORDING TO informed sources, the defeat of the bill can be traced to the opposition of James W. Noonan, placed Third Ward, Democratic majority leader, and three others.

The three others were named as Raymond Leisure of the Seventh Ward, A. Barney Muehlebach of the 21st Ward and Joseph F. Roddy of the 17th Ward.

ONLY RECENTLY Kansas City had enacted a similar law and Alderman DeWitt T. Lawson of the 28th Ward called on his colleagues to follow the example set by K.C.

It is noted that the Tucker Administration bill was one of the mildest ever presented to civic groups" in the city.

One board member, Joseph B. McDonald of the 28th Ward, noted that he found it difficult to oppose the measure because of the friendship he had formed with the colored members of the board.

Ministers urged to support 'write for rights' campaign

WASHINGTON

This week signals the kick-off for a nation - wide letter writing campaign sponsored by the American Council on Human Rights.

Recognizing that the work of NAACP, ACHR and other groups leading the legislative fight for a strong civil rights bill needed broad expressions of support from the grass roots level, two weeks ago, the council telegrams to the heads of more than 200 national organizations, urging them to mobilize their members in the "Write for Rights" drive.

This was followed up by sending some 5,000 letters to organizations and individuals around the country, explaining in detail how to conduct the letter - writing project.

Ministers have been asked to devote part of their services to the program in which the congregation will participate.

Special rooms would be set aside for this purpose, with the church supplying the stationery and stamps and the information on "to whom the letters should be written" in the Congress.

3. A workable program for desegregating federal facilities.

Since the letters went out, the Attorney General of the U.S. has proposed a new plan for the protection of voting rights in which the federal courts would assume the responsibility assuring this, both at the state and national level.

THE COUNCIL favors both the registration and voter plans, and believes that a bill embodying the best points of both proposals would be desirable.

At the same time, the Council feels that it is equally important that Title III of the Civil Rights B
